Polish Catholicism between Tradition and Migration Wojciech Sadlon, 2021-06-27 From a critical realist perspective this book examines the manner and the extent to which religion is shaped by modernity With a focus on Poland one of the most monolithic and religiously active Catholic societies in the world but which has undergone periods of intense transformation in its recent history the author explores the transformations that have affected Catholicism from a position of reflexivity Viewing Catholicism as a system of ideas elaborated by tradition the author considers the relationship between human subjectivity and social structure by examining the shift from traditional religious practice to modern religious observance particularly in an era of migration in which many Polish Catholics have relocated to western European countries with profound changes in their religious outlook Presenting a new approach to understanding religious change from the perspective of religious reflexivity Polish Catholicism between Tradition and Migration will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in religion research methods social change and critical realist thought

Resources in Education ,1977 Political Economy, Power and the Body G. Youngs, 1999-10-28 Political Economy Power and the Body is carefully organized to provide an introductory section of three chapters which set out a number of detailed theoretical arguments relevant to the work developed in the next two sections In this sense the collection should be a major contribution in laying the groundwork in the new area The strength of the volume lies in the way the individual chapters bring theory and practice together It could be argued that it represents the maturity of feminist work in international political economy now The book will be a vital teaching as well as research text especially in international relations international political economy women s studies generally
