Far Out Story Of Vortex I:

True Stories Garrick Beck, 2017-09-07 Part memoir part eyewitness history part storytelling this book takes you on a rollicksome ride through a generation of experiences True Stories traces the evolution of a New World Culture from the Beatnik 1950s through the passions and protests and psychedelics of the 1960s and onward into environmental and cross cultural arts and political movements which today are thriving around the world Told with humor and peppered with the authors philosophy these stories take the reader to party with author Jack Kerouac protest with the saintly Dorothy Day and drop acid with Merry Prankster Ken Kesey The history recounted here uncovers the origins of The Oregon Country Faire the Rainbow Gatherings and the infamous Vortex Festival The tales thread their way through the intimacies of Americas West Coast communes caustic anti Vietnam War protests the beauty of creating community gardens in vacant city lots and the untold tale of what really brought down the Soviet Union

Estacada Kathryn McCune Hurd, 2012 Estacada incorporated in 1905 is located in the foothills of the Cascade Range The town owes its existence to the construction of the first hydroelectric power dams along the narrow canyons of the scenic Clackamas River For eight decades Estacada was prominent in the timber industry Today the main attractions are the area s outstanding beauty its growing art community and recreational opportunities such as camping hunting fishing and boating About 2 400 people live in the incorporated city of Estacada but the majority of a population of 18 000 lives in the unincorporated towns that surround it These communities were settled as early as 1847 and boasted their own schools churches businesses and post offices long before the incorporation of Estacada Their lush histories provide a colorful foundation for the people and areas now collectively referred to as Estacada

Portland in the 1960s Polina Olsen, 2012-08-28 In 1968 Newsweek reported an imminent threat of twenty thousand hippies descending on Portland Oregon Although the numbers were exaggerated Portland did boast a vibrant 1960s culture of disenchanted and disenfranchised individuals seeking social and political revolution Barefoot and bell bottomed they hung out in Portland s bohemian underground and devised a better world What began in coffee shop conversations found its voice in the Willamette Bridge newspaper KBOO radio station and the Portland State University student strike resulting in social artistic and political change in the Rose City Through these stories from the counterculture author Polina Olsen brings to life the beat snapping Caffè Espresso the incense and black light posters of the Psychedelic Supermarket and the spontaneous concerts and communal soups in Lair Park

The Far Out Story of Vortex I Matt Love,2004 When the American Legion invited Richard Nixon to speak at their national convention in Portland Oregon in the summer of 1970 Oregon Governor Tom McCall and a few area hippies came up with a plan to avoid a violent clash with anti war protesters they would have a free rock festival at a state park without police intervention Vortex I A Biodegradable Festival of Life became the only state sponsored rock festival in American history Cover p 4

The Alien Tide Tom Dongo,1990-01-01 I would venture a guess that if someone were to go to a place such as Syracuse Little Rock San Antonio Key West Pocatello Des Moines or Spokane and dig around for two years as I did here that person would come up with as much material as I have about Sedona The following incidents and encounters are a broad representation of UFO ET encounters by area residents and visitors My opinion is that many of these incidents resulted in the abduction of the individuals involved I have talked at length with most of these people It s difficult to put into words the sincerity and concern that was reflected in their voices and faces about what they had experienced When a mature man or woman breaks down emotionally over a UFO experience they are reliving in an interview this is to me strong evidence that the person is not lying or simply making up a story I feel fortunate to have shared in their experiences and I share in turn these experiences here with you
