Economic Geography The Me Handbook Series:

Byzantium John Haldon, 2005-09-01 Originally the eastern half of the mighty Roman Empire Byzantium grew to be one of the longest surviving empires in world history spanning nine centuries and three continents It was a land of contrasts from the glittering centre at Constantinople to the rural majority to the heartland of the Orthodox Church and one surrounded by enemies Persians Arabs and Ottoman Turks to the east Slavs and Bulgars to the north Saracens and Normans to the west Written by one of the world's leading experts on Byzantine history Byzantium A History tells the chequered story of a historical enigma from its birth out of the ashes of Rome in the third century to its era defining fall at the hands of the Ottoman Turks in 1453

Gaile, Cort J. Willmott, 2004-02-05 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 48 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers Includes a foreword by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Modern Urban and Regional Economics Philip McCann, 2013-01-31 The second edition of this accessible text provides an integrated framework of the study of urban and regional economics It offers a concise and up to date introduction to the main foundational models principles and theories of the subject and uses a range of international examples to illustrate ideas

Global and Regional Dynamics in Knowledge Flows and Innovation Chris Van Egeraat, Dieter Kogler, Phil Cooke, 2015-10-14 Innovation which in essence is the generation of knowledge and its subsequent application in the marketplace in the form of novel products and processes has become the key concept in inquiries concerning the contemporary knowledge based economy Geography plays a decisive role in the underlying processes that enable and support knowledge formation and diffusion activities Place specific characteristics are considered especially important in this context however more recently investigation into innovative capacity of places has also turned its attention to external knowledge inputs through innovation networks and increasingly recognize the evolutionary character of the processes that lead to knowledge creation and subsequent application in the marketplace The chapters that comprise this book are embedded at the intersection of the dynamic processes of knowledge production and creative destruction The first three contributions all discuss the role of global innovation networks in the context of territorial and or sectoral dynamics while the following two chapters investigate the evolution of regional or metropolitan knowledge economies The final three contributions adopt a knowledge base approach in order to provide insight into the organisation of innovation networks and spatiality of knowledge flows This book was published in a special issue of European Planning Studies Cities and the Creative Class Richard L. Florida, 2005 Richard Florida outlines how certain cities succeed in attracting members of the creative class the key economic growth asset and argues that in order to prosper cities must harness this creative potential

Development on the Ground Allen J. Scott, Gioacchino Garofoli, 2007-05-14 Edited by two leading scholars who have been instrumental in the shaping of current thinking in the field of regional and industrial economics this volume brings together a range of theoretical and empirical contributions that analyze and explain distinct patterns of regional development and the successes and failures in this regard across the world A mixture of theoretical insights and empirical and comparative evidence it links these findings to on going policy debates that attempt to understand the success and failure of distinct regions through particular models of institutions and patterns of governance International in appeal and scope this book is an invaluable tool for students of all levels studying economics economic geography regional development development studies international business international political economy development sociology and public administration Industrial Clusters and Inter-firm Networks Charlie Karlsson, Börje Johansson, Roger Stough, 2005-01-01 This well edited volume should be on the shelf of every regional development agency library Its seventeen chapters written by 31 predominantly academic contributors are divided into four coherent sections the first on cluster and network modelling the next on empirical analysis a third on case studies finishing with two chapters on policy analysis and strategies Tony Jackson Journal of Economic Development This book provides a state of the art overview of spatial industrial clusters and inter firm networks Given the prevailing political belief that clusters can be a major vehicle for economic development and growth it is important to have a sound understanding of clusters and how they emerge grow eventually stagnate and disappear It is also vital to know when and how to apply policy measures to support cluster development in order to increase economic welfare This book illuminates both the theoretical and empirical issues relating to clusters and inter firm networks and presents a number of interesting case studies from a variety of different countries Regional Development and Forgotten Spaces María del

Carmen Sánchez-Carreira, Paulo Jorge Reis Mourão, Bruno Blanco-Varela, 2023-07-06 This book constitutes a novel contribution combining recent theoretical developments and empirical contributions as well as the recent and latest trends and challenges on the issue of Forgotten Spaces Forgotten Spaces like the Forgotten Regions in particular are spaces that in potential can and do create significant value if their resources are properly rediscovered and create many potential costs if these spaces are increasingly neglected by economic agents The editors have identified a gap in current research because there is not enough empirical evidence about these places as well as about the role of their actors Abandoning regions can lead to for example pollution uncontrolled forest fires vandalism heritage deterioration and potentially untreated industrial facilities carrying potential costs not only in environmental sustainability but also in values such as landscape aesthetics Thus this book reflects on the dimensions of the identification of such Forgotten Spaces on the design of policies focused on minimizing associated costs and on the scope of programs to promote these areas not only for upgrading them but also for promoting their environmental sustainability The comparative approach of the empirical part also allows knowledge and experience from diverse longitudes and latitudes The editors highlight the richness of the experience of Latin American countries the polarization and interesting experiences from several sector rediscovered in Europe as well as the holistic cases coming from several African experiences This book will attract the attention of academicians politicians and ultimately the attention of all decision makers who most likely are forgetting many of the Spaces around them

The Rural Enterprise Economy Birgit Leick, Susanne Gretzinger, Teemu Makkonen, 2021-10-28 Enterprises located in rural regions face various challenges in the globalised and digitised world This book offers comprehensive answers to the question of what makes up the rural enterprise economy in the contemporary business world It addresses the competitiveness and viability strategic management and strategic change and marketing issues for both incumbent and start up companies in rural regions The book presents new concepts that shed light on the rural enterprise economy with its entrepreneurs With a broad range of cases from European regions the book provides theoretical insights for scholars practical case based evidence for lecturers and teachers and practical knowledge for business practitioners and planning specialists Academic experts from European universities and research institutes provide compelling answers to this under researched topic in business studies and economics

Smart Technologies and Innovations in Design for Control of Technological Processes and Objects: Economy and Production Denis B. Solovev, 2019-04-10 This book presents the Proceedings of The International Science and Technology Conference FarEastCon 2018 which took place on October 2 4 2018 in Vladivostok Russian Federation The conference provided a platform for accumulating expert opinion on projects and initiatives aimed at the implementation of far sighted scientific research and development and allowed current scientific and practical achievements to be shared with wide circle of researchers Featuring selected papers from the conference the book is of interest to a broad range of experts involved in developing innovative solutions and organizing events that increase the efficiency of economic and innovative activities

Regional Development in Rural Areas André Torre, Frédéric Wallet, 2016-05-14 This book intends to provide analytical and policy tools for investigating the question of the development of rural and peri urban areas The aim is to shed some light on this topic and in particular to contribute to a better understanding of the link between issues of regional or territorial development and issues of rural development The text addresses the question of the disputed notions and definitions of rural development in rural and regional studies examines the literature of regional and territorial development and the policies of regional development and planning It also presents scenarios for the future of rural areas with a focus on European territories Knowledge Transfer in the Automobile Industry Dessy Irawati,2011-09-29 The book provides a detailed theoretical framework and a case study on how FDI in the form of knowledge transfer from overseas MNEs contributes to the upgrading of regional manufacturing clusters Although regional clusters have been the subject of many books this book is one of the few that explicitly links regional clusters to global networks It explains how being part of global networks can both facilitate and hinder the development of a regional cluster Business Networks in Clusters and Industrial Districts Fiorenza Belussi,Alessia Sammarra,2009-09-10 During the 1980s the Marshallian concept of industrial district ID became widely popular due to the resurgence of interest in the reasons that make the agglomeration of specialised industries a territorial phenomenon worth being analysed The analysis of clusters and IDs has often been limited considering only the local dimension of the created business networks The external links of these systems have been systematically under evaluated This book offers a deep insight into the evolution of these systems and the internal external mechanism of knowledge circulation and learning This means that the access to external knowledge information or R showing that existing capabilities expand when locally embedded knowledge is combined with accessible external knowledge In this view external knowledge linkages reduce the danger of cognitive lock in and over embeddedness which may become important obstacles to local learning and innovation when technological trajectories and global economic conditions change A selection of international experts 山本 隆太郎(Japan),1970 Primitive Religion in the Tropical Forests George Thomas Renner,1927 Innovative Start-Ups and the Distribution of Human Capital Ronney Aamoucke,2016-09-14 This book contributes to our understanding of the reasons for the uneven geographic emergence and distribution of innovative start ups and human capital analyzing the role of the regional knowledge base and specifically academic knowledge Using extensive datasets from West German regions and advanced econometric tools it confirms a strong relationship between the presence of higher education institutions and the emergence of innovative start ups It also shows that the influence increases in direct relation with the innovativeness of the respective start up and that certain fields of knowledge are more influential than others in fostering innovative start ups In a second step the multidimensional concept of quality of life is used to explain the geography of human capital across West German regions Based on these empirical findings the book shares valuable insights for higher education and regional development policy A Behavioural Theory of Economic Development Robert Huggins,Piers Thompson,2021-01-14 Innovation entrepreneurship knowledge and human capital are widely acknowledged as key levers of development Yet what are the sources of these factors and why do they differ in their endowment across regions Motivated by a belief that theories of economic development can move beyond the generally accepted explanations of location and the organization of industries and capital this book establishes a behavioural theory of economic development illustrating that differences in human behaviour across cities and regions are a significant deep rooted cause of uneven development Fusing a range of concepts relating to culture psychology human agency institutions and power it proposes that the long term differentials in economic development between cities and regions both within and across nations is strongly connected to the underlying forms of behaviour enacted by humans on an individual and collective basis Given a world of finite and limited resources coupled with a rapidly growing population especially in cities and urban regions human behaviour and the expectations and preferences upon which it is based are central to understanding how notions of development may change in coming years This book provides a novel theory of the role of psychocultural context and human behavioural and institutional frameworks in uneven economic development on a global scale Community, Economic Creativity, and Organization Ash Amin, Joanne Roberts, 2008-09-25 Communities of practice like social capital and networks is an idea that has been widely adopted in the social sciences particularly in discussion of innovation and creativity This book evaluates the concept and its uses and will be an essential guide for students and researchers
