Gluskabe And The Four Wishes:

Gluskabe and the Four Wishes Joseph Bruchac,1995 Four Abenaki men set out on a difficult journey to ask the great hero Gluskabe to grant each his fondest wish      Maine-ly Fun! Susan Whitehouse,2003-01-01 Maine ly Fun is jam packed with almost eight hundred activities to do and places to go with children in Maine from the coast to the western mountains This book will be a godsend not only to vacationers and travelers with children to Maine but also to parents and other caregivers who live in Maine Among the twenty chapter headings are The Arts Boating Great Ideas from Famous Maine Folks Hiking Islands Books Websites and Crafts      StoryCraft Martha Seif Simpson,Lynne Perrigo,2015-11-17 While storytelling is a great favorite of preschoolers many elementary age children are more drawn to crafts and other activities StoryCraft is an award winning library program that combines storytelling with crafts in an exciting and engaging activity for children in first through third grades Each one hour program includes storytelling a craft movement activities music and discussion This collection of StoryCraft programs presents 50 fun and educational theme based sessions Each includes suggestions for promotion music crafts activities and stories The sessions also include bibliographies to help direct young readers toward additional reading as well as diagrams detailed instructions and supply lists for the crafts The themes range from a Jungle Safari to Math Mayhem to a Western Roundup all encouraging children to enjoy reading in a variety of ways Each session has plenty of suggestions so that the program can be customized Helpful Hints for implementing the program can help any librarian volunteer or parent turn a ho hum storytime into a dazzling StoryCraft time      A Celebration of Maine Children's Books Lynn Plourde,Paul Knowles,1998      Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas,1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than 1 600 titles including fiction folktales poetry and song books that focus on diverse cultural groups The selected titles published between the 1970s and 1990s are suitable for use with preschoolers through sixth graders and are likely to be found on the shelves of school and public libraries Topics are timely with an emphasis on books that reflect the needs and interests of today s children Each detailed entry includes bibliographic information Use level is also included as are cultural designation subjects and a summary The invaluable Subject Access section incorporates use level culture information      Science, Colonialism, and Indigenous Peoples Laurelyn Whitt,2009-08-24 At the intersection of indigenous studies science studies and legal studies lies a tense web of political issues of vital concern for the survival of indigenous nations Numerous historians of science have documented the vital role of late eighteenth and nineteenth century science as a part of statecraft a means of extending empire This book follows imperialism into the present demonstrating how pursuit of knowledge of the natural world impacts and is impacted by indigenous peoples rather than nation states In extractive biocolonialism the valued genetic resources and associated agricultural and medicinal knowledge of indigenous peoples are sought legally converted into private intellectual property transformed into commodities and then placed for sale in genetic marketplaces Science Colonialism and Indigenous Peoples critically examines these developments demonstrating how contemporary relations between indigenous and Western knowledge systems continue to be shaped by the dynamics of power the politics of property and the apologetics of law

The Waters Between Joseph Bruchac, 1998 The time is ten thousand years ago and the place is the shores of Lake Champlain a land inhabited by Abenaki communities who hunt gather and follow the cycles of their unspoiled natural world in relative harmony Joseph Bruchac a nationally renowned storyteller and writer of Native American tales uses this setting not just to spin a compelling adventure yarn but also to re create with grace fullness and clarity the cultural social and spiritual systems of these pre contact Native Americans In this third novel of his trilogy about the people of the dawnland the lake they call Petonbowk the waters between Vermont s Green Mountains and New York s Adirondacks holds both sustenance and danger and Young Hunter the young broad shouldered man whose heart was good for all the people is called upon to confront a dual menace A deepseer or shaman he must use his full powers first to comprehend the threats and then to defeat them The lake it seems holds a huge water snake monster that makes it impossible to reap the waters bountiful harvest of fish and game And worse a tortured outcast Watches Darkness has turned against his tribe and is using his deepseer s knowledge to perpetrate horrible acts of senseless evil he destroys whole villages out of sheer malevolence he literally eats his victims hearts to absorb their powers he kills his own grandmother without remorse As the tension between hunter and hunted mounts Bruchac seamlessly weaves stories within the story the lore that connects the people to each other and to their heritage so that the novel becomes not just an archetypal battle of good versus evil but a vivid depiction of traditional New England Indian culture in pre Columbian times Richly atmospheric resonant with Native American spirituality melodious with the rhythms of the Abenaki language The Waters Between paints both an epic quest and a colorful portrait of the lives of people living as human beings were told to live by the Talker Never perfect often failing but always growing always part of something larger than themselves their varied heartbeats meshing together to make the one great healthy heartbeat which was the Only People
