Global Journalism Topical Issues And Media Systems:

Global Journalism Arnold S. de Beer, John Calhoun Merrill, 2009 Global Journalism addresses the most pertinent issues and problems in today's global journalism. This new edition recognizes the vast and rapid changes taking place in global journalism across media systems on all continents. Its three interlinking parts offer an overview of the present state of media and journalism theory, a critical analysis of the main issues confronting global journalists, media organizations, audiences, and others in the media world, and a focus on the media of the world's eight major journalism and media regions. Global Journalism with Student Access Code Card: Topical Issues and Media Systems Arnold S. de Beer, John C. Merrill, 2011-12 Thoroughly reviewed with new chapters and several new authors, Global Journalism addresses the most pertinent issues and problems in today's global journalism. This new edition recognizes the vast and rapid changes taking place in global journalism across media systems on all continents. Its three interlinking parts offer an overview of the present state of media and journalism theory, a critical analysis of the main issues confronting global journalists, media organizations, audiences, and others in the media world, and a focus on the media of the world's eight major journalism and media regions. Global Journalism has established itself over a quarter of a century as a trusted authority on international media. The new edition carries that reputation further into the 21st Century for a new generation of journalism and media scholars, students, and media professionals. Global Journalism Daniela V. Dimitrova, 2025-01-15 Global Journalism: Understanding World Media Systems provides an overview of the key issues in global journalism today and traces how media systems have evolved over time in different world regions. Taking into account local context as well as technological change across media industries, the book lays down the foundation for today's journalism students learning about the practice, growth, and impact of global media. It offers an up-to-date thorough overview of media developments in all world regions embedded in their unique political, cultural, and economic context. The book explains the theoretical foundations of global journalism from the classic Four Theories of the Press to more nuanced media models and proposes a framework for studying world media systems. Readers will gain knowledge about a wide range of topics including media freedom, global news cultures, professional ethics, and responsibilities, and education of global journalists. The second edition of the book underscores the essential role of generative AI and social media and discusses issues such as fake news and disinformation, soft power, and public diplomacy, foreign news reporting, and international news flow. Case studies serve as an excellent supplement to the conceptual content, exposing students to a number of hot topics from the FIFA World Cup in Qatar to the doctored photo of the Princess of Wales scandal. Global Journalism Vera Slavtcheva-Petkova, Michael Bromley, 2018-10-09 Providing a truly comprehensive overview of international journalism and global news reporting in the digital age, this new introductory textbook surveys the full variety of contexts that journalists around the world operate in, the challenges and pressures they face, their journalistic practices, and the wider theoretical and social implications. Analysing key scholarship in the field, Vera Slavtcheva-Petkova and Michael Bromley explore not just journalism as a single entity but equally the multiple cultures which host journalism and the variety of journalisms which exist across the world Clear and accessible this is an ideal companion for undergraduate and postgraduate students of international and global journalism on journalism or media and communication studies degrees

Misogyny across Global Media Maria B. Marron, 2021-03-01 Misogyny across Global Media argues that although women's experiences under misogyny are by no means universal patriarchal social and institutional systems facilitate gender based hostility across the globe Contributors demonstrate how systemic misogyny and power inequities are at the root of women suffering at the hands of misogyny with consequences ranging from sexual harassment to rape and even murder This book provides an interdisciplinary overview of systemic misogyny worldwide analyzing specific cases such as the controversial Child Marriage Act in Bangladesh sexual harassment in India's Bollywood culture rape culture among military forces in Jammu and Kashmir the murder of female students in Kenya and femicide in Turkey This collection discusses how misogyny creates a clash of cultures between men and women the powerful and the oppressed and the conservative and the liberal and uncovers the evils that are perpetrated against women worldwide as a result of systemic misogyny Scholars of gender studies media studies and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful

Transparency, Public Relations and the Mass Media Katerina Tsetsura, Dean Kruckeberg, 2017-01-12 This book is about media transparency and good faith attempts of honesty by both the sources and the gate keepers of news and other information that the mass media present as being unbiased Specifically this book provides a theoretical framework for understanding media transparency and its antithesis media opacity by analyzing extensive empirical data that the authors have collected from more than 60 countries throughout the world The practice of purposeful media opacity which exists to greater or lesser extents worldwide is a powerful hidden influencer of the ostensibly impartial media gate keepers whose publicly perceived role is to present news and other information based on these gate keepers perception of this information's truthfulness Empirical data that the authors have collected globally illustrate the extent of media opacity practices worldwide and note its pervasiveness in specific regions and countries The authors examine from multiple perspectives the complex question of whether media opacity should be categorically condemned as being universally inappropriate and unethical or whether it should be accepted or at least tolerated in some situations and environments

Mobile-First Journalism Steve Hill, Paul Bradshaw, 2018-10-10 Media publishers produce news for a full range of smart devices including smartphones tablets and watches Combining theory and practice Mobile First Journalism examines how audiences view share and engage with journalism on internet connected devices and through social media platforms The book examines the interlinked relationship between mobile technology social media and apps covering the entire news production process from generating ideas for visual multimedia news content to skills in verification and newsgathering and outputting interactive content on websites apps and social media platforms These skills are underpinned with a consideration of ethical and legal concerns involving fake news online trolling and the economics of mobile journalism Topics include understanding how mobile devices social media platforms and apps are interlinked making journalistic content more engaging and interactive advice on how successful news publishers have developed mobile and social media strategies adopting an approach that is entrepreneurial and user centered expert interviews with journalists academics and software developers learning key skills to launch and develop news websites apps and social media outputs Mobile First Journalism is essential reading for journalism students and media professionals and of interest to those studying on courses in social and new media

Problems and Perspectives of the Relationship between the Media and Human Rights Paromita Das,Charu Joshi,G. P. Pandey,2017-03-07 In a democratic political system the media is often entrusted with the responsibility of guarding the rights of the people As such it is essential to critically look at its role and functions in our present socio political context This book represents a comprehensive analysis of the following core issues the role of the media in educating protecting and promoting human rights the challenges facing the media and human rights human rights reporting and coverage and the media s role during violations of human rights especially with regards to women The book also contains suggestions and measures to increase awareness on human rights Furthermore it discusses the existing discourse of human rights and the media in India Nepal and Bangladesh

The Limits of Transition: The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission 20 Years on Mia Swart,Karin van Marle,2017-08-28 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission was a noble attempt to begin to address the continuing traumatic legacy of Apartheid This interdisciplinary collection critiques the work of the TRC 20 years since its establishment Taking the paralysing political and social crises of the mid 1990s in South Africa as starting point the book contains a collection of responses to the TRC that considers the notions of crisis judgment and social justice It asks whether the current political and social crises in South Africa are linked to the country s post apartheid transitional mechanisms specifically the TRC The fact that the material conditions of the lives of many Apartheid victims have not improved forms a major theme of the book Collectively the book considers the unfinished business of the TRC

Media in the Global Context Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi,2019-11-23 This book investigates ways in which global media coverage of conflicts affects the worldviews of the social and cultural values of nationals from the war regions It identifies the cultural patterns in remote communities that have been diluted by IT and the extent to which the changes impacted the values of the indigenes It also describes the role that IT especially social media and broadcast media play in the understanding of war among residents in highly wired and remote communities respectively

The New Arab Journalist Lawrence Pintak,2010-12-18 The Arab media is in the midst of a revolution that will inform questions of war and peace in the Middle East political and societal reform and relations between the West and the Arab World Drawing on the first broad cross border survey of Arab journalists first person interviews with scores of reporters and editors and his three decades experience reporting from the Middle East Lawrence Pintak examines how Arab journalists see themselves and their mission at this critical time in the evolution of the Arab media

He explores how in a diverse Arab media landscape expressing myriad opinions journalists are still under siege as governments fight a rear guard action to manage the message This innovative book breaks through the stereotypes about Arab journalists to reveal the fascinating and complex reality and what it means for the rest of us The Handbook of Election News Coverage Around the World Jesper Strömbäck, Lynda Lee Kaid, 2009-09-10 The Handbook of Election Coverage Around the World focuses on the news coverage of national elections in democracies around the globe It brings together and compares election news coverage within a single framework offering a systematic consideration of various factors Considering the prominence and power of the press in the election process this volume will offer unique breadth in its global consideration of the topic The volume will appeal to scholars in political communication political science mass media and society and others studying elections and media coverage around the world Foreign Correspondents and International Newsgathering Colleen Murrell, 2014-11-27 This book reveals that fixers local experts on whom foreign correspondents rely play a much more significant role in international television newsgathering than has been documented or understood Murrell explores the frames through which international reporting has traditionally been analysed and then shows that fixers who have largely been dismissed by scholars as logistical aides are in fact central to the day to day decision making that takes place on the road Murrell looks at why and how fixers are selected and what their significance is to foreign correspondence She asks if fixers help introduce a local perspective into the international news agenda or if fixers are simply People Like Us PLU Also included are in depth case studies of correspondents in Iraq and Indonesia Korean Communication, Media, and Culture Kyu Ho Youm, Nojin Kwak, 2018-08-31 Korean Communication Media and Culture is a bibliography of English language publications for non Korean speaking academics researchers and professionals In addition to the actual annotations of all the major books book chapters journal articles and theses dissertations each chapter includes contextual introductory commentary on its topic The authors not only historicize their findings but they also prescribe the direction that English language research on Korean communication should take Media and the Politics of Culture Nickesia S. Gordon, 2008 There is a great deal of discussion about media globalization particularly television especially as it is being driven by the spread of satellite technology and cable While certain schools of thought view this trend as promoting cultural heterogeneity and the diversification of programme content this book argues otherwise It discusses the influence of globalization on Jamaica s television industry Specifically it looks at how market liberalization globalization s twin force has lead to government divestment of the television sector and increased private ownership and consolidation within this sector It revisits the cultural imperialism debate within the context of media globalization and locates Jamaica s position within this milieu It suggests that old concerns relating to cultural imperialism are still relevant in new ideas such as cultural proximity and programme modeling The book also discusses the implications that increased private ownership of television media in Jamaica have for public broadcasting services especially in an age of consolidation Finally the book examines current media policies and discusses whether or not they are adequate to address the present media environment within which the market model of media management encourages anti competitive behaviour among media firms News Media in the Arab World Barrie Gunter,Roger Dickinson,2013-06-06 News Media in the Arab World A Study of 10 Arab and Muslim Countries is based on ongoing research at the Department of Media and Communication University of Leicester and has investigated the rapidly changing nature of the news media in Arab countries They have investigated the role of newspapers and television in news provision and the impact of new media developments most especially the emergence of the internet as a platform for news distribution and of international satellite television channels such as Al Jazeera Examining the constantly developing nature of news the collection contains separately authored chapters produced by the researchers responsible for each original analysis covering Bahrain Egypt Iraq Kuwait Libya Oman Qatar Palestine Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates Based on original primary and secondary research this will be the first empirical based collection to blend perspectives from both the Western and Arab nations Handbook of Research on Media Literacy in the Digital Age Yildiz, Melda N.,Keengwe, Jared,2015-12-02 With the current ubiquity of technological tools and digital media having the skillset necessary to use and understand digital media is essential Integrating media literacy into modern day education can cultivate a stronger relationship between technology educators as well as students The Handbook of Research on Media Literacy in the Digital Age presents key research in the field of digital media literacy with a specific emphasis on the need for pre service and in service educators to become familiar and comfortable with the current digital tools and applications that are an essential part of youth culture Presenting pedagogical strategies as well as practical research and applications of digital media in various aspects of culture society and education this publication is an ideal reference source for researchers educators graduate level students and media specialists International News in the Digital Age Judith Clarke,Michael Bromley,2012-01-25 The new research presented in this volume suggests that general perceptions cultural psychological geographical allied to the customs and values of journalism and underpinned by the uses of technology significantly shape international news This gives rise to a blend of the old and the new traditions of cultural centredness and innovative practices anchorages of place and the rootlessness of globalization Technology per se has not swept all before it On the other hand its uses have altered the means and methods of international news sourcing construction and dissemination Consequently the uptake of technology has contributed to fundamental changes in style and form and has greatly facilitated cross cultural exchanges The category international news is now more of a hybrid as recognized by the BBC and others The chapters in this book demonstrate that this hybridity is unevenly distributed across geo political domains and often across time Nevertheless as the contributors to this volume show the concept of international news relies on tightly interwoven elements of orthodox journalism social media civic expression and public assembly Media Studies Pieter J. Fourie,2010-06 Exploring the media as an institution this volume also introduces the topics of media regulation and content

The nature of communications policy is explained following overviews of internal and external media regulation Strategic ways of managing the media are discussed in addition to the guide s analysis of the ways that media presents issues of identity race gender sexual orientation the environment AIDS and terrorism Reporting the Cuban Revolution Leonard Ray Teel, 2015-12-16 Reporting the Cuban Revolution reveals the untold story of thirteen American journalists in Cuba whose stories about Fidel Castro s revolution changed the way Americans viewed the conflict and altered U S foreign policy in Castro s favor Between 1956 and 1959 the thirteen correspondents worked underground in Cuba evading the repressive censorship of Fulgencio Batista s dictatorship in order to report on the rebellion led by Fidel Castro The journalists stories appeared in major newspapers magazines and national television and radio influencing Congress to abruptly cut off shipments of arms to Batista in 1958 Castro was so appreciative of the journalists efforts to publicize his rebellion that on his first visit to the United States as premier of Cuba he invited the reporters to a private reception at the Cuban Embassy in Washington where he presented them with engraved gold medals While the medals revealed Castro s perception of the correspondents as like minded partisans the journalists themselves had no such intentions Some had journeyed to Cuba in pursuit of scoops that could rejuvenate or jump start their careers others sought to promote press freedom in Latin America still others were simply carrying out assignments from their editors Bringing to light the disparate motives and experiences of the thirteen journalists who reported on this crucial period in Cuba s history Reporting the Cuban Revolution is both a masterwork of narrative nonfiction and a deft analysis of the tension between propaganda and objectivity in the work of American foreign correspondents
