Minkov, Bernhardt L. Trout, 2018-02-02 In the early modern period thinkers began to suggest that philosophy abjure the ideal of dispassionate contemplation of the natural world in favor of a more practically minded project that aimed to make human beings masters and possessors of nature Humanity would seize control of its own fate and overthrow the rule by hostile natural or imaginary forces The gradual spread of liberal democratic government the Enlightenment and the rise of technological modernity are to a considerable extent the fruits of this early modern shift in intellectual concern and focus But these long term trends have also brought unintended consequences in their wake as the dynamic forces of social reason historical progress and the continued recalcitrance of the natural world have combined to disillusion humans of the possibility even the desirability of their mastery over nature The essays in Mastery of Nature constitute an extensive analysis of the fundamental aspects of the human grasp of nature What is the foundation and motive of the modern project in the first place What kind of a world did its early advocates hope to bring about Contributors not only examine the foundational theories espoused by early modern thinkers such as Machiavelli Bacon Descartes and Hobbes but also explore the criticisms and corrections that appeared in the works of Rousseau Kant Nietzsche and Heidegger Ranging from ancient Greek thought to contemporary quantum mechanics Mastery of Nature investigates to what extent nature can be conquered to further human ends and to what extent such mastery is compatible with human flourishing Contributors Robert C Bartlett Mark Blitz Daniel A Doneson Michael A Gillespie Ralph Lerner Paul Ludwig Harvey C Mansfield Arthur Melzer Svetozar Y Minkov Christopher Nadon Diana J Schaub Adam Schulman Devin Stauffer Bernhardt L Trout Lise van Boxel Richard Velkley Stuart D Warner Jerry Weinberger

Excursions into Modernism Dr Joyce E Kelley,2016-01-28 Positioned at a crossroads between feminist geographies and modernist studies Excursions into Modernism considers transnational modernist fiction in tandem with more rarely explored travel narratives by women of the period who felt increasingly free to journey abroad and redefine themselves through travel In an era when Western artists writers and musicians sought primitive ideas for artistic renewal Joyce E Kelley locates a key similarity between fiction and travel writing in the way women authors use foreign experiences to inspire innovations with written expression and self articulation She focuses on the pairing of outward journeys with more inward introspective ones made possible through reconceptualizing and mobilizing elements of women s traditional corporeal and domestic geographies the skin the ill body the womb and the piano In texts ranging from Jean Rhys s Voyage in the Dark to Virginia Woolf s The Voyage Out and from Evelyn Scott s Escapade to Dorothy Richardson s Pilgrimage Kelley explores how interactions between geographic movement identity formation and imaginative excursions produce modernist experimentation Drawing on fascinating supplementary and archival materials such as letters diaries newspaper articles photographs and unpublished drafts Kelley s book cuts across national and geographic borders to offer rich and often revisionary interpretations of both canonical and lesser known works

Sea of Literatures Angela Fabris,Albert Göschl,Steffen Schneider,2023-12-18 Mediterranean studies flourish in literary and cultural studies but concepts of the Mediterranean and the theories and methods they use are very disparate This is because the Mediterranean is not a simple geographical or historical unity but a multiplicity a network of highly interconnected elements each of which is different and individual Talking about Mediterranean literature raises the question of whether the connectivity of Mediterranean literature can or should be limited in some way by constructing an inside and an outside of the Mediterranean What kind of connectivity and fragmentation do literary texts produce how do they build and interrupt references to the real to fictional forms of representation to history but also to other texts and discourses how do they create and deny communication and how do they engage with and reflect literary and non literary concepts of the Mediterranean These and other questions are considered and discussed in the over twenty contributions gathered in this volume Current Research in Egyptology Christelle Alvarez,Arto Belekdanian,Ann-Katrin Gill,Solène Klein,2016-07-31 The sixteenth Current Research in Egyptology CRE conference was held from the 15 18 April 2015 at the University of Oxford and once again provided a platform for postgraduates and early career Egyptologists as well as independent researchers to present their research These proceedings for CREXVI represent the wide range of themes that were offered by delegates during the conference Papers focus on the theme of travel in ancient Egypt from a wide range of perspectives such as concrete or abstract travels travel in space and time travel inside to or from Egypt travel in literature travel of beliefs and ideas or travel of objects Tartessos and the Phoenicians in Iberia Sebastián Celestino Pérez,Carolina López-Ruiz,2016 This is the first book in English about the earliest historical civilization in the western Mediterranean known as Tartessos Endowed with extraordinary wealth in metals and strategically positioned between the Atlantic and Mediterranean trading routes at the time of Greek and Phoenician colonial expansion Tartessos flourished in the eighth and seventh centuries BCE Tartessos became a literate sophisticated urban culture in southwestern Iberia today s Spain and Portugal enriched by commercial contacts with the Aegean and the Levant since at least the ninth century In its material culture architecture grave goods sanctuaries plastic arts we see how native elements combined with imported orientalizing innovations introduced by the Phoenicians Historians of the rank of Herodotos and Livy geographers such as Strabo and Pliny Greek and Punic periploi and perhaps even Phoenician and Hebrew texts testify to the power wealth and prominence of this western most Mediterranean civilization Archaeologists in turn have demonstrated the existence of a fascinating complex society with both strong local roots and international flare Yet for still mysterious reasons Tartessos did not attain a Classical period like its peer emerging cultures did at the same time Etruscans Romans Greeks This book combines the expertise of its two authors in archaeology philology and cultural history to present a comprehensive coherent theoretically up to date and informative overview of the discovery sources and debates surrounding this puzzling culture of ancient Iberia and its complex hybrid identity vis a vis the western Phoenicians This book will be of great interest to students of the classics archaeology and ancient history Phoenician Punic studies colonization and cultural contact European immigrants Peter DeRoo, 1900
