God Bless General Early:

God Bless General Early Harris Mullen, 1998-09 A novel about courage honor and love and what happened in the wake of a different Gettysburg German Literature of the Early Middle Ages Brian Murdoch, 2004 A detailed contextualized picture of the very beginnings of writing in German from around 750 to 1100 This second volume of the set not only presents a detailed picture of the beginnings of writing in German from its first emergence as a literary language from around 750 to 1100 but also places those earliest writings into a context The first stages of German literature existed within a manuscript culture so careful consideration is given to what constitutes the actual texts but German literature also arose within a society that had recently been Christianized through the medium of Latin Therefore what we understand by literature in Germany at this early period must include a great amount of writing in Latin Thus the volume looks in detail at Latin works in prose and verse but with an eye upon the interaction between Latin and German writings Some of the material in the newly written German language is not literary in the modern sense of the word but makes clear the difficulties and indeed the triumphs of the establishing of a written literary language Individual chapters look first at the earliest translations and functional literature in German including charms and prayers next the examination of heroic material juxtaposes the Hildebrandlied with the Christian Ludwigslied and with Latin writings like Waltharius and the panegyrics Otfrid's work the Gospel poem in German is given its due prominence the smaller German texts and the later prose works are fully treated as is chronicle writing in German and Latin Old High German literature was a trickle compared to the flood of the Latin that surrounded and influenced it but its importance is undeniable that trickle became a river Contributors Linda Archibald Graeme Dunphy Stephen Penn Christopher Wells Jonathan West Brian Murdoch Brian Murdoch is Professor of German at the University of Stirling Scotland The Journal of the Armed Forces, 1885 In the Early Days Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Dubuque, Iowa), 1911 Southern Historical Society Papers Southern Historical Society, 1893 The Great Events by Famous Historians Charles Francis Horne, Rossiter Johnson, 1905 The Blue and Gray J. Warren Gilbert, 1922

Campfire and Battlefield Rossiter Johnson, John Clark Ridpath, Selden Connor, John Brown Gordon, John Tyler Morgan, Henry W. B. Howard, O. O. Howard, 2022-05-28 In the evocative anthology Campfire and Battlefield readers are drawn into the rich narrative tapestry of war's grim realities and the quiet reflective moments of camaraderie and introspection often found beside the flickering campfires This collection ventures beyond the typical remembrances of wartime valor and strategy embracing a breadth of literary styles that range from poignant poetry to immersive battlefield recollections The anthology offers a compelling cross section of perspectives that illuminate not just the chaos of conflict but also the enduring human spirit amidst adversity Noteworthy pieces while anonymous resonate with powerful themes of sacrifice unity and resilience that are as relevant today as they were at their inception Edited by a cadre of historians and war veterans such as Rossiter Johnson John Clark Ridpath and Selden Connor the anthology brings together a tapestry of voices whose historical and literary expertise enriches the narrative The contributors each a storied figure in their own right weave a cultural and historical mosaic that harks back to various pivotal movements in history Campfire and Battlefield shines light on personal and collective stories forging an authentic dialogue that bridges past and present understanding of conflict s toll Campfire and Battlefield is an essential read for anyone eager to explore the diverse spectrum of wartime experiences Scholars history enthusiasts and literary aficionados alike will find value in this anthology which serves as an educational tool and a catalyst for reflection It emboldens readers to engage with the varied narratives that shape our understanding of war and peace providing both an expansive view of history and a deeply personal immersion into the lives touched by its events
