Burkes Pinette, 2021-12-28 This volume considers the emerging Jewish interest in an afterlife during the second temple period in relation to developing views of the deity and the self In some circles God is understood as increasingly distant from the human sphere and so justice must occur in another world or after death at the same time more autonomous constructions of the self in response to community breakdown suggest that reward and punishment come not only collectively but also on the individual level in a post mortem realm The book traces the interconnections between these themes in Job and Ecclesiastes Ben Sira and Daniel then Wisdom of Solomon and 4 Ezra crossing genre boundaries in an attempt to offer a
