Fashion Victim Michelle Lee, 2003 A riveting look inside the fashion world that exposes the truth about shopaholics sweatshops and celebrity closets Fashion from the 1500 Prada bag to the 30 Kate Spade knock off sold on the sidewalk has been transformed from a commodity reserved for the elite to a powerful presence in mass market culture As a society we are obsessed with fashion and style racking up credit card debt to support compulsive shopping habits scouring magazines for the latest trends to buy and focusing more on who s wearing what at the Oscars than on who s winning In Fashion Victim award winning journalist Michelle Lee blows the lid off the fashion industry and spotlights the fascinating and often disturbing ways in which it is morphing our culture our economy and our values Dishing on the lords of the label including designers like Donna Karan Calvin Klein and Kenneth Cole Fashion Victim reveals a world that is sometimes grotesque sometimes glitzy but constantly intriguing From bear hides to the Victorian bustle Lee traces the role of fashion through the ages taking us from the dawn of ready to wear in 1865 to the modern trend cycles that incite us to clamor after leg warmers bumster trousers and Manolo Blahniks She details the birth of Speed Chic the hamster wheel of style that keeps us stuck in an endless cycle of consumption and has become the crack cocaine of fashion providing us with a temporary high until we spot the next trend and reach for our wallets She also explores the phenomenon of McFashion the uncanny proliferation of retailers like the Gap and Old Navy that are creeping into every town in America and stripping us and the designers they knock off of individuality and innovation And she ultimately probes the human cost of fashion s decadence including the distorted perceptions of beauty fueled by high end designers the dangers of dry cleaning and the ugly financial disparity between those who make the clothes and those who buy them An unprecedented look behind the runway at the forces and personalities driving this 200 billion dollar industry Fashion Victim is a stylish provocative and highly entertaining contribution to the analysis of American popular culture Fashion victim a New York Megan Hess,2017-02-07

Li,2016-05-05 Since the late 1980s green consumerism has been hailed in the West as an efficient solution to environmental problems However Chinese consumers have been slow to warm up to eco friendly products Consumers prefer SUVs to hybrid cars health supplements and snake oil medicines to organic foods and eco fashion is still secluded in high end designer studios These choices contradict the findings of many sustainable lifestyle surveys that claim to register a rising desire for green products among the Chinese This book examines the psycho cultural differences that disrupt the translation of eco friendly appeals to China by analyzing environmental advertising It explores the different notions of green the structures of desire that underlies the advertisements and how they are shaped by ideological cultural and historical differences Rather than arguing the superiority of the American or Chinese version of green consumerism the book interrogates the role of advertising in the global spread of Western ideologies and explores the possibilities for consumers to resist transnational corporate hegemony in the green movement This book fills an important gap in the critical scholarship on green marketing and should be of interest to students and scholars of environment studies green advertising and marketing environmental communication and media studies China studies and environmental sociology ethics and cultural studies      The
