Reaves,2017-08-31 In our troubled world protective hospitality is tragically necessary and requires informed shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other In Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention Reaves shows that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by a better understanding of Jewish and Muslim practices of hospitality as well as of their codes and etiquettes related to honour Safeguarding the Stranger draws on a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies as viewed through the lens of a co operative and complementary theological view which is influenced by inter religious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue forecasting the positive role that religions can play in resolving conflicts

The Miriam Tradition Cia Sautter, 2010-12-01 The Miriam Tradition works from the premise that religious values form in and through movement with ritual and dance developing patterns for enacting those values Cia Sautter considers the case of Sephardic Jewish women who following in the tradition of Miriam the prophet performed dance and music for Jewish celebrations and special occasions She uses rabbinic and feminist understandings of the Torah to argue that these women called tanyaderas taught Jewish values by leading appropriate behavior for major life events Sautter considers the religious values that are in music and dance performed by tanyaderas and examines them in conjunction with written and visual records and evidence from dance and music traditions Explaining the symbolic gestures and motions encoded in dances Sautter shows how rituals display deeply held values that are best expressed through the body The book argues that the activities of women in other religions might also be examined for their embodiment and display of important values bringing forgotten groups of women back into the historical record as important community leaders A History of Israel Howard M. Sachar, 2013-07-31 First published in 1976 Howard M Sachar's A History of Israel From the Rise of Zionism to Our Time was regarded one of the most valuable works available detailing the history of this still relatively young country Decades later readers can again be immersed in this monumental work The second edition of this volume covers topics such as the first of the Aliyahs in the 1880s the rise of Jewish nationalism the beginning of the political Zionist movement and later how the movement changed after Theodor Herzl the Balfour Declaration the factors that led to the Arab Jewish confrontation Palestine and its role both during the Second World War and after the war of independence and the many wars that followed it over the next few decades and the development of the Israeli republic and the many challenges it faced both domestic and foreign and still faces today This is a truly enriching and exhaustive history of a nation that holds claim to one of the most complicated and controversial histories in the world The Viability of a Worldwide Armenian Organization Z.S. Andrew Demirdjian Ph.D., 2010-10-16 Demirdjian was reprinted and with a much bigger run The book published in 2010 by Xlibris is a blueprint for the future of the Armenian nation The slim volume 185 pages should be pored over by every Armenian committed to a bright future for Armenians The book makes a persuasive case on how to connect the fragmented Armenian Diaspora Dr Demirdjian believes the creation of a pan Armenian organization would be the first concrete step to unite Armenians and subsequently proceed with their campaign for compensation and restitution from Turkey A meta Armenian organization can be a permanent entity looking after the national interests of all Armenians He argues that its time to establish a worldwide meta organization to unite Armenians with the primary goal of campaigning for the return of Western Armenia and Cilicia to Armenian rule To reach that goal Armenians need critical mass The contention that large number are the common denominators of any organized political effort at achieving results has been a truism in the past present and the future is beyond refutation he says It would take an enemy of the Armenians to disagree with the assertion But before demanding land and property Armenian organizations have to coalesce and to rally around a single strategy Dr Demirdjian suggests the coining of a word Araratism which would serve as the name of the ideology of all Armenians working together to regain at least parts of Western Armenia and for enhancing conditions for the Republic of Armenia and Artsakh While we talk about being a nation of 8 million we collectively punch way below our weight because of fragmentation and our rejection of compromise he says A pan Armenian organization would give us the critical mass so that we would be taken seriously in international fora The success of Genocide centennial commemorations demonstrated that when we work together we can make our voices heard above the international media din Its safe to assume that he Pope wouldnt have been familiar with the Armenian Genocide had his Armenian acquaintances in Buenos Aires not familiarized him with the great calamity inflicted upon our nation by Turkey While Dr Demirdjian makes the case for the necessity of a pan Armenian organization the nitty gritty of setting up such an organization is provided by Harut Sassounian the publisher of California Courier In the books last chapter Proposal to Create a Framework for Uniting the Diaspora Armenians Sassounian provides a toolbox for the construct There are a number of organizations which are trying to represent the Western Armenians the National Congress of Western Armenians the National Council of Western Armenians Government in Exile of Western Armenians Most Diaspora Armenians know little or nothing about them primarily because the Diaspora mediaoften controlled by the political partiesare reluctant to cover the activities of rivals let alone promote them Its this divisiveness which Dr Demirdjian rightly condemns in his timely book Will our leaders continue to dismiss the concept of a pan Armenian organization or will they unshackle themselves from the business as usual dead end model Will they continue to behave like our divisive and destructive nakharars or embrace the bracing idea When will they realize that the Diaspora could vanish in a few generations if the Diaspora establishment doesnt get its act together
