Farewell Godspeed The Greatest Eulogies Of Our Times:

Farewell, Godspeed Cyrus M. Copeland, 2007-12-18 Farewell Godspeed is a remarkable collection of eulogies for some of the most notable figures of our time delivered by the people who knew them best In the words used to eulogize the great and celebrated men and women of the world sometimes reverential sometimes funny always poignant we come as close as perhaps we ever will to seeing the warm humanity beneath their public personas Cyrus M Copeland has gathered some of the greatest of these writings about artists scientists authors public servants entertainers and others who have captured our attention by making the world a better or at least a livelier place Here is Andy Warhol s close friend describing Warhol s hidden spirituality Albert Einstein s assistant recounting his humanism Edward Kennedy remembering with a brother s tenderness the life of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis Larry McMurtry s lively and loving tribute to Irving Swift Lazar And Robert Bernstein longtime publisher and friend of Dr Seuss memorializing him with special never before published verse Also included are the eulogies of the Challenger astronauts by President Ronald Reagan Charles Schulz by Cathy Guisewite creator of the comic strip Cathy Bette Davis by James Woods Bob Fosse by Neil Simon Lucille Ball by Diane Sawyer Martin Luther King Jr by Benjamin E Mays David O Selznick by Truman Capote Karl Marx by Friedrich Engels and Gianni Versace by Madonna In these moving and personal tributes we see at last the vulnerabilities and nuances of character that are often hidden from the spotlight and the true personalities behind the names we remember Meaning in Positive and Existential

Psychology Alexander Batthyany, Pninit Russo-Netzer, 2014-04-26 This book is a first attempt to combine insights from the two perspectives with regard to the question of meaning by examining a collection of theoretical and empirical works This volume therefore is destined to become an important addition to psychological literature both from the viewpoint of the history of ideas again this would be one of the first times that positive and existentialist psychologies meet and from the viewpoint of theoretical and empirical research into the meaning concept in psychology Advanced Public Speaking

Sweet Sorrow Mark Wakely,2008-05-01 This remarkable book at times heart breaking at times humorous is dazzling for its profound honesty Like most of us Mark Wakely had always put death in the too hard basket Around death he was painfully awkward strangely self conscious death shy He was curiously distanced from his own parents deaths Thirty years later he went on a journey to confront one of the most intensely personal yet universal experiences our own mortality With Mark as our guide we are introduced to morticians and embalmers rabbis and doctors coffin makers and gravediggers He reveals the fashions and the fads the rituals and the deep emotion in a heartfelt and whimsical investigation into this timeless subject All you need to pack for the trip is a curiosity about life The Advocate ,2004-03-02 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States The A-Z of Death and Dying Michael John Brennan,2014-02-17 This engaging and informative resource provides readers with an understanding of the social cultural and historical influences that shape our encounters with death dying and bereavement a universal experience across humanity Written in an engaging and accessible style by leading international scholars and practitioners from within the field of death and bereavement studies this book will have broad appeal providing in a single volume insights from some of the key thinkers within the interdisciplinary field of death dying and bereavement Its approximately 200 entries will serve as useful starting points for those new to the topic and will be informative to those already acquainted with some of the core concepts and ideas within this burgeoning field of inquiry This encyclopedia will serve as an essential resource for high school and undergraduate students those engaged in independent research and professionals whose work involves caring for the dead dying and bereaved It will also be of great interest to general readers intrigued by the social medical and cultural dimensions to human mortality Underscored by the inescapable biological certainties that affect us all The A Z of Death and Dying offers a highly relevant examination of the social and historical variation in the rituals practices and beliefs surrounding the end of life Death, American Style Lawrence R. Samuel, 2013-07-05

The notion of one day disappearing from the earth forever is contrary to many of America's defining cultural values with death and dying viewed as un-American experiences Arguing that death and dying may be our last major taboo this book shows how death and dying became almost unmentionable words over the course of the last century Although we have recently made some progress in reconciling the fact that life is a finite resource we remain very unprepared for the approaching tsunami of death as the largest generation in history begins to age and die in great numbers DEATH AMERICAN STYLE is thus highly timely and relevant suggesting that Americans need to individually and collectively come to terms with mortality if we are to learn to treat death as an inevitable part of life and to prepare accordingly As more and more Americans face end of life decisions it will be vital for us to radically change the current view of death and dying The alternative the author argues is that the emerging death-centric society may bring with it a period of turmoil equivalent to that of the countercultural 1960s and 1970s My Generation William Styron, 2015-06-02 A vital illuminating collection of the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner's elegant passionately engaged nonfiction My Generation is the definitive gathering of William Styron's nonfiction exposing the core of this greatly gifted highly convivial and profoundly serious artist from his literary emergence in the 1950s to his death in 2006 Here are fifty years of Styron's essays memoirs reviews op-eds articles eulogies and speeches reflecting the same brilliant style and informed thinking that he brought to his towering fiction and to a deeply committed public life Including many newly collected and never before published items this compendium ranges from the original mission statement of The Paris Review which Styron helped found in 1953 to a 2001 tribute to his friend Philip Roth creating an essential overview of arts and letters during the post World War II years In these pages Styron writes vividly of childhood days in Tidewater Virginia spent going to movies not reading books It does not mean the death of literacy or creativity if one is drenched in popular culture at an early age He recalls being among the group of soldiers who would have been sent to invade Japan and were saved by Truman's decision to drop the atomic bomb which Styron feels was the right choice even though its absolute rightness can never be proved And he writes as few others have about midlife battles with clinical depression a pain that is all but indescribable and therefore to everyone but the sufferer almost meaningless Here too are Styron's personal encounters with world leaders fellow authors and friends each of whom comes memorably to life Styron recalls sharing contraband Cuban cigars with JFK a naughty memento a conversation piece with a touch of scandal getting lost in the snow with Robert Penn Warren and party hopping with the young James Jones an experience he likens to keeping company with a Roman emperor The beginnings of his masterpieces The Confessions of Nat Turner and Sophie's Choice are chronicled here along with the controversy that greeted the former upon its 1967 publication Throughout Styron celebrates the men and women of his generation whose lives were forged in the crucible of World War II Whether he's recounting a walk with his dog musing on the Modern Library's list of the hundred best English language novels of the twentieth century or contemplating America's fraught racial legacy from his point of view as the grandson of a woman who owned slaves William Styron writes always in urgent finely calibrated prose These fascinating pieces bring readers closer to this great writer and the world he observed interacted with and changed Praise for My Generation William Styron's My Generation Collected Nonfiction is both unsurpassably charming and unflinchingly honest whether recounting the fallout from The Confessions of Nat Turner or reminiscing about the slave owning grandmother who warned him never to forget he was a Southerner Vogue At its most accomplished Styron's non fiction mixes a conscientious richly traditional prose style with a strong current of fellow feeling a certain awe at the human condition which is what gives power to his best fiction Styron stood tall in his generation and the best of him will stand up over time USA Today A must for every Styron fan's library BBC Off the Radar Cyrus Copeland, 2015 Part mystery part reportage and part detective work the author sets out to find the truth about his father who was arrested in Iran for spying at the time of the 1979 hostage crisis and tried in a revolutionary court The X List Jami Bernard, 2009-04-20 National Society of Film Critics dares to go where few mainstream critics have gone before to the heart of what gets the colored lights going as they say in A Streetcar Named Desire Here is their take on the films that quicken their and our pulses an enterprise both risky and risqué an entertaining overview of the most arousing films Hollywood has every produced But make no mistake about it This isn't a collection of esoteric critic's choice movies The films reflect individual taste rubbing against the grain of popular wisdom And because of the personal nature of the erotic forces at play these essays will reveal more about the individual critics than perhaps they have revealed thus far to their readers The Society is a world renowned marquee name organization embracing some of America's most distinguished critics more than forty writers who have followings nationally as well as devoted local constituencies in such major cities as New York Chicago Los Angeles Boston Philadelphia Atlanta and Minneapolis Yes The X List will have something for every lover of film and for every lover Ministering to the Mourning Warren Wiersbe, David Wiersbe, 2006-04-01 Formerly titled Comforting the Bereaved this practical insightful guide gives direction to pastors and lay leaders of all levels of experience Included are recommended Scriptures to read an explanation of the stages of grief approaches to conducting funerals in special circumstances such as suicide victims of crime multiple family deaths or when the deceased is unknown to the pastor signs of healthy and unhealthy grief and how to help survivors cope Newsweek
