Finding Meaning At The Movies:

Finding Meaning at the Movies Sara Anson Vaux, 1999 Movies mirror our desires and dreams but they also shape them as we struggle to understand ourselves and our world in relation to God Finding Meaning at the Movies is a guide for groups and individuals who wish to explore through movies major themes issues and questions that we all have in common Sara Anson Vaux takes the reader on a cinematic journey showing how to look for messages of value and meaning by examining not only the content of a film but also the ways cinematography color sound that a movie tells a story Finding Ourselves at the Movies Paul W. Kahn, 2013-11-12 Academic philosophy may have lost its audience but the traditional subjects of philosophy love death justice knowledge and faith remain as compelling as ever To reach a new generation Paul W Kahn argues philosophy must be brought to bear on contemporary discourse surrounding these primal concerns and he shows how this can be achieved through a turn to popular film In such well known movies as Forrest Gump 1994 The American President 1995 The Matrix 1999 Memento 2000 The History of Violence 2005 Gran Torino 2008 The Dark Knight 2008 The Road 2009 and Avatar 2009 Kahn explores powerful archetypes and their hold on us and he treats our present day anxieties over justice love and faith as signs these traditional imaginative structures have failed His inquiry proceeds in two parts First he uses film to explore the nature of action and interpretation and narrative not abstraction emerges as the critical concept for understanding both Second he explores the narratives of politics family and faith as they appear in popular films Engaging with genres as diverse as romantic comedies slasher films and pornography Kahn gains access to the social imaginary through which we create and maintain a meaningful world Positive Psychology at the Movies Ryan M Niemiec, Danny Wedding, 2013-01-01 For educators practitioners researchers and everyone striving for personal growth and a fulfilling life This completely revised edition of a classic in the field provides a unique way to learn about positive psychology and what is right and best about human beings Positive Psychology at the Movies now reviews nearly 1 500 movies includes dozens of evocative film images and is replete with practical aids to learning Positive psychology is one of the most important modern developments in psychology Films brilliantly illustrate character strengths and other positive psychology concepts and inspire new ways of thinking about human potential Positive Psychology at the Movies uses movies to introduce the latest research practices and concepts in this field of psychology This book systematically discusses each of the 24 character strengths balancing film discussion related psychological research and practical applications Practical resources include a syllabus for a positive psychology course using movies films suitable for children adolescents and families and questions likely to inspire classroom and therapy discussions Positive Psychology at the Movies was written for educators students practitioners and researchers but anyone who loves movies and wants to change his or her life will find it inspiring and relevant Watching the movies recommended in this book will help the reader practice the skill of strengths spotting in themselves and others and support personal growth and self improvement Read this book to learn more about positive psychology and watch these films to become a better person Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief. A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief, but Wendy I. Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective, exploring what Jewish tradition, text, and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films. The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication. Zierler turns that process around, beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts. Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought. Films covered include The Truman Show, Truth, Memento, Crimes and Misdemeanors, Sin, Magnolia, Confession and Redemption, The Descendants, Birthright, Forrest Gump, Cleverness and Simplicity, and The Hunger Games, creation of humanity in God's image among others.

Existentialist Cinema W. Pamerleau, 2009-03-31 An exploration of the relationship between cinema and existentialism in terms of their mutual ability to describe the human condition, this book combines analyses of topics in the philosophy of film with an exploration of specific existentialist themes expressed in the films of Fellini, Bergman, and Woody Allen among others.

Deep Focus (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston, Craig Detweiler, Kutter Callaway, 2019-03-19 Three media experts guide the Christian moviegoer into a theological conversation with movies in this up-to-date, readable introduction to Christian theology and film. Building on the success of Robert Johnston's Reel Spirituality, the leading textbook in the field for the past 17 years, Deep Focus helps film lovers not only watch movies critically and theologically but also see beneath the surface of their moving images. The book discusses a wide variety of classic and contemporary films and is illustrated with film stills from favorite movies.

God in the Movies Catherine M. Barsotti, Robert K. Johnston, 2017-07-18 This informative guide helps readers combine their love of movies with their desire to grow closer to God. Foremost experts on faith and film, all connected with the Reel Spirituality Institute at Fuller Seminary, explore forty leading movies from the last four decades to encourage movie lovers and small groups to reflect critically and theologically on their film choices. God in the Movies introduces and analyzes the spiritual content of top films from the 1980s through the 2010s, opening viewers up to a conversation about life, faith, and God. Following a format similar to Barsotti and Johnston's successful Finding God in the Movies, this completely new book covers different films spanning four decades. This engaging resource contains production notes and film synopses, relevant Scripture texts, theological reflection, discussion questions, film stills, recommended film clips, and more, serving as a treasure chest for hours of film viewing, discussion, and ministry. Clips from the movies referenced in each chapter are available online.

Movies and Methods Bill Nichols, 1985-09-06 The original Movies and Methods volume, 1976, captured the dynamic evolution of film theory and criticism into an important new discipline incorporating methods from structuralism semiotics and feminist thought Now there is again ferment in the field Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties The writings collected in this volume exhibit not only a strong sense of personal engagement but also a persistent awareness of the social importance of the cinema in our culture Movies and Methods Volume II will prove as invaluable to the serious student of cinema as its predecessor it will be an essential reference work for years to come

Reel Spirituality Robert K. Johnston, 2006-12 A comprehensive study of theology and film that explores how the Christian faith is portrayed in film throughout history Doing Philosophy at the Movies Richard A. Gilmore, 2012-02-01 Doing Philosophy at the Movies finds the roots of profound philosophical ideas in the relatively ordinary context of popular mostly Hollywood movies Richard A Gilmore suggests that narratives of popular films like Hitchcock's Vertigo John Ford's The Searchers Woody Allen's Crimes and Misdemeanors the Coen Brothers Fargo and Danny Boyle's Trainspotting mirror certain epiphanies in the works of great philosophers Via Plato Aristotle Kant Nietzsche Wittgenstein and Žižek Gilmore addresses such themes as the nature of philosophy the possibility of redemption through love catharsis the sublime and the human problem of death Gilmore argues that seeing these movies through the lens of certain philosophical ideas can show how deeply relevant both philosophy and the movies can be The Bloomsbury Companion to Religion and Film
