National Museum of African Art Branch,1991 Book News Monthly ,1910 Quarterly Bulletin of the Providence Public Library Providence Public Library (R.I.),1910 South African Folk Tales James A. Honey, M.D.,2017-06-07 IN presenting these stories which are of deep interest and value to South Africans I hope they may prove of some value to those Americans who have either an interest in animals or who appreciate the folklore of other countries Care has been taken not to spoil the ethnological value for the sake of form or structure and in all cases they are as nearly like the original as a translation from one tongue to another will allow They are all South African folklore tales and mainly from the Bushmen Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo,2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa s apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country s shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies
