

The background of the book cover is a warm orange-yellow color. It features several thin, curved lines that resemble orbits or paths. Scattered along these lines and in the open spaces are various religious and spiritual symbols: a blue five-pointed star, a green star with a yellow border, a blue crescent moon with a yellow star, a green circle with a yellow border, a blue cross with a yellow border, a blue Star of David with a yellow border, a green Om symbol with a yellow border, and a green flame-like symbol with a yellow border. The title is centered in a white rectangular box with a thin yellow border.

God And The Universe Of Faiths:

God and the Universe of Faiths John Hick,1993-03-01 Hick addresses many of the major issues posing challenges to contemporary Christian belief and offers his much debated proposal for a Copernican revolution in our understanding of Christianity and the wider religious life of humanity     God and the Universe of Faiths John Hick,1977     God and the

Universe of Faiths John Hick,1993-01-01 Hick addresses many of the major issues posing challenges to contemporary Christian belief and offers his much debated proposal for a Copernican revolution in our understanding of Christianity and the wider religious life of humanity     God and the Universe of Faiths John Hick,1974 This accessible text tackles the major issues challenging contemporary Christian belief to produce a controversial conception both of Christianity and of the wider religious life of humanity     God and the Universe of Faiths ,1977     An Introduction to the Theology of

Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2009-08-20 How does Christianity relate to other religions Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective Veli Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity's relationship to world religions     Karl Barth's Theology as a Resource for a Christian Theology of

Religions Sven Ensminger,2014-08-28 This book uses Karl Barth's theology as a resource for Christian theology of religions For this purpose it examines Barth's theology under the doctrinal aspects of revelation revelation and religion theological anthropology and election addressing questions such as the possibility of and context for revelation Barth's understanding of religion the theological approach to the human being and soteriology Furthermore Barth's thought is put into conversation with other approaches in the field of theology of religions notably Karl Rahner's inclusivism and John Hick and the pluralist paradigm It is shown that Barth's theological system as a whole can serve as a resource for the Christian approach to and interaction with those of other faiths or no faith at all This is achieved through maintaining a balance between the commitment to the own faith and the openness to the sovereignty of God impacting the whole of creation Central to Barth's approach is the challenge to the Christian community to see their presuppositions challenged in the most unexpected circumstances while looking beyond human categories to affirm the dignity bestowed upon all of humanity through the divine Yes in the person Jesus Christ Barth's theology with its starting point in the person of Jesus Christ is advocated as a framework for the members of the Christian community as they live alongside those with a different faith from their own

Man and the Universe of Faiths M. M. Thomas,1975 Theological study of primal religions     Faiths and Faithfulness Nicholas J. Wood,2009-11-01 How are people of faith to be faithful to their various traditions in today's diverse society How may we live together as neighbors and yet remain true to our differing religious convictions How is it possible for the contemporary Christian to confess the Lordship of Jesus Christ in a world of many faiths These are some of the fundamental questions which this volume seeks to explore It offers a critical account of two key twentieth century missionary theologians who attempted to address the issue of pluralism within a confessional framework Bishop Kenneth Cragg and Bishop Lesslie Newbigin This study argues for a reconsideration of the biblical themes of fullness and fulfillment which may offer a way of holding together the traditions of continuity which Cragg shows can never be total and of discontinuity which Newbigin argues can never be absolute In this way the book addresses some of the implications for the development of an appropriate missiological approach to inter faith issues in the twenty first century which requires us to take people of faith seriously but also allows faithfulness to the Christian gospel

John Hick's Pluralist Philosophy of World Religions Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2020-08-26 This title was first published in 2002 One of the most fascinating and controversial interpretations of religious diversity is religious pluralism According to John Hick's model of religious pluralism all the world's great religions are equally valid ways of understanding and responding to the ultimate spiritual reality This book offers an exposition of and critical response to John Hick's model Introducing the various interpretations of religious diversity being discussed today this book presents constructive suggestions as to how things could be further developed to offer a more accurate less confusing presentation of the various options in the theology of religions The standard threefold typology of responses to religious diversity exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism are explained and defended Hick's pluralist interpretation of religious diversity is traced culminating in a critical assessment of Hick's pluralistic model and an up to date summary of a variety of critiques directed toward Hick's proposal Paul Rhodes Eddy concludes that Hick's present model is ultimately unsuccessful in retaining both of his long cherished goals a robust religious realism and a consistent religious pluralism whilst overcoming the most difficult problem for the pluralist the fact that the world's religions understand the divine in often contradictory ways

An Interpretation of Religion John Hick, 2004-01-01 In this classic work prominent religious philosopher John Hick presents a global interpretation of religion arguing for a religious response to our ambiguous universe and showing how the world's different religions are culturally conditioned forms of that response For this Second Edition Hick addresses the major critics of his interpretation of religion thereby enabling fresh discussion of his work Praise for the first edition This book strengthens Hick's position as one of the most significant thinkers of the second half of the twentieth century I highly recommend it to students of philosophy history of religions and comparative studies as well as theology Chester Gillis Journal of Religion The most persuasive philosophical advocacy for religious pluralism ever written Yandall Woodfin Southwestern Journal of Theology This work evinces Hick's many virtues ingenuity fairness toward all arguments deference to the standards of analytic philosophy familiarity with Eastern as well as Western religions and not least a clean clear prose Robert A Segal Christian Century A leader in interfaith interpretation of religion Hick has written what will probably become a classic Clear readable and comprehensive Library Journal Should be read by the adherents of all faiths Rabbi Dan Cohn Sherbok

"All Shall Be Well" Gregory MacDonald, Robin A. Parry, 2011-01-01 All shall be well and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well Lady Julian of Norwich Universalism runs like a slender thread through the history of Christian theology It has always been a minority report and has often been regarded as heresy but it has proven to be a surprisingly resilient idea Over the centuries Christian universalism in one form or another has been reinvented time and time again In this book an international team of scholars explore the diverse universalisms of Christian thinkers from the Origen to Moltmann In the introduction Gregory MacDonald argues that theologies of universal salvation occupy a space between heresy and dogma Therefore disagreements about whether all will be saved should not be thought of as debates between the orthodox and heretics but rather as in house debates between Christians The studies that follow aim in the first instance to hear understand and explain the eschatological claims of a range of Christians from the third to the twenty first centuries They also offer some constructive critical engagement with those claims Origen Tom Greggs Gregory of Nyssa Steve Harmon Julian of Norwich Robert Sweetman The Cambridge Platonists Louise Hickman James Rely Wayne K Clymer Elhanan Winchester Robin Parry Friedrich Schleiermacher Murray Rae Thomas Erskine Don Horrocks George MacDonald Thomas Talbott P T Forsyth Jason Goroncy Sergius Bulgakov Paul Gavrilyuk Karl Barth Oliver Crisp Jaques Ellul Andrew Goddard J A T Robinson Trevor Hart Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward T Oakes SJ John Hick Lindsay Hall Jurgen Moltmann Nik Ansell

God-Relationships With and Without God J Kellenberger, 2016-01-01 An Anthropological Approach to Theology Heather Meacock, 2000 Heather Meacock in An Anthropological Approach to Theology has compiled an argument based upon the pluralist beliefs of Professor John Hick for the revision of traditional Christianity Hick's pluralist understanding of the theology of religions is influenced by the philosophy of Kant and his theories about society's moral awareness Meacock methodically explicates Hick's views while refuting his critics She claims that some Christian doctrines such as the Incarnation lose meaning when interpreted literally and that Christianity itself must begin to change its self perception to that of one among many world religions This book will interest students of religion philosophy as well as anthropologists interested in religion

Religious Pluralism in Christian and Islamic Philosophy Adnan

Aslan,2013-01-11 The philosophy of religion and theology are related to the culture in which they have developed These disciplines provide a source of values and vision to the cultures of which they are part while at the same time they are delimited and defined by their cultures This book compares the ideas of two contemporary philosophers John Hick and Seyyed Hossein Nasr on the issues of religion religions the concept of the ultimate reality and the notion of sacred knowledge On a broader level it compares two world views the one formed by Western Christian culture which is religious in intention but secular in essence the other Islamic formed through the assimilation of traditional wisdom which is turned against the norms of secular culture and is thus religious both in intention and essence Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin,2002 Traditions in Contact and Change Peter Slater,Donald Wiebe,2006-01-01 Traditions in Contact and Change was the theme of the fourteenth quinquennial congress of the International Association for the History of Religions This selection from 450 papers by scholars from all over the world address the theme Section One Indian Traditions and Western Interactions treats subjects ranging from the flood story in Vedic ritual to a study of the women of the Nehru family Section Two Buddhist Chinese and Japanese Studies includes discussions of the origin of the Mahayana William James and Japanese Buddhism and lyrical imagery and religious content in Japanese art Section Three Mediterranean Cultures covers a broad range of topics from foster children in early Christianity to the transformation of Christianity into Roman religion to the change in the status of women in Iceland from pagan to Christian times Section Four Islamic African and Amerindian Developments examines such subjects as religions in conflict and change in the works of African novelists tradition and change in Indian Islam and religious acculturation among Oglala Lakota Section Five offers Methodological and Theoretical Discussions of women s studies Western perceptions of Asia structure in Jung and L vi Strauss among others The essays provide ready access to the leading edge of scholarship across a wide range of religions and cultures and should be of interest to students of religion anthropology sociology psychology and philosophy God, Truth, and Reality Arvind Sharma,2011-08-25 All arts and sciences in their own way ultimately try to come to grips with reality What sets philosophy theology and religion apart is that they grapple with ultimate reality Over the decades spanned by John Hick s life in the course of this grappling reminiscent of Jacob s nocturnal encounter with the angel philosophy became analytic theology dialogical and religion comparative along one line of development In these essays written in honour of Professor Hick leading world scholars in these fields share their most recent insights They are so to speak postcards from the cutting edge The Vicarious Humanity of Christ and the Reality of Salvation Christian D. Kettler,2011-03-01 In this book the problem of the reality of salvation is addressed by T F Torrance s doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ Through this approach salvation as humanization is affirmed yet without the problems of anthropocentric theologies This book is unique in that it offers both a survey of contemporary Christian thinking on salvation as well as a constructive alternative based on Torrance s doctrine a significant yet neglected contribution to modern theology
