Saperstein,2001-01-01 Harold I Saperstein served as rabbi of Temple Emanu El of Lynbrook N Y from 1933 until his retirement in 1980 The specific contours of his career reflect a sustained effort to use the pulpit of this suburban temple to communicate a Jewish perspective based on personal encounters with great issues of the day including the rise of Nazism and the Holocaust the civil rights era the McCarthy era and other turning points in American history The fifty two sermons in this book have been selected introduced and annotated by Marc Saperstein whose award winning books on the history of Jewish preaching have established him as a leading expert on this subject No other book illustrates as effectively the value of the sermon as a resource for understanding the challenges faced by American Jews at some of the most dramatic moments in the turbulent history of this century mental world of our countrymen in a long distant time Moreover in this presentation of Landon Carter s passionate narratives the diarist becomes an arresting new character in the world s literature a figure of Shakespearean proportions the Lear of his own tragic kingdom This long awaited work will be seen both as a major contribution to Revolution history and a triumph of the art of biography     Kindergarten Primary Magazine ,1917     The Congressional Globe United States.
