Fantastic Metamorphoses Other Worlds:

Fantastic Metamorphoses, Other Worlds Marina Warner, 2002 Marina Warner explores the metaphorical power of metamorphoses in the evocation of human personality Beginning with Ovid's great poem The Metamorphoses as the founding text of the metamorphic tradition she takes us on a journey of exploration into the fantastic art of Hieronymous Bosch the legends of the Taino people the life cycle of the butterfly the myth of Leda and the Swan the genealogy of the Zombie the pantomime of Aladdin the haunting of doppelgangers the coming of photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll The publisher Fantastic Metamorphoses, Other Worlds Marina Warner, 2002-10-10 Metamorphosis is a dynamic principle of creation vital to natural processes of generation and evolution growth and decay yet it also threatens personal identity if human beings are subject to a continual process of bodily transformation Shape shifting also belongs in the landscape of magic witchcraft and wonder and enlivens classical mythology early modern fairy tales and uncanny fictions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This collection of essays given as the Clarendon Lectures in English 2001 takes four dominant processes of metamorphosis Mutating Hatching Splitting and Doubling and explores their metaphorical power in the evocation of human personality Marina Warner traces this story against a background of historical encounters with different cultures especially with the Caribbean Beginning with Ovid's great poem The Metamorphoses as the founding text of the metamorphic tradition she takes us on a journey of exploration into the fantastic art of Hieronymous Bosch the legends of the Taino people the life cycle of the butterfly the myth of Leda and the Swan the genealogy of the Zombie the pantomime of Aladdin the haunting of doppelgangers the coming of photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll Seductions in Narrative Gemma López, 2007 Seductions in Narrative is a highly original academic study which provides a critical discourse in which desire narrative and subjectivity are explored Through the critical reading of two novels by contemporary English authors Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson the book cleverly assesses the ways in which desire allows the subject to imagine an alternative utopian location where a narrative of the self in all its multiplicity and ambiguity can be effected This book is unique as general studies on these issues tend to focus on the literature produced over the nineteenth century but not on contemporary literature The pieces which examine desire and narrative in contemporary novels tend to do so in the work of post colonial authors Specific works on the production of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson also tend to focus on a somewhat close reading of their novels but do not make use of their fiction in order to debate specific poststructuralist issues as this book successfully undertakes Metamorphosis Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-05 How do we perdure when we and everything around us are caught up in incessant change But the course of this change does not seem to be haphazard and we may seek the modalities of its Logos in the transformations in which it occurs The classic term Metamorphosis focuses upon the proportions between the transformed and the retained the principles of sameness and otherness Applied to life and its becoming metamorphosis pinpoints the proportions between the vital and the aesthetic significance of life Where could this metaphysical in between territory come better to light than in the Fine Arts In this collection are investigated the various proportions between the vital significance of the constructivism of life and a specifically human contribution made by the creative imagination to the transformatory search for beauty and aesthetic values Papers by Lawrence Kimmel Mark L Brack Sheryl Tucker de Vazquez William Roberts Jadwiga Smith Victor Gerald Rivas Max Statkiewicz Matti Itkonen George R Tibbetts Linda Stratford Jorella Andrews Ingeborg M Rocker Stephen J Goldberg Leah Durner Donnalee Dox Catherine Schear Samantha Henriette Krukowski Gary Maciag Kelly Dennis Wanda Strukus Magda Romanska Patricia Trutty Coohill Ellen Burns Tessa Morrison Sabine Coelsch Foisner Gary Backhaus Daniel M Unger Howard Pearce

The Cinema of Yorgos Lanthimos Eddie Falvey, 2022-06-16 From the critical and commercial fanfare his films generate it is largely understood that Yorgos Lanthimos is one of the more interesting filmmakers to have emerged out of the new century A markedly transnational filmmaker between Dogtooth and The Favourite Lanthimos has managed to traverse the gap between the art house and mainstream while not once sacrificing his unique style and worldview His films while often difficult showcase his talents as a filmmaker collaborator and commentator on the human condition Accompanied by a trademark acerbic wit Lanthimos's films take aim at humanity's more contemptible and absurd designs as he explores a thematic preoccupation with among other things power trauma isolation sex and violence This edited collection covers everything from an early career that was marked by experimentation with a range of different media to international festival hits including Dogtooth The Lobster The Killing of a Sacred Deer and the Academy Award winning historical epic The Favourite Lanthimos's most successful feature to date All his work demonstrates a fascinating contravention of aesthetic thematic and generic boundaries that forms the basis of some of the analyses to be found here Featuring a roster of talented scholars both new and established The Cinema of Yorgos Lanthimos: Films, Form, Philosophy provides a timely compendium of critical approaches to one of the most distinct voices in contemporary film

Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair. The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies. Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK, Spain, Switzerland, and South Africa, Canada, The Netherlands, India, Portugal, Greece, France, and Hungary. In addition to the section on European Shakespeares, this volume includes essays on the genre of romance, issues of character, and other topics.
