Red Sea and is a hub for international trade and military operations This has led to the construction of several major ports including the Port of Djibouti which is one of the busiest in Africa The country is also home to several foreign military bases including those of France the United States and China As a result Djibouti has become an important player in regional politics and is often referred to as the gateway to Africa However despite its geopolitical significance Djibouti faces several challenges such as poverty unemployment and political instability The country s economy is largely dependent on foreign aid and military spending which has resulted in an unequal distribution of wealth and limited economic opportunities for the majority of its citizens

Introduction to Ghana Gilad James, PhD, Ghana is a country in West Africa bordered by Cote d'Ivoire to the west Burkina Faso to the north Togo to the east and the Gulf of Guinea to the south The country was formerly known as the Gold Coast due to its abundant gold resources and it gained independence from British colonization in 1957 The population of Ghana is around 31 million and the official language is English although many Ghanaians speak local dialects as well The country is known for its diverse culture colorful festivals and tasty cuisine which includes dishes like jollof rice banku and fufu Ghana is also home to several natural attractions including national parks waterfalls and beaches making it a popular destination for tourists Despite being a developing country Ghana has made significant progress in recent years with a growing economy and improving infrastructure The country s GDP has been steadily increasing fueled by industries like agriculture mining and oil production However Ghana still faces challenges such as poverty high unemployment rates and inadequate healthcare and education systems Ghana is also working towards addressing issues related to corruption and improving democratic governance through institutional reforms Overall Ghana remains a vibrant and fascinating country that is constantly evolving and striving towards progress
