God at His Best Nina P. Ross,1999 All God's Children Nina P. Ross,2001 Challenges of Diversity Werner Sollors,2017-10-26 What unites and what divides Americans as a nation Who are we and can we strike a balance between an emphasis on our divergent ethnic origins and what we have in common Opening with a survey of American literature through the vantage point of ethnicity Werner Sollors examines our evolving understanding of ourselves as an Anglo American nation to a multicultural one and the key role writing has played in that process Challenges of Diversity contains stories of American myths of arrival pilgrims at Plymouth Rock slave ships at Jamestown steerage passengers at Ellis Island the powerful rhetoric of egalitarian promise in the Declaration of Independence and the heterogeneous ends to which it has been put and the recurring tropes of multiculturalism over time e pluribus unum melting pot cultural pluralism Sollors suggests that although the transformation of this settler country into a polyethnic and self consciously multicultural nation may appear as a story of great progress toward the fulfillment of egalitarian ideals deepening economic inequality actually exacerbates the divisions among Americans today Pantologia. God's Internationalists David P. King,2019-04-11 Over the past seventy years World Vision has grown from a small missionary agency to the largest Christian humanitarian organization in the world with 40 000 employees offices in nearly one hundred countries and an annual budget of over 2 billion While founder Bob Pierce was an evangelist with street smarts the most recent World Vision U S presidents move with ease between megachurches the boardrooms of Fortune 500 companies and the corridors of Capitol Hill Though the organization has remained decidedly Christian it has earned the reputation as an elite international nongovernmental organization managed efficiently by professional experts fluent in the language of both marketing and development God's Internationalists is the first comprehensive study of World Vision or any such religious humanitarian agency In chronicling the organization s transformation from 1950 to the present David P King approaches World Vision as a lens through which to explore shifts within post World War II American evangelicalism as well as the complexities of faith based humanitarianism Chronicling the evolution of World Vision s practices theology rhetoric and organizational structure King demonstrates how the organization rearticulated and retained its Christian identity even as it expanded beyond a narrow American evangelical subculture King s pairing of American evangelicals interactions abroad with their own evolving identity at home reframes the traditional narrative of modern American evangelicalism while also providing the historical context for the current explosion of evangelical interest in global social engagement By examining these patterns of change God s Internationalists offers a distinctive angle on the history of religious humanitarianism Challenges on the Emmaus Road T. Felder Dorn,2021-11-25 While slavery and secession divided the Union during the American Civil War they also severed the Northern and Southern dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church In Challenges on the Emmaus Road T Felder Dorn focuses on the way Northern and Southern Episcopal bishops confronted and responded to the issues and events of their turbulent times Prior to the Civil War Southern bishops were industrious in evangelizing among enslaved African Americans but at the same time they supported the legal and social aspects of the peculiar institution Southern and Northern bishops parted company over the institution of slavery not over the place of blacks in the Episcopal Church As Southern states left the Union Southern dioceses separated from the Episcopal Church in the United States The book s title was inspired by the Gospel of Luke 24 13 35 in which the resurrected Jesus Christ walked unrecognized with his disciples and discussed the events of his own crucifixion and disappearance from his tomb Dorn perceives that scriptural episode as a metaphor for the responses of Episcopal bishops to the events of the Civil War era Dorn carefully summarizes the debates within the church and in secular society surrounding the important topics of the era In doing so he lays the groundwork for his own interpretations of church history and also provides authentic data for other church scholars to investigate such topics as faith and doctrine evangelism and the administrative history of one of the most important institutions in America Dorn devotes the final chapters to the postwar reunification of the Episcopal Church and Southern bishops involvement in establishing the Commission on Freedmen to offer help with the educational and spiritual needs of the recently emancipated slaves

One for the Other Andrew P. Campbell, 2025-06-24 For two thousand years the cross of Christ has been the central point of Christian theologies of salvation However in recent years a variety of theologians such as Rosemary Radford Ruether Rita Nakashima Brock J Denny Weaver and Ren Girard united in their disdain for violence have abandoned any divine sanction or salvific significance for the cross of Christ Instead they frame atonement not in terms of Christ s death but his life formulating atonement theologies that address the need for an ethical concern for the oppressed and powerless Other This volume is dedicated to offering a fair account of their revisions identifying the ethical undertones that lead nonviolent theologians and thinkers to reform atonement theology examining their claims in light of those ethical foundations and exploring P T Forsyth as a viable alternative for contemporary theology

Bold, Fresh Wine Chinedum Benjamin Anyacho, 2010-03-22 The national revival in the biblical Nineveh was short lived Since the book of Acts the last 2000 years have seen a few fingerprints in most of the places where God has poured out revival Why is it that when we go to those places that God moved they are worse than they were before the move of God Is that what God intended Some thing is radically wrong Do we really need revival Is that what we are praying for Can desperation and hunger move or fast forward the timing of God Why did they run out of wine in the middle of that wedding in Cana and what does that look like today Why did Mary tell Jesus that they were out of wine and why did Jesus choose a different method in making the new wine Are we at a tipping point of a sustainable transforming revival that has no fingerprint of man like the world has never seen Are we at a juxtaposition of another Great Spiritual Awakening Thirsty Give Me Bold Fresh Wine answers all these questions and more
