Political Culture in Late Medieval Britain Linda Clark,Christine Carpenter,2004 Eight studies of aspects of C15 England united by a common focus on the role of ideas in political developments of the time The concept of political culture has become very fashionable in the last thirty years but only recently has it been consciously taken up by practitioners of late medieval English history who have argued for the need to acknowledge the role of ideas in politics While this work has focused on elite political culture interest in the subject has been growing among historians of towns and villages especially as they have begun to recognise the importance of both internal politics and national government in the affairs of townsmen and peasants This volume the product of a conference on political culture in the late middle ages explores the subject from a variety of perspectives and in a variety of spheres It is hoped that it will put the subject firmly on the map for the study of late medieval England and lead to further exploration of political culture in this period Contributors CAROLINE BARRON ALAN CROMARTIE CHRISTOPHER DYER MAURICE KEEN MIRI RUBIN BENJAMIN THOMPSON JOHN WATTS JENNY WORMALD LINDA CLARK is editor History of Parliament CHRISTINE CARPENTER is Reader in History University ofCambridge
