Marshall Hall's Murder Trials Edward Marjoribanks, Edward Marshall Hall, 1932      Case Studies of Famous Trials and the Construction of Guilt and Innocence Caroline Gorden, Christopher Birkbeck, 2022-04-11 From the trials of Oscar Pistorius to O J Simpson and Michael Jackson this innovative book provides a critical review of 11 high profile criminal cases. These case studies examine how guilt and innocence are constructed in the courts and in wider society using the themes of evidence and narratives, credibility, rhetoric and oratory in the court room, social status, vulnerability and false confessions, diminished responsibility and the media and social judgments. Written for criminology, sociology, law and criminal justice students, the book includes exercises to extend thinking on each case, recommended readings for studying the cases and concepts discussed in each chapter, an extensive specialist reference list including web links to videos and transcripts pertaining to many of the cases discussed in the book. The book delivers an accessible examination of the criminological, sociological, psychological and legal processes underpinning the outcome of criminal cases and their representation in the media and wider society.

Memories of Famous Trials Evelyn Henry Villebois Burnaby, 1907      Famous Trials of History Frederick Edwin Smith Earl of Birkenhead, 1926      Famous Trials: Lucky Escapes Alex McBride, 2012-11-01 From the legendary Famous Trials series of real life courtroom dramas, two classic murder trials abridged and refreshed as Penguin Specials for modern readers, selected and introduced by Alex McBride, author of Defending the Guilty. Nineteen-year-old Madeleine Smith may have been charged in 1857 with poisoning her lover Emile L. Angelier, but her real sin was having sex a lot of sex out of wedlock. Her mistake was to write him frank and passionate letters described by the trial judge as without any sense of decency, which L. Angelier threatened to send to her father when she cooled on the idea of marriage, having secretly engaged herself to someone else. Some fifty years later the trial of Robert Wood, a respectable hard-working illustrator by day who frolicked with prostitutes by night, including the unfortunate Emily Dimmock, also hinged on a dangerous correspondence. Dimmock's murderer had evidently ransacked her rooms for a postcard written by Wood. Was there something he was desperate to hide? The author of his trial is certain he was guilty. But both escaped conviction in Wood's case thanks to the defence of the best defence barrister in the land. In Madeleine Smith's, the three judges ruled two to one to exclude from evidence L. Angelier's pocket book which recorded her meetings with him on the day of the murder. These two salacious and controversial trials demonstrate how the dramatic difference between guilty and not guilty can sometimes be decided by a mere scrap of paper. The legendary Famous Trials series set the benchmark for historical crime writing with its accounts of the most notorious and intriguing criminal trials of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Expertly reconstructed from court transcripts, these often sensational narratives have gripped generations of readers since they first appeared in 1941 In this digital edition two of the very best Famous Trials have been selected introduced and further abridged by criminal barrister and author Alex McBride to provide modern readers with the most compelling versions yet of these court room classics Alex McBride is a criminal barrister His book Defending the Guilty Truth and Lies in the Criminal Courtroom was shortlisted for the 2010 Crime Writers Association Gold Dagger for Non Fiction and is available in Penguin He has written for the Guardian Independent Prospect and New Statesman and has contributed to various BBC programmes including From Our Own Correspondent Expert authoritative hilarious an insider s fearless account of life at the criminal bar Times Literary Supplement Books of the Year on Defending the Guilty     The Law Journal ,1912     Reader, I Buried Them & Other Stories Peter Lovesey,2022-02-01 Mystery Writers of America Grand Master Peter Lovesey presents a collection of short fiction spanning fifty years including the first story he ever published and three brand new stories More than fifty years ago Peter Lovesey published a short story in an anthology That short story caught the eye of the great Ruth Rendell whose praise ignited Lovesey s lifelong passion for short form crime fiction On the occasion of his hundredth short story Peter Lovesey has assembled this devilishly clever collection eighteen yarns of mystery melancholy and mischief inhabiting such deadly settings as a theater a monastery and the book publishing industry The collection includes the career launching story as well as three never before published works And surprising the author himself the irascible Bath detective Peter Diamond bulldozed his way into this volume     Conan Doyle, Detective Peter Costello,2012-10-25 This fascinating book is based on a remarkable discovery Sherlock Holmes s methods of deduction were actually those of his creator and used in order to solve real crimes for Scotland Yard Holmes really did exist in the form of Conan Doyle Author Peter Costello draws on new research to follow the tracks Conan Doyle left as he entered the real word of Sherlock Holmes his fictional outpourings were the direct result of their author s hidden career as an amateur detective and criminologist     Famous Canadian Trials Albert Richard Hassard,1924     Famous Trials ,1954     Famous Cases Brian P.
