Globalization And Citizenship In The Asia Pacific:

Globalization and Citizenship in the Asia-Pacific A. Davidson, K. Weekley, 1999-04-25 Millions of people around the Asia Pacific region are suffering from the twin effects of globalization and exclusionary nationality laws Some are migrant workers without rights in host countries some are indigenous peoples who are not accorded their full rights in their own countries Yet others are refugees escaping from regimes that have no respect for human rights This collection of essays discusses the ways in which citizenship laws in the region might be made consistent with human dignity It considers the connectedness of national belonging and citizenship in East and Southeast Asian and Pacific states including Australia the impact of mass migration cultural homogenization and other effects of globalization on notions of citizenship and possibilities of commitment to a transnational democratic citizenship that respects cultural difference Citizenship and Migration

Stephen Castles, Alastair Davidson, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Post-Colonial National Identity in the Philippines Greg Bankoff, Kathleen Weekley, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Presenting a fresh understanding of the construction of Post Colonial national identity in the new context of globalization this text looks at the dilemmas of the requirement to compete in the global economy and the political demands of human rights and cultural differences The authors are concerned with the ways in which a modern state attempts to mould the identities of its citizens and the ways in which the myriad of identities in a multiethnic multicultural and multi religious population give rise to intense contradictions This important research will have implications beyond the Filipino case and will be of great interest to a wider audience as a reference for courses on Asian studies political science and history Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century Claire Sutherland, 2011-12-01 This major new text assesses the persistence of nationalism in a globalizing world and analyses the current nature and future prospects of this multi faceted and evolving ideology

Australians and Globalisation Brian Galligan, Winsome Roberts, Gabriella Trifiletti, 2001-11-05 From colony to federation to the present it analyses the development of globalisation in Australia Connecting South-South Communities Muhammed Haron, 2019-01-03 In addition to offering a comprehensive overview and fair insight over more than twenty five years into the relations between two South Middle Powers namely South Africa and Malaysia this book also discusses them within their respective regional structures and evaluates their respective diplomatic and commercial connections It also explores issues that have generally been neglected by International Relations specialists and in this regard it gives attention to cultural contacts that bring to the fore the critical role of non state actors in international affairs Since the ideas espoused by South Africa and Malaysia's political leaders are rooted in their specific national and broad regional philosophies the study also unpacks the notions of the African ways vis vis the Asian ways in maintaining and sustaining state to state relations within the two regions This book which uses Critical Theory as an appropriate framework that takes full cognisance of various developments in International Relations will be of interest to scholars and researchers in

National Education in Hong Kong in the New Era Jason Cong Lin,2025-04-17 This book provides a comprehensive up to date picture of national education in Hong Kong At the societal level it offers an in depth understanding of a divisive issue for Hongkongers elaborating the official approach so that diverse stakeholders have a basis for re evaluating the nature and implementation of national education for rational and critical dialogue At the policy and curricular level it offers evidence based suggestions to foster inclusive and reflective decision making and curriculum development related to national education At a practical level it facilitates the teaching of national education in schools and helps diverse stakeholders to reflect on how national education relates to them and what they can do to co construct an inclusive and reflective national education The book will interest researchers in multicultural education national identity identity politics and China and Hong Kong Studies Social Development Research United Nations Research Institute for Social Development,1997 Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum Zongyi Deng,S Gopinathan,Christine Kim-Eng Lee,2013-11-27 This volume provides a multi faceted and critical analysis of the Singapore curriculum in relation to globalization First it details reform initiatives established by the Singapore government to meet the challenges posed by globalization Next Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum presents how these reforms have been translated into programs school subjects and operational frameworks and then examines in turn how well these have been implemented in schools and classrooms across the country Through this examination the book reveals how the initiatives together with their curricular translation and classroom enactment reflect on the one hand global features and tendencies and on the other distinct national traditions concerns and practices It brings to light a set of issues problems and challenges that not only concern policymakers educators and reformers in Singapore but also those in other countries as well Written by curriculum scholars policy analysts researchers and teacher educators Globalization and the Singapore Curriculum offers an up to date reference for postgraduate students scholars and researchers in the areas of curriculum and instruction comparative education educational sociology educational policy and leadership in Singapore the Asia Pacific region and beyond It also offers a vital contribution to the story of modern education around the globe providing international students scholars and researchers valuable insights into curriculum and curriculum reform for the 21st century Ethnicity and Globalization Stephen Castles,2000-07-14 This book written by one of the leading authorities on migration traces the growth of global migration since 1945 showing how it has produced fundamental economic social and cultural changes in most parts of the world Using techniques of comparative analysis the book shows the gap between global migration and policy As the postwar demand for labour outstripped supply flows of ethnic migration were encouraged throughout the developed Western countries The rooting of new ethnicities in different soils was neither planned or managed effectively The book shows how the economic demand for work has been supplemented by the demand from asylum seekers to recognize injustice and oppression The book also examines the emergence of multicultural societies and the impact of this on traditional concepts of citizenship culture and identity

Globalization And Citizenship In The Asia Pacific: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Globalization And Citizenship In The Asia Pacific : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
