The Story of S. Annalisse Mayer, 2001-06-17 What if After the death of JFK Jr the press was flooded with mesmerizing pictures of him not to mention some rather lurid tabloid articles The author found herself drawn into repeated obsessive fantasies of what knowing him or having a romance with him might have been like Ultimately she found herself writing down one of her fantasies as a novel She changed the names to make clear that this is entirely a work of fiction her own fantasies not actually about the real people who inspired her writing She wove in her own life experiences her son s Asperger s Syndrome home birth and information from a suicide prevention course She also could not resist drawing in some pet political issues for instance regarding abortion pesticide spraying and drug legalization The result is an eminently readable romance and psychological study which should enthrall any woman of a certain age who fantasizes about younger celebrities or anyone who is interested in Asperger s Syndrome Emerson's Romantic Style Julie K. Ellison, 2014-07-14 Professor

Ellison demonstrates that the characteristic difficulties of Emerson s prose its repetitiveness discontinuity and tonal peculiarities are motivated by his use of interpretation to free himself from recurrently intimidating aspects of tradition Originally published in 1984 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Golden Village and Other Stories Edith Exton, 2003-04-21 From Edith Exton the author of Continent in Limbo and An Invented Life comes this collection of vignettes about life at all ages Exton s stories describe a variety of human experiences from her early childhood in pre World War II Europe to later life in a multi generational American family Each story evokes the distinctive flavor of a time and place and addresses a broad palette of the human condition uncertainty love trust betrayal belonging friendship and family bonds Each story presents a different aspect of a colorful journey Potter Style: Senseless Sensibilities Potter Style, 2011-06-28
