Publisher Description The Republic of Beliefs Kaushik Basu, 2020-12-08 This book argues that the traditional economic analysis of the law has significant flaws and has failed to answer certain critical questions satisfactorily Why are good laws drafted but never implemented When laws are unenforced is it a failure of the law or the enforcers And most important considering that laws are simply words on paper why are they effective Basu offers a provocative alternative to how the relationship between economics and real world law enforcement should be understood Basu summarizes standard neoclassical law and economics before looking at the weaknesses underlying the discipline Bringing modern game theory to bear he develops a focal point approach modeling not just the self interested actions of the citizens who must follow laws but also the functionaries of the state the politicians judges and bureaucrats enforcing them He demonstrates the connections between social norms and the law and shows how well conceived ideas can change and benefit human behavior For example bribe givers and takers will collude when they are treated equally under the law And in food support programs vouchers should be given directly to the poor to prevent shop owners from selling subsidized rations on the open market Basu provides a new paradigm for the ways that law and economics interact a framework applicable to both less developed countries and the developed world Jacket An Introduction to Law and Economics A. This sixth volume 2015 of the European Yearbook of International Economic Law puts a particular emphasis on non tariff barriers NTBs to trade and the world trade order With the steady reduction of tariff rates since the GATT 47 came into force focus in recent years has been on the vast and complex landscape of non tariff barriers to trade States as well as scholars seemingly struggle with the multitude of measures pooled under this expression as there is no single acknowledged definition of the term and its relation to the term non tariff measures remains equally blurred Particularly in practice and on a multilateral level there appears to be some awkwardness when it comes to coping with NTBs since multilateral trade rules seem to be in conflict with national regulatory autonomy in the pursuit of policy objectives In part one this volume sheds light on the problems of non tariff barriers to trade that arise in various fields Part two focuses on regional integration with an emphasis on relations between East Asia and the European Union In this regard the authors outline the trade and investment relations between the European Union and East Asia including Japan Korea and Singapore Part three offers an overview of recent institutional developments in WIPO ICSID WTO and WTO jurisprudence Part four includes book reviews of recent works in the field of international economic law and part five introduces a new section on publications in the field of international economic law that were released in 2013 and 2014
