present their e green credentials M Athena Palaeologu s timely work Green Politics Green Economics examines these apologetic responses to broach an uncomfortable but fundamental question is long term and sustainable development really possible under market capitalism Palaeologu develops two alternative approaches to these environmental challenges i ae green politicse that places major importance on achieving ecological goals through grassroots participatory citizen involvement drawing heavily on values shared with feminist and social movements and ii ae green economicse that address the dynamic and spatial interdependence between human economies and the natural ecosystems which sustain them The focus of both of these approaches is thee scalee conundrum how are we to implement a green economics capable of realising development within the ecological constraints of our planet s biosphere Culture and Social Change Marguerite Mendell,1992 People, Potholes and City Politics Karen Herland,1992 Alternatives ,1989 Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd,2014-07-17 Fully revised and updated this second edition of Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism War Terrorism and political violence Land food and water International legal institutions Peacebuilding institutions and post conflict reconstruction Citizenship Art aesthetics and emotionality and New social media and global resistance This text enables students to develop a sophisticated understanding of the work that gender does in policies and practices of global politics Imagining Apocalyptic Politics in the Anthropocene Earl T. Harper,Doug Specht,2021-09-28 Bringing together scholars from English literature geography politics the arts environmental humanities and sociology Imagining Apocalyptic Politics in the Anthropocene contributes to the emerging debate between bodies of thought first incepted by scholars such as Mouffe Whyte Kaplan Hunt Swyngedouw and Malm about how apocalyptic events narratives and imaginaries interact with societal and individual agency historically and in the current political moment Exploring their own empirical and philosophical contexts the authors examine the forms of political acting found in apocalyptic imaginaries and reflect on what this means for contemporary society By framing their arguments around either pre apocalyptic peri apocalyptic or post apocalyptic narratives and events a timeline emerges throughout the volume which shows the different opportunities for political agency the anthropocenic subject can enact at the various stages of apocalyptic moments Featuring a number of creative interventions exclusively produced for the work from artists and fiction writers who engage with the themes of apocalypse decline catastrophe and disaster this innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the politics of climate change the environmental humanities literary criticism and eco criticism The Routledge Companion to Photography Theory Mark Durden,Jane Tormey,2019-11-07 With newly commissioned essays by some of the leading writers on photography today this companion tackles some of the most pressing questions about photography theory s direction relevance and purpose This book shows how digital technologies and global dissemination have radically advanced the pluralism of photographic meaning and fundamentally transformed photography theory Having assimilated the histories of semiotic analysis and post structural theory critiques of representation continue to move away from the notion of original and copy and towards materiality process and the interdisciplinary The implications of what it means to see an image is now understood to encompass not only the optical but the conceptual ethical and haptic experience of encountering an image The fractal is now used to theorize the new condition of photography as an algorithmic medium and leads us to reposition our relationship to photographs and lend nuances to what essentially underlies any photography theory that is the relationship of the image to the real world and how we conceive what that means Diverse in its scope and themes The Routledge Companion to Photography Theory is an indispensable collection of essays and interviews for students researchers and teachers The volume also features extensive images including beautiful colour plates of key photographs

New Earth Politics Simon Nicholson, Sikina Jinnah, 2016-03-04 Prominent scholars and practitioners in the field of global environmental politics consider the ecological and political realities of life on the new earth and probe the field's deepest and most enduring questions at a time of increasing environmental stress Arranged in complementary pairs included are reflections on environmental pedagogy analysis of new geopolitical realities reflections on the power of social movements and international institutions and calls for more compelling narratives to promote environmental action

Urban Climate Politics Jeroen van der Heijden, Harriet Bulkeley, Chiara Certom..., 2019-05-09 An overview of the forms of agency in urban climate politics including their strengths limitations and the power dynamics between them Written by renowned scholars from around the globe it is ideal for researchers and practitioners working in the area of urban climate politics and governance

The Politics of Unsustainability Ingolfur Bluhdorn, Ian Welsh, 2013-10-18 Two decades after its launch by the UN Brundtland Commission the paradigm of sustainability seems to have reached its limits Whilst the concept figures more prominently in public debate and policy making than ever before the ecological footprint of advanced liberal consumer societies continues to grow and the forceful economic development of countries such as China and India reinforces concerns that the world is moving further away from rather than closer towards the ideal of sustainability Given the proven failure of ecological modernisation strategies to secure sustainability the traditional question How may our established lifestyles and socio economic practices be made more sustainable needs to be supplemented by a second equally important question How do advanced modern consumer democracies try and manage to sustain what is known to be unsustainable Put differently traditional research into the politics of sustainability needs to be supplemented by a new line of research into the politics of unsustainability Exploring the recent transformation of eco political discourses and a variety of ways in which the unfolding paradox of sustaining the unsustainable is being managed the present volume pioneers this new research agenda This book was previously published as a special issue of Environmental Politics

Animals, Justice, and the Politics of Violence Sezai Ozan Zeybek, 2025-09-26 This book explores the intricate relationship between humans and animals in the context of modern Turkish history From drafted animals in war to urban stray dogs and the role of cattle in the Kurdish conflict the cases developed in this book show how animal lives are deeply entangled with human affairs including complex social organisations such as families states and nations In doing so the book exposes power dynamics exploitative practices and the discursive regimes that underpin development nationalism and urban growth This important book offers a timely exploration of human animal relations critically revising a number of concepts such as human rights productivity health and efficiency from a multispecies perspective Probe Post ,1987 The Corporate Planet Joshua Karliner,1997 Citing case histories such as Chevron Shell and Mitsubishi CORPORATE WATCH editor Joshua Karliner brilliantly exposes how transnationals aided by free trade agreements World Bank policies and massive consumer campaigns play central roles in environmental destruction This important and timely book is a significant contribution to the battle against irresponsible corporate behavior Anarchism Robert Graham,1970 The Murray Bookchin Reader Janet Biehl,Murray Bookchin,1999 This collection provides an overview of the thought of the foremost social theorist and political philosopher of the libertarian left today Best known for introducing ecology as a concept relevant to radical political thought in the early 1960s Murray Bookchin was the first to propose in the innovative and coherent body of ideas that he has called social ecology that a liberatory society would also have to be an ecological one His writings span five decades and encompass subject matter of remarkable breadth Bookchin s writings on revolutionary philosophy politics and history are far less known than the specific controversies that have surrounded him but deserve far greater attention Despite Bookchin s critical engagement with both Marxism and anarchism his political philosophy known as libertarian municipalism draws on the best of both for the emancipatory tools to build a democratic libertarian alternative His nature philosophy is an organic outlook of generation development and evolution that grounds human beings in natural evolution yet contrary to today s fashionable anti humanism places them firmly at its summit Bookchin s anthropological writings trace the rise of hierarchy and domination out of egalitarian societies while his historical writings cover important chapters in the European revolutionary tradition Consistent throughout Bookchin s work is a search for ways to replace today s capitalist society which disenchants most of humanity for the benefit of the few and is poisoning the natural world with a more rational and humane alternative The selections in this reader constitute a sampling from the writings of one of the most pivotal thinkers of our era
