Farvel Other Stories:

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing

"For was I Not Born Here?" Anne Holden Rønning,2010 As Lauris Edmond writes du Fresne s work is a tapestry of the past and present storying immigrant life Flitting in and out of the past is shown to be one way of coming to terms with the present and of understanding the importance of home as is evident in The Book of Ester and Frederique both centering on the manifold complex European cultural traditions that were often overlooked in settler countries Another is to be an inquisitive spy on the land like the child narrator Astrid Westergaard in du Fresne s magnificent stories many of them originally radio broadcasts which depict life in a small Danish community in the Manawatu in the 1930 s often in a humorous and ironic manner

Talking Past Each Other Patricia Kinloch,Joan Metge,2014-04-01 Where numbers of different cultural groups come together misunderstandings and tensions can arise even where there is the greatest goodwill on both sides Sometimes even those involved are unable to explain why In this book the authors set out to explore the situations and contexts in which cross cultural misunderstandings can occur Talking Past Each Other was first published in 1978 and has been read widely and reprinted regularly

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

A Small Price to Pay Ann Beaglehole,2015-12-16 For European refugees arriving in the 1930s New Zealand was in many ways a haven It wasn t all easy they came from a continent rich in culture and history to a small isolated country with little social diversity The immigrants found prejudice and suspicion as well as a place they could one day call their own But the difficulties were a small price to pay for freedom and survival A Small Price to Pay tells the story of the refugees flight to New Zealand and what they found here Based on interviews with thirty two former refugees this book is the first to document in detail their experiences

50 More Stories and Songs James D. Wood,2019-02-07 50 More Stories and Songs is a continuation of Rev

James D Wood's delightful memoir This Is My Story This Is My Song Remembering other forgotten events in his life Reverend Wood writes about them and concludes each story with resonating words from a hymn Readers will find these additional stories to be charming and engaging Reverend Wood has served nine congregations during his fifty years with the United Methodist Church Previously he served in the US Navy and with the Port District of San Diego as a civil engineering draftsman In ministry though Reverend Wood discovered life to be even more meaningful and adventurous than he ever imagined He is married to Martha herself the author of Out of My Mind has three children seven grandchildren and three great granddaughters They have lived in Arizona for the past forty four years and currently reside in Sun Lakes Arizona
