A Place We Call Home K. Amimahaum Ducre, 2013-01-04 Faith holds up a photo of the boarded up vacant house It's the first thing I see And I just call it the Homeless House cause it's the house that nobody fixes up Faith is one of fourteen women living on Syracuse's Southside a predominantly African American and low income area who took photographs of their environment and displayed their images to facilitate dialogues about how they viewed their community A Place We Call Home chronicles this photography project and bears witness not only to the environmental injustice experienced by these women but also to the ways in which they maintain dignity and restore order in a community where they have traditionally had little control To understand the present plight of these women one must understand the historical and political context in which certain urban neighborhoods were formed Black migration urban renewal white flight capital expansion and then bust Ducre demonstrates how such political and economic forces created a landscape of abandoned housing within the Southside community She spotlights the impact of this blight upon the female residents who survive in this crucible of neglect A Place We Call Home is the first case study of the intersection of Black feminism and environmental justice and it is also the first book length presentation using Photovoice methodology an innovative research and empowerment strategy that assesses community needs by utilizing photographic images taken by individuals The individuals have historically lacked power and status in formal planning processes Through a cogent combination of words and images this book illuminates how these women manage their daily survival in degraded environments the tools that they deploy to do so and how they act as agents of change to transform their communities The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments Michael Naas, 2014-10-15 The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments follows the remarkable itinerary of Jacques Derrida's final seminar The Beast and the Sovereign 2001-3 as the explicit themes of the seminar namely sovereignty and the question of the animal come to be supplemented and interrupted by questions of death mourning survival the archive and especially the end of the world The book begins with Derrida's analyses in the first year of the seminar of the question of the animal in the context of his other published works on the same subject It then follows Derrida through the second year of the seminar presented in Paris from December 2002 to March 2003 as a very different tone begins to make itself heard one that wavers between melancholy and an extraordinary lucidity with regard to the end Focusing the entire year on just two works Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe and Martin Heidegger's seminar of 1929-30 The Fundamental Concepts of Metaphysics the seminar comes to be dominated by questions of the end of the world and of an originary violence that at once gives rise to and effaces all things The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments follows Derrida as he responds from week to week to these emerging questions as well as to important events unfolding around him both world events the aftermath of 9/11 the American invasion of Iraq and more personal ones from the death of Maurice Blanchot to intimations of his own death less than two years away All this the book concludes makes this final seminar an absolutely unique work in Derrida's corpus one that both speaks of death as the end of the world and itself now testifies to that end just one though hardly the least of its many teachable moments Second Place Finish Doug Steppe, 2006-10-10 Second Place Finish is a poignant and humorous real life story of coming of age in the fifties with all its changes and the quick trip out of the safety of a rural and sheltered lifestyle to a tour of duty in Vietnam It is not just a Vietnam story but one that includes that time Doug's approach to life is Lighten up wade in cause the water's fine

The Disobey Initiative Marco Giovarruscio,2025-04-09 In 2021 during a time of personal and collective crisis I found myself dealing with a mix of frustration anger and uncertainty Instead of letting these emotions overwhelm me I chose to redirect them towards something more meaningful a deeper exploration to question the illusions of the ego and the world around me A simple online platform became my canvas turning rebellion into creation and chaos into clarity What started as an instinctive act of expression on social media quickly grew into something much bigger a bold experiment in raw unfiltered thoughts the Disobey Initiative This book is the living trace of that journey It s not a self help book It s not a manual for perfection It s an open invitation to unlearn question and remember the deeper truths buried beneath the noise In these pages you ll explore How crisis can become a doorway to consciousness The subtle mechanisms of the ego and how they shape your perception The power of disobedience not as defiance but as authenticity Why questioning reality is the first step to freedom How to reconnect with the essence of who you really are If you ve ever felt like something essential is missing from the world you re told to accept this book was written for you
