Economic Cooperation In Africa In Search Of Direction:

Economic Cooperation in Africa Ahmad A.H.M. Aly, 2023 Aly traces the causes of the failed attempts at economic cooperation in Africa and fashions a workable response to the continent's current economic problems Economic Cooperation in Africa Ahmad Abdel-Halim Aly, 1994-01-01 The author argues that regionalism is the most appropriate strategy for the achievement of autonomous self-sustained development in Africa. He traces the causes of failure thus far of attempts at economic co-operation in Africa and proposes a three-stage scenario for gradual change Economic Integration and Development in Africa Dr Mathurin C Houngnikpo, Professor Henry Kyambalesa, 2012-10-01 The debates over what African economic integration and development actually entails continue across international economic organizations, national governments and NGOs. Despite the glare of media attention and the position this issue has on international political agendas, few comprehensive accounts exist that fully examine why this process will be inevitable in the 21st century and how integration of national economies can be attuned to attaining the socio-economic goals and aspirations of member countries. This book addresses this problem. It combines theory with application, enumerating the imperatives and initiatives governments will be forced to confront, providing insights for educators and students in African development for policy makers in African governments and for inter-governmental organizations Globalized Africa: Political, Social and Economic Impact A. Ninsin, 2012-12-27 Is globalization beneficial to Africa? Does it open infinite opportunities for economic growth, development and social transformation of the continent? It is the assertion of contributions to this collection that for Africa, globalisation is a counter-revolutionary movement that is stalling the drive of the continent's societies to transform themselves into developed and prosperous entities, just as slavery and colonialism. Included are contributions from eminent scholars such as Samir Amin, Horace Campbell, Thandika Mkandawire and Cyril Obi Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub-regions and more than five decades of experience, considering both political and economic aspects. Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics, including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa's regional integration trajectory, the political economy of integration, including the sources of different waves of integration in pan-Africanism and the reaction to neo-liberal economic pressures, the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands, the increasing salience of Africa's relationships with rising extra-regional economic powers including China and India, and comparative lessons from non-African regional blocs including the EU, ASEAN and the Southern Common Market. A core argument of this book, running through all chapters, is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one. Successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity, including states' capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive

Regionalism and Africa's Development S.K.B. Asante,2016-07-27 A critical appraisal of regionalism as a key strategy in Africa s development explaining the failures thus far of attempts at regional integration on the continent This is the first text to highlight the main features of the new post 1990 regional initiatives such as the all embracing African Economic Community and World Bank IMF African Development Bank EC and French initiatives and the challenges to Africa from trading blocs elsewhere in the post Uruguay Round environment *Africa Air University (U.S.). Fernández Jilberto,André Mommen,2017-03-16 Originally published in 1998 This collection of outstanding essays explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy International contributions explore the process of regionalization in the Pacific Area The Americas Africa and Europe and question whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization The book is an excellent contribution to debate on development economics It investigates how the processes of globalization and regionalization driven by liberalization of trade and capital markets weaken nationally established monopolies and protected industries and it looks at the challenge to Third World nations and the countries of the former socialist bloc Developmental Integration and Industrialisation in Southern Africa Siphumelele Duma,2023-05-18 Since the beginning of decolonisation in Africa regional integration has become one of the most potent defining characteristics of the continent s quest for industrialisation and sustainable development It was understood that the individual continental economies could not achieve the requisite level of industrial development to meet their respective development objectives due to the colonial policy of balkanisation which divided the continent into small economically unviable units In 1992 the Southern African Development Community SADC adopted developmental integration an approach to regional integration to engender industrialisation and address the region s development challenges This book offers a critical assessment and examination of this approach as to how it has influenced the industrialisation process in Southern Africa If so why has it failed to accelerate the region s industrialisation and structural transformation process It contributes significantly to cross cutting development debates on the African continent particularly in southern Africa More importantly in understanding the nexus between developmental integration and industrialisation Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernandez Jilberto,Andre Mommen,2002-01-22 This collection explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy particularly questioning whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization International contributors explore the processes in the Pacific area the Americas Africa and Europe and make an important contribution to current debates in development economics African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey,2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations Africa's Elusive Quest for Development M. Houngnikpo,2006-02-18 Matt

Houngnikpo examines how domestic conflict economic stagnation political instability poverty and underdevelopment have plagued Africa for decades He argues that a reversal of the political economic and social plight of Africa lies in better policies good governance and more importantly a new type of African leader and citizen International Development Law Petra Minnerop,Rüdiger Wolfrum,Frauke Lachenmann,2019-04-18 This volume brings together articles on international development law from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law the definitive reference work on international law It provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners of international development law giving an accessible thorough overview of all aspects of the field Each article contains cross references to related articles and includes a carefully selected bibliography of the most important writings and primary materials as a guide to further reading The Encyclopedia can be used by a wide range of readers Experienced scholars and practitioners will find a wealth of information on areas that they do not already know well as well as in depth treatments on every aspect of their specialist topics Articles can also be set as readings for students on taught courses Development Centre Seminars Regional Integration in Africa OECD,Asian Development Bank,2002-04-25 Regional integration and co ordination are not a panacea but they could hold the key to African countries long awaited participation in the world economy This was one of the conclusions of the second International Forum on African Perspectives South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J. Hentz,2005-07-19 In South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J Hentz addresses changes in South Africa s strategies for regional cooperation and economic development since its transition from apartheid to democracy Hentz focuses on why the new South African government continues to make regional cooperation a priority and what methods this dominant state uses to pursue its neighborly goals While providing a synthetic overview of the history of regional cooperation in southern Africa Hentz considers the logic of cooperation more generally An extensive discussion of South African politics provides the context for Hentz s exploration of the more widely felt effects of domestic change Readers interested in the international organization of the politics and economy of southern Africa will find thought provoking material in this important book Contemporary Governance Challenges in the Horn of Africa Charles Manga Fombad,Assefa Fiseha,Nico Steytler,2022-09-06 This book argues that a leading cause of the political instability in the Horn of Africa is a crisis of governance caused by extreme centralization of power weak institutions and the failure to institutionalise the responsible use of authority In recent years many attempts have been made to resolve the ongoing conflicts in Somalia and South Sudan but problems remain and in 2019 the instability spread to Ethiopia This book critically examines how many of the governance problems in the region can be addressed through institutional design The central argument is that an inclusive system of governance through federalism devolution and inclusive political institutions as well as ensuring the institutionalization of power through strengthening the rule of law has the potential to make governments more accountable inclusive and be able to deliver critical services Such systems ensure relative stability and peace and reduce the risks of state fragmentation a major concern in the region Demonstrating that the threats of further fragmentation and conflict due to the crisis of governance are likely to continue unless serious steps are taken to deal with the situation the book will be an important read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in peacemaking politics constitutional law and federalism in the region
