

The background is a complex collage. At the top, a portion of a globe is visible. Below it is a large, textured blue area that resembles a close-up of a fabric or a microscopic view. In the lower right, there is a bright yellow circular object, possibly a light fixture or a lens. The overall color palette is dominated by blues, yellows, and browns.

Global Obscenities Patriarchy Capitalism And The Lure Of Cyberfantasy:

Global Obscenities Zillah Eisenstein, 1998-10 The New York Times devotes the cover of its magazine to America's declining interest in politics and its obsession with money finance and the markets Bill Gates builds a 50 million mansion while food pantries and homeless shelters overflow with the desperate The explosive expansion of media and cyber conglomerates creates dreamworlds while the ecology of our actual world is jeopardized Public space and public democracy withers as is evidenced by the fact that the closest facsimile of a town square is the local Barnes and Noble New geographies of power are defined by sex scandals plant closings cyberporn sweatshop labor information webs and stock market schizophrenia Global capitalism and its cyberrelations use this chaos to construct modern forms of sexual and racial exploitation Into this world steps Zillah Eisenstein with a book of profound despair and yet also great hope informed by her trademark sharp analysis and her unrelenting passion for a more humane world Exposing the purported democratic effect of new media for the global mirage it is Eisenstein shows how transnational capital and its patriarchal obsessions threaten us all while at the same time creating possibilities for a new democratic society

Education, Globalization and the State in the Age of Terrorism Michael A. Peters, 2015-12-03 Education plays an important role in challenging combating and in understanding terrorism in its different forms whether as counter terrorism or as a form of human rights education Just as education has played a significant role in the process of nation building so education also plays a strong role in the process of empire globalization and resistance to global forces and in terrorism especially where it is linked to emergent statehood This book focuses on the theme of education in an age of terrorism exploring the conflicts of globalization and global citizenship feminism post 9 11 youth identities citizenship and democracy in a culture of permanent war and the relation between education and war with a focus on the war against Iraq

Cape Verdean Women and Globalization K. Carter, J. Aulette, 2009-09-28 This book employs critical ethnography and critical discourse analysis to explore what Cape Verdeans have to say about women s lives in the era of twenty first century globalization The authors investigate the economic and personal difficulties they face such as poverty managing single mother headed households and violence

False Choices Liza Featherstone, 2016-05-24 Hillary Rodham Clinton is one of the most powerful women in world politics and the irrational right wing hatred of Clinton has fed her progressive appeal helping turn her into a feminist icon To get a woman in the White House it s thought would be an achievement for all women everywhere a kind of trickle down feminism In the run up to the 2016 presidential election the mantle of feminist elect has descended on Hillary Clinton as a thousand viral memes applaud her and most mainstream feminist leaders thinkers and organizations endorse her In this atmosphere dissent seems tantamount to political betrayal In False Choices an all star lineup of feminists contests this simplistic reading of the candidate A detailed look at Hillary Clinton's track record on welfare Wall Street criminal justice education and war reveals that she has advanced laws and policies that have done real harm to the lives of women and children across the country and the globe This well researched collection of essays restores to feminism its revolutionary meaning and outlines how it could transform the United States and its relation to the world FAQ This is a book critical of Hillary Clinton Is this book sexist No The contributors are radical and feminist and almost all are women But sometimes even men write things about Hillary that are not sexist Aren't you helping the Republicans Only if you think that even one person will read a book by a coven of leftwing feminists find it convincing and conclude that she should vote for one of those misogynistic reactionaries Isn't this the wrong time No It's never too late or too soon to criticize someone who is about to become the most powerful individual on earth If you think there's ever a time to withhold comment on such a person you might be an authoritarian Don't you care about feminism Yes That's why we did this

Asian American Literature and the Environment Lorna Fitzsimmons, Youngsuk Chae, Bella Adams, 2014-10-24 This book is a ground breaking transnational study of representations of the environment in Asian American literature Extending and renewing Asian American studies and ecocriticism by drawing the two fields into deeper dialogue it brings Asian American writers to the center of ecocritical studies This collection demonstrates the distinctiveness of Asian American writers' positions on topics of major concern today environmental justice identity and the land war environments consumption urban environments and the environment and creativity Represented authors include Amy Tan Maxine Hong Kingston Ruth Ozeki Ha Jin Fae Myenne Ng Le Ly Hayslip Lan Cao Mitsuye Yamada Lawson Fusao Inada Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston Milton Murayama Don Lee and Hisaye Yamamoto These writers provide a range of perspectives on the historical social psychological economic philosophical and aesthetic responses of Asian Americans to the environment conceived in relation to labor racism immigration domesticity global capitalism relocation pollution violence and religion Contributors apply a diversity of critical frameworks including critical radical race studies counter memory studies ecofeminism and geomantic criticism The book presents a compelling and timely green perspective through which to understand key works of Asian American literature and leads the field of ecocriticism into neglected terrain

Embodied Utopias Amy Bingaman, Lise Sanders, Rebecca Zorach, 2003-12-16 Utopia has become a dirty word in recent scholarship on modernism architecture urban planning and gender studies Many utopian designs now appear impractical manifesting an arrogant disregard for the lived experiences of the ordinary inhabitants who make daily use of global public and private spaces The essays in Embodied Utopias argue that the gendered body is the crux of the hopes and disappointments of modern urban and suburban utopias of the Americas Europe and Asia They reassess utopian projects masculinist feminist colonialist progressive of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries they survey the dystopian landscapes of the present and they gesture at the potential for an embodied approach to the urban future to the changing spaces of cities and virtual landscapes

Interactive Realism Daniel Mark Downes, 2005 It is commonplace in our

digitized world to think that technology is the primary agent of psychological and social change In Interactive Realism Daniel Downes argues that it continues to be people who construct social reality through their interactions critiquing the transformative turn in media studies Distinguishing between the Internet a communication system and cyberspace an environment for human exchange the author provides a framework for exploring the metaphors and images used in cyberspace to represent and model social reality He clarifies how these symbolic interactions are linked to the technologies used to create store and transmit them and to their social context Drawing on examples from digital games web design film and photography the author shows how individual experiences are calibrated by technology and how digital communication contributes to broader processes such as community building and public memory Downes articulates a nuanced form of media ecology that does not focus on a single cause of change but rather on the relationships between embodied experience communication systems and representations Interactive Realism establishes a new method for understanding the importance of digital media to the construction of social reality

Culture after Humanism Iain Chambers, 2013-10-18 Culture After Humanism asks what happens to the authority of traditional western modes of thought in the wake of postmodernist theories of language and identity Drawing on examples from music architecture literature philosophy and art Iain Chambers investigates moments of tension interruptions which transform our perception of the world and test the limits of language art and technology

Resisting Biopolitics S.E. Wilmer, Audronė Žukauskaitė, 2015-09-16 The topic of biopolitics is a timely one and it has become increasingly important for scholars to reconsider how life is objectified mobilized and otherwise bound up in politics This cutting edge volume discusses the philosophical social and political notions of biopolitics as well as the ways in which biopower affects all aspects of our lives including the relationships between the human and nonhuman the concept of political subjectivity and the connection between art science philosophy and politics In addition to tracing the evolving philosophical discourse around biopolitics this collection researches and explores certain modes of resistance against biopolitical control Written by leading experts in the field the book's chapters investigate resistance across a wide range of areas politics and biophilosophy technology and vitalism creativity and bioethics and performance Resisting Biopolitics is an important intervention in contemporary biopolitical theory looking towards the future of this interdisciplinary field

Ambiguities of Activism Ingrid M. Hoofd, 2012-11-27 This volume provides a critical and in depth investigation of the relationship between alter globalist thinking and practices and their popular discourses It examines the ways in which several alter globalist activist groups like Indymedia no borders campaigns and forms of climate change activism as well as left wing intellectuals and academics like Michael Hardt Al Gore Antonio Negri Hakim Bey and Geert Lovink mobilize problematic discourses tools and divisions in an attempt to overcome gendered raced and classed oppressions worldwide The book draws out how these mobilizations and theorizations despite or possibly because of their liberatory claims are actually implicated in the intensification of global hierarchies by repeatedly invoking narratives of transcendence connection progress and in particular of speed Hoofd argues that the humanist ideals that underlie all these practices paradoxically trigger increasing disenfranchisements worldwide

(En)Gendering the War on Terror Kim Rygiel, 2016-03-03 The war on terror has been raging for many years now and subsequently there is a growing body of literature examining the development motivation and effects of this US led aggression Virtually absent from these accounts is an examination of the central role that gender race class and sexuality play in the war on terror This lack of attention reflects a continued resistance by analysts to acknowledge and engage identity related social issues as central elements within global politics As this conflict spreads and deepens it is more important than ever to examine how diverse international actors are using the war on terror as an opportunity to reinforce existing gendered raced classed and sexualized inter national relations This book examines the official war stories being told to the international community about why and against whom the war on terror is being waged The book will benefit students scholars and practitioners in the areas of international relations women s studies and cultural studies

The Posthuman Rosi Braidotti, 2013-07-11 The Posthuman offers both an introduction and major contribution to contemporary debates on the posthuman Digital second life genetically modified food advanced prosthetics robotics and reproductive technologies are familiar facets of our globally linked and technologically mediated societies This has blurred the traditional distinction between the human and its others exposing the non naturalistic structure of the human The Posthuman starts by exploring the extent to which a post humanist move displaces the traditional humanistic unity of the subject Rather than perceiving this situation as a loss of cognitive and moral self mastery Braidotti argues that the posthuman helps us make sense of our flexible and multiple identities Braidotti then analyzes the escalating effects of post anthropocentric thought which encompass not only other species but also the sustainability of our planet as a whole Because contemporary market economies profit from the control and commodification of all that lives they result in hybridization erasing categorical distinctions between the human and other species seeds plants animals and bacteria These dislocations induced by globalized cultures and economies enable a critique of anthropocentrism but how reliable are they as indicators of a sustainable future The Posthuman concludes by considering the implications of these shifts for the institutional practice of the humanities Braidotti outlines new forms of cosmopolitan neo humanism that emerge from the spectrum of post colonial and race studies as well as gender analysis and environmentalism The challenge of the posthuman condition consists in seizing the opportunities for new social bonding and community building while pursuing sustainability and empowerment

Imagine Otherwise Kandice Chuh, 2003-04-17 A critical examination of what constitutes the varied positions grouped together as Asian American seen in relation to both American and transnational forces

The Palgrave Handbook of Gender and Development Wendy Harcourt, 2016-04-29 With original and engaging contributions this Handbook confirms feminist scholarship in development studies as a vibrant research field It reveals the diverse ways that feminist theory and practice inform and shape gender analysis and development policies bridging generations of feminists from different institutions disciplines and regions
