When editor, and eventually, Stan Lee assumed the role of American comic-book king, he had no idea how he would become the most successful man in the business. He was a writer, not a publisher, and his only real talent was his ability to write. The rest was luck. Through his persistence, he had created a series of characters that would become the most beloved in the world.

Lee worked to gain recognition, and after many years, he was successful. After years of hard work, he was successful. After
years of hard work, he was successful.
