Glyph Three Textual Studies:

Ford Madox Ford: Prose and Politics Robert Green, 1981 This text shows how Ford Madox Ford responded to the changes in European politics and culture before during and after the First World War The Good Soldier Ford Madox Ford, 2012-09-06 This is the saddest story I have ever heard Wealthy American John Dowell describes in a disarmingly casual compellingly intimate manner how he and his wife Florence meet an English couple in a German spa resort They become friends over the years and gradually the history of their relationships and the passions that lie behind the orderly Edwardian facade are unveiled Dowell is the archetypal unreliable narrator and his casual revelations are both unexpected and explosive A masterpiece of early Modernism and a virtuoso performance of literary skill Ford's Tale of Passion reflects contemporary interests in psychology sexuality and the New Woman Its portrayal of the destruction of a civilized elite anticipates the cataclysm of the First World War which erupted while Ford was finishing the book This new edition includes Ford's important essay On Impressionism which sheds valuable light on his artistic technique ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 Raiding the Land of the Foreigners Danilyn Rutherford, 2021-01-12 What are the limits of national belonging Focusing on Biak a set of islands off the coast of western New Guinea in the Indonesian province of Irian Jaya Danilyn Rutherford's analysis calls for a rethinking of the nature of national identity With the resurgence of separatism in the province Irian Jaya has become the focus of fears that the Indonesian nation is falling apart Yet in the early 1990s the fieldwork for this book was made possible by the government's belief that Biaks were finally beginning to see themselves as Indonesians Taking in the dynamics of Biak social life and the islands long history of millennial unrest Rutherford shows how practices that indicated Biaks submission to national authority actually reproduced antinational understandings of space time and self Approaching the foreign as a focus of longing in cultural arenas ranging from kinship to Christianity Biaks participated in Indonesian national institutions without accepting the identities they promoted Their remarkable response to the Indonesian government and earlier polities laying claim to western New Guinea suggests the limits of national identity and modernity writ large This is one of the few books reporting on the volatile province of Irian Jaya It offers a new way of thinking about the nation and its limits one that moves beyond the conventions of both scholarship and recent journalism It shows how people can belong to a nation yet maintain commitments that fall both short of and beyond the nation state Ingardeniana III Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 In the footsteps of Ingardeniana II this volume marks the 20th anniversary of Roman Ingarden's death partly focusing upon his thought partly bringing his aesthetics into the present day framework of research It might have appeared puzzling to the followers of our Analecta Husserliana why within the original horizon encircled by the research work of our International Society of Phenomenology and Literature whose research work is devised in a diametrically opposed direction to that of Roman Ingarden there is steadfastly running through our discussions a line of Ingardenian reflection The reason as I have pointed out in the introduction to Ingardeniana II expertly edited by Hans Rudnik is clear Ingarden's analysis of the intentional structures of works of art offers in its distinct and clear cut forms an objective correlate as well as a point of reference to the vast conundrum of issues concerning the creative endeavor of the writer poet artist in their struggle to endow life with its specifically human significance a conundrum that in our research we are trying to disentangle elucidating its mysterious ramifications their sources and dynamic virtualities As a matter of fact Ingarden's thought newly interpreted and originally expanded occupies a legitimate place in the present collection We find here in the first place an original expansion of Ingarden's aesthetic theory in the monograph of Iadwiga Smith followed by the essays of Wadaw Osadnik Yushiro Takei and Charles Rzepka

Gegenbild, Reihenfolge, Sprung Howard Stern, 1982 Die Rettung h lt sich an den kleinen Sprung in der kontinuierlichen Katastrophe Behind this typical aphorism of Walter Benjamin there lies an elaborate system of metaphors drawn from Arabian geometric ornament The present work examines the operation of this system in a variety of contexts Berliner Kindheit the posthumous writings of Walter Haschisch the essays on Brecht and elsewhere The focus is heuristic how do Benjamin's rhetorical figures become instruments of invention and cognition

The Honor of Thinking Rodolphe Gasché, 2007 The Honor of Thinking evaluates the concepts and discourses of critique theory and philosophy in light of the exigencies of what Martin Heidegger and the French post Heideggerian thinkers have established about the nature and the tasks of thinking

Repetition, Difference, and Knowledge in the Work of Samuel Beckett, Jacques Derrida, and Gilles Deleuze Sarah Gendron, 2008 Repetition Difference and Knowledge dialogues with novels theatre philosophy and literary theory in order to explore how three thinkers Samuel Beckett Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze employ repetition as a means with which to radically unsettle some of the most fundamental notions of the human experience among them time presence originality and being Due to its interdisciplinary scope and its focus on repetition as an epistemological concept this book will attract a broad audience of academic specialists across the humanities from the fields of literary criticism philosophy French studies and poststructural studies Its simplicity of style deliberate avoidance of complex jargon and clarity of argument particularly when dealing with complicated theoretical ideas and texts also makes it an invaluable tool for use in both graduate and undergraduate level literature and philosophy courses Repetition Difference and Knowledge provides experienced and beginning scholars alike with greater insight into the works of Beckett Derrida and Deleuze and into the role that repetition has played and continues to play in determining how we read our world and come to meaning The Stelliferous Fold Rodolphe Gasché, 2011 This book seeks to develop a novel approach to literature beyond the conventional divide between realism formalism and history aestheticism It accomplishes this not only through a radical reassessment of the specificity of literature in distinction from one of its others namely philosophy but above all by taking critical issue with the venerable concept of the text and its association with the artisanal techniques of weaving and interlacing This conception of the text as an artisanal fabric is the author holds the unreflected presupposition of both realist or historicist and reflective or deconstructive criticism Gasché argues that the scenes of production within literary works created by their authors yet independent of those authors intentions stage a work's own production in virtual fashion and thus accomplish for those works a certain ideal ontological status that allows for both historical endurance and creative interpretation In Gasché's construction of these scenes in which literary works render visible within their own fabric the invisible conditions of their autonomous existence certain images prevail the fold the star the veil By showing that these literary images are not simply the opposites of concepts he not only puts into question the common opposition between literature and philosophy but shows that literary works perform a way of argumentation that in spite of all its difference from philosophical conceptuality is on a par with it The argument progresses through close readings of literary works by Lautréamont Nerval de l'Isle Adam Huysman Flaubert Artaud Blanchot Defoe and Melville Emerson's Romantic Style Julie K. Ellison, 2014-07-14 Professor Ellison demonstrates that the characteristic difficulties of Emerson's prose its repetitiveness discontinuity and tonal peculiarities are motivated by his use of interpretation to free himself from recurrently intimidating aspects of tradition Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Ringtone Dialectic Sumanth Gopinath, 2013-07-19 The rise and fall of the ringtone industry and its effect on mobile entertainment music television film and politics A decade ago the customizable ringtone was ubiquitous Almost any crowd of cell phone owners could produce a carillon of tinkly beeping synthy musicalized ringer signals Ringtones quickly became a multi billion dollar global industry and almost as quickly faded away In The Ringtone Dialectic Sumanth Gopinath charts the rise and fall of the ringtone economy and assesses its effect on cultural production Gopinath describes the technical and economic structure of the ringtone industry considering the transformation of ringtones from monophonic single line synthesizer files to polyphonic MIDI files to digital sound files and the concomitant change in the nature of capital and rent accumulation within the industry He discusses sociocultural practices that seemed to wane as a result of these shifts including ringtone labor certain forms of musical notation and representation and the creation of musical and artistic works quoting ringtones Gopinath examines declines reversals and revivals of cultural forms associated with the ringtone and its changes including the Crazy Frog fad the use of ringtones in political movements as in the Philippine Gloriagate scandal the ringtone s narrative function in film and television including its striking use in the films of the Chinese director Jia Zhangke and the ringtone s relation to pop music including possible race and class aspects of ringtone consumption Finally Gopinath considers the attempt to rebrand ringtones as mobile music and the emergence of cloud computing The Disney Princess Phenomenon Robyn Muir,2023-06-27 The Disney Princesses are a billion dollar industry known and loved by children across the globe Robyn Muir provides an exploratory and holistic examination of this worldwide commercial and cultural phenomenon in its key representations films merchandising and marketing and park experiences Muir highlights the messages and images of femininity found within the Disney Princess canon and provides a rigorous and innovative methodology for analysing gender in media Including an in depth examination of each princess film from the last 83 years the book provides a lens through which to view and understand how Disney Princesses have contributed to the depiction of femininity within popular culture

An Outline Dictionary of Maya Glyphs, with a Concordance and Analysis of Their Relationships William Gates,1978-01-01 Study of the hieroglyphs in 3 surviving Maya codices Character variations many meanings Maya culture About 3 000 symbols covered all clearly drawn The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg,2016-11-11 In The Complex Image Joseph Fichtelberg takes a twofold approach to the role of revision in significant American autobiographies He reexamines the problem of the autobiographical subject from a poststructuralist perspective and he places that problem in the context of American culture As a framework for his unique study he offers a reading of Ecce Homo that argues that Nietzsche s autobiographical I is both buried in and created by the text itself Only by revising his text by retelling his life to himself can Nietzsche arrive at self knowledge Ultimately Nietzsche finds himself in all literature everywhere He becomes a universal soul Fichtelberg demonstrates that Nietzsche s complex ideas about where subject and language meet in a text can be used to understand the dominant millennial impulse evident in American autobiographies Thomas Shepard cast the American portion of his autobiography as a compendium of colonial triumphs John Woolman rearranged his Journal to make a vision of Christian unity its climax and Walt Whitman fashioned Specimen Days to highlight his late tour of the west during which he realized an earlier poetic vision of national unity In the nineteenth century this easy faith in millennial union began to collapse and Fichtelberg contends that it remained only in the autobiographies of such marginal groups as those represented by Frederick Douglass and Gertrude Stein He offers a close analysis of their autobiographies and in a concluding chapter examines the work of four recent writers W E B DuBois Lillian Hellman Mary McCarthy and Maya Angelou The Complex Image will interest scholars and students of American history and literature Phenomenology Leonard Lawlor,2014-09-03 After Husserl the study of phenomenology took off in different directions The ambiguity inherent in phenomenology between conscious experience and structural conditions lent itself to a range of interpretations Many existentialists developed phenomenology as conscious experience to analyse ethics and religion Other phenomenologists developed notions of structural conditions to explore questions of science mathematics and conceptualization Phenomenology Responses and Developments covers all the major innovators in phenomenology notably Sartre Merleau Ponty and the later Heidegger and the major schools and issues The volume also shows how phenomenological thinking encounters a limit a limit most apparent in the aesthetical and hermeneutical development of phenomenology The volume closes with an examination of the furthering of the division between analytic and continental philosophy

The Enigma of Meaning Gregory Desilet, 2023-03-03 This work focuses on humanity's first technology language by placing the views of two of the greatest philosophers of the 20th century in direct confrontation on the topic of language sign communication It addresses the dominant role of language by the unexpected means of exposing the limits of words and signs for conveying meaning Identifying these limits leads to the surprising realization that such limits are also precisely what make communication possible Wittgenstein strives to shore up the foundation of meaning through a deeper understanding of the tension between rules and practice in the use of signs while Derrida strives to expose the tension in the nature of the sign itself This tension underscores the presence of the sign as intimately bound up with its absence As a result these two approaches feature contrasting roles for interpretation between a sign and its meaning Highlighting the differences between these approaches reveals the play of hazards and benefits for language users when faced with alternative ways of understanding and accessing the power and potential of language

Western Mesoamerican Calendars and Writing Systems Mikkel Bøg Clemmensen, Christophe Helmke, 2023-06-08 Mesoamerica is one of the few places to witness the independent invention of writing Bringing together new research papers discuss the writing systems of Teotihuacan Mixteca Baja the Epiclassic period and Aztec writing of the Postclassic These writing systems represent more than a millennium of written records and literacy in Mesoamerica

Dickens and the Despised Mother Shale Preston, 2013-01-25 This work offers an original interpretation of the mothers of the protagonists in Dickens's autobiographical novels Taking Julia Kristeva's psychoanalytic concept of abjection and Mary Douglas's anthropological analysis of pollution as its conceptual framework the book argues that Dickens's primary emotional response towards the mother who abandoned him to work in a blacking warehouse was disgust and suggests that we can trace similar signs of disgust in the narrators of his fictional autobiographies David Copperfield Bleak House and Great Expectations The author provides a close reading of Dickens's autobiographical fragment and opens up the possibility that Dickens's feelings towards his mother actually bore a significant influence on his fiction The book closes with a provocative discussion of Dickens's compulsive Sikes and Nancy public readings
