historians who reassess the validity of the totalitarian approach in the light of the recent historical developments in Eastern Europe A first group of authors focus on the analytical usefulness and explanatory power of classic concepts of totalitarianism after having observed the failed reforms of the Gorbachev era and the collapse of Europe's communist systems in 1989-91 In these contributions the totalitarian paradigm is contrasted with other approaches with respect to cognitive power as well as normative implications In the second group of contributions the focus is on the reassessment of methodological and theoretical problems of the classic concepts of totalitarianism The authors attempt to reinterpret the classic concepts so as to meet the objections which have been put forward against those concepts during the last decades The study thereby traces some of the intellectual roots of the totalitarian paradigm that precede the outbreak of the Cold War such as the work of Sigmund Neumann and Franz Borkenau It also focuses on the most famous authors in the field Hannah Arendt and Carl Joachim Friedrich In addition it discusses theorists of totalitarianism like Juan Linz whose contributions to totalitarianism theory have too often been overlooked
