The New York Times Theatre Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews,2001-12 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality Ancestral voices James Norman,1975 The Cry of the Huna Moke Kupihea,2005-05-10 Explores the breakdown in the chain of cultural transmission that has led to the decimation of Hawaiian spirituality and how it can be restored Shows how reconnection to the ancestral ways can be achieved through letting go and forgiveness of the effects of colonization Reveals how the lessons of the decline of Hawaiian spiritual tradition reflect on other religions Clarifies the complex nature of Hawaiian ancestral worship Hawaiian spirituality teaches that individuals can be truly fulfilled only if they are conscious participants in the long ancestral chain of witnessing and transmission that connects the present to the time of origins The Cry of the Huna invokes the author's personal history as he recounts the decline of his people's spiritual tradition as a result of colonization The breakdown of the Hawaiians ties with their sacred land led them to forget not only the teachings of their ancestors but also the chain of na aumakua they form which connects this people to both the earth and the realm of the gods While the na aumakua can be viewed with reverence it is not seen or worshiped as a God Rather it is seen as a part of the chain of life that arose from one god's vision of creation Aumakua is a compound of makua parents and au the endless ancestral chain that stretches through time Each individual on earth represents a temporary end to that chain As we age and our vision of life slowly looks toward death our descendents come forth to provide the next eyes in the chain of witnessing and transmission The Cry of the Huna shows how the rupture of this chain has led to widespread alienation An endless cycle of resentment and revenge is fueled by the loss of the Hawaiians spiritual birthright The connection to the aumakua however can be reforged but only by untying the circular cords of revenge to allow forgiveness to occur in the present so that healing can take place in the future Alice Walker Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a selection of criticism devoted to the fiction of African American author Alice Walker African pasts Tim Woods,2018-09-30 African pasts examines African literatures in English since the end of colonialism investigating how they represent African history through the twin matrices of memory and trauma Inextricably tied up with the historical conditions of Africa's colonisation charting the emergence of its independence and scrutinising Africa's contemporary neo colonial and postcolonial states as a legacy of the colonial past African literatures are continually preoccupied with exploring modes of representation to work through their different traumatic colonial pasts Among other issues this book deals with literature in the era of apartheid the post apartheid aftermath metafictional experiments in African fiction gender representation in reaction to the trauma of

□ Kubla Khan □ Poetic Structure, Hypnotic Quality and Cognitive Style Reuven Tsur, 2006-02-07 This book endorses Coleridge's statement nothing can permanently please which does not contain in itself the reason why it is so It conceives Kubla Khan as of a hypnotic poem in which the obtrusive rhythms produce a hypnotic emotionally heightened response giving false security to the Platonic Censor so that our imagination is left free to explore higher levels of uncertainty Critics intolerant of uncertainty tend to account for the poem's effect by extraneous background information The book consists of three parts employing different research methods Part One is speculative and discusses three aspects of a complex aesthetic event the verbal structure of Kubla Khan validity in interpretation and the influence of the critic's decision style on his critical decisions The other two parts are empirical Part Two explores reader response to gestalt qualities of rhyme patterns and hypnotic poems in perspective of decision style and professional training Part Three submits four recordings of the poem by leading British actors to instrumental investigation

Coleridge and the Abyssinian Maid Geoffrey Yarlott, 2016-06-17 First published in 1967 this book seeks to show the causes which led to Coleridge's breakdown in 1802 and to indicate how his views on poetry changed as a result of it The approach is selective in that it only focuses on one part of Coleridge's life roughly 1793-1810 however the author attempts to relate a number of different areas of his activity and to trace his emotional and moral development more closely than might be possible in a full-scale biography The account of Coleridge's life ends in 1810 when his relationship with the two key figures in his life Asra and Wordsworth had ruptured as this reflected which of Coleridge's Notebooks were available at the time
