Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history God among Sages Kenneth Richard Samples, 2017-01-31 Was Jesus just a spiritual leader like Buddha Krishna Confucius and Muhammad Or is he something more something else entirely In God among Sages apologist Ken Samples offers readers a biblical and historical portrait of Jesus grounded in the claims Jesus makes about himself Then Samples compares and contrasts Jesus with Buddha Krishna Confucius and Muhammad using eight relevant categories of evaluation He also helps readers understand the competing philosophies of religious pluralism inclusivism and exclusivism The result is a clearer understanding of what sets Jesus apart as not simply a teacher to follow but God himself worthy of our full allegiance and worship Christians who struggle to answer claims that Jesus was just a good teacher as well as those haven't quite made up their minds about Jesus's claims to divinity will value this accessible introduction to comparative religions

Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo, 2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8:29 is the question of Christology By asking this question Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts history experience and social location Therefore all responses to Jesus's invitation are contextual But for too long many theologians particularly in the West have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus's expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts In Re-imagining African Christologies Victor I Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non African Christian communities

Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality Lewis E Winkler, 2012-04-26 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one another as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to understand appreciate and cooperate with each other to build just moral and cohesive communities of hope in our often uncertain and unsettling times

The God Debates John R. Shook, 2011-08-02 The God Debates presents a comprehensive non technical survey of the quest for knowledge of God allowing readers to participate in a debate about the existence of God and gain understanding and appreciation of religion's conceptual foundations Explains key arguments for and against God's existence in clear ways for readers at all levels Brings theological debates up to the present with current ideas from modernism postmodernism fideism evidentialism presuppositionalism and mysticism Updates criticism of theology by dealing with the latest terms of the God debates instead of outdated caricatures of religion Helps nonbelievers to learn important theological standpoints while noting their shortcomings Encourages believers and nonbelievers to enjoy informed dialogue with each other Concludes with an overview of religious and nonreligious worldviews and predictions about the future of faith and reason Christology in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Rev Fr Dr Robert Afayori, 2021-02-11 Understanding the religious beliefs and practices of the other raises hermeneutic questions on the extent to which the dialogical call to openness is related to commitment the meaning of religious identity and whether openness to the beliefs of the other poses a threat to one's religious identity If interreligious learning demands that the interlocutors unite their attitude of commitment and openness how does this occur without the loss of alterity This book addresses these questions within the context of Christian Muslim dialogue on Christology as an exercise in learning a new form of dialogue which leads Christians and Muslims to the discovery of common values such as prayer and submission to God peace and peaceful co existence and solidarity with the poor and marginalised Trinity and Revelation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2014-04-19 In this book Pentecostal theologian Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive theology of triune revelation and the triune God in dialogue with Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in a pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a fullscale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode What Do We Believe? Why Does It Matter? Jeff Astley, 2016-04-30 What do We Believe Why Does it Matter provides a general introduction to the basic beliefs of Christian theology together with their significance for Christian worship living and thinking and the intellectual problems they raise Western Philosophies Religion Pomerlaeau, 1998-01-01

Taking God Seriously Brian Davies, Michael Ruse, 2021-02-18 Is debate on issues related to faith and reason still possible when dialogue between believers and non believers has collapsed Taking God Seriously not only proves that it is possible but also demonstrates that such dialogue produces fruitful results Here Brian Davies a Dominican priest and leading scholar of Thomas Aquinas and Michael Ruse a philosopher of science and well known non believer offer an extended discussion on the nature and plausibility of belief in God and Christianity They explore key topics in the study of religion notably the nature of faith the place of reason in discussions about religion proofs for the existence of God the problem of evil and the problem of multiple competing religious systems as well as the core concepts of Christian belief including the Trinity and the justification of morality Written in a jargon free manner avoiding the extremes of evangelical literalism and New Atheism prejudice Taking God Seriously does not compromise integrity or shy from discussing important or difficult issues
