Finding The Church The Dynamic Truth Of Anglicanism:

Finding the Church Daniel W. Hardy, 2001 Amongst the churches Anglicanism is distinctive by virtue of its attempt to participate in the life and purposes of God The essays in this book begin from the struggles which have emerged among the Anglican community in recent years and show the deeper issues at stake The Church in a World of Religions Tom Greggs, 2021-12-16 In this collection of essays Tom Greggs explores the nature of the church in a world of many religions Greggs writings on the Church and on other religions emphasize the importance of attentiveness to Christ and the Holy Spirit and both are simultaneously generous and particularist The first part of the book addresses the Church as it is brought into being by the Spirit in glorifying God celebrates the sacraments respects the authority of the creeds is generously Catholic and critiques its own religion The second part looks at the church in a pluralist context as it engages in inter faith dialogue expresses both particularism and universalism speaks of Christ with many names and reads scripture and understands the many covenants found there Greggs offers a programmatic conclusion setting an agenda for theologies of the church and of other religions and their simultaneous relationality The Development of Anglican Moral Theology, 1680-1950 Peter H. Sedgwick, 2024-01-15 The Development of Anglican Moral Theology is the successor volume to The Origins of Anglican Moral Theology It describes how Anglican theologians interacted closely with the moral philosophers of their day while providing a pastoral resource in the fast changing period between 1680 1950 The book shows how vibrant and intellectually rigorous the tradition was and includes detailed studies of the sermons of Butler Wesley and Newman the writings of William Law and Coleridge and the later work of Maurice Gore Scott Holland Moberly William Temple and Kirk This is the first account of this lively tradition of moral theology Anglicanism Duncan Dormor, Jack McDonald, Jeremy Caddick, 2006-09-01 A group of the brightest young Anglican theologians in Cambridge propose a coherent future for Anglicanism in the modern world at the start of a new incumbency at Lambeth The Oxford History of Anglicanism Anthony Milton, Jeremy Gregory, Rowan Strong, Jeremy Morris, William L. Thinking About God's Love Lorraine Cavanagh,2015-12-01

There are many people who are put off Christianity by the way the doctrines of atonement and redemption are communicated People find it hard to believe in a loving God who appears at the same time to be so angry and vindictive Many also feel that Christian teachings publicly or privately do not connect with them in any meaningful way This is either because they are put off by the narrow theological framework in which Christianity is presented or because what is said about atonement and redemption seems theoretical and remote from their experience of life This book seeks to address some of the difficult questions that these people are asking It is written for those who may be wanting to return to their faith who would like to explore it in greater depth or in a more open theological landscape The intention is that readers will find in this book a new understanding of what it really means to live as people who have been forgiven and brought home into a more honest and deeper relationship with God through the atoning and redemptive work of Jesus Christ

The Oxford History of

Theologians on Scripture Angus Paddison, 2016-11-03 The movement that is known as theological interpretation of Scripture reminds us that the reading and exegesis of Scripture is an indispensable part of the theologian's work not to be reserved to biblical scholars alone This insight that the reading of Scripture is a theological responsibility is always at risk of being eclipsed by the modern disciplinary divisions between biblical studies historical theology and systematic theology Intended as a contribution to the theological re engagement with Scripture this book invites a range of high profile systematic and constructive theologians to reflect on the role that the reading and interpretation of Scripture plays in their theological work both professionally and more personally Spanning a cross section of theological perspectives contributors reflect on the role of tradition in their reading of Scripture the company they view as indispensable in their engagement with the text the place of historical critical study and biblical studies and the significance of their context The book will be valued by all those who care for the place of Scripture in theology and the life of the church as well as those who want an insight into the state of contemporary theology

God and Money Nimi Wariboko,2008-01-01 Making a case for a denationalized global currency as an alternative to the dollar euro and yen as the world vehicular and reserve currencies God and Money explores the significance and theological ethical implications of money as a social relation in the light of the dynamic relations of the triune God Wariboko deftly analyzes the dynamics at work in the global monetary system and argues that the monarchical currency structure of the dollar euro and yen may be moving toward a trinitarian structure of a democratic world currency

Personhood and Christianity Oliver Forshaw,2010-12-31 Making clear the Christian position that God s self revelation is through human nature the author gives an account of the way a person is formed as an individual in community from the moment of conception onward The research and teaching of Dr Frank Lake are explained drawing out the distinction between Lake s kind of psychodynamic therapy and psychoanalytical practices whether Freudian or Jungian The book is aimed at showing that Christian living and spirituality are properly focused on the non religious activity of God in the world and that the Church s mission requires the formation of worshipping congregations that are increasingly free of the defensive behaviours commonly encouraged by religion In Personhood and Christianity Forshaw makes a three fold approach Arguing that many of the practices and attitudes of the divided churches still make it difficult for people to understand Christianity Taking up proposals of leading theologians and therapists he discusses the kind of holiness in the midst of ordinary life that can lead to practical reform in parishes and contribute towards radical change in community life more widely The discussion focuses on emotional healing as a primary element in the Church s work and on the New Testament theology of the corporate Christ as key to the recovery of faith in the 21st century Stress is laid on the world directed purpose of the Eucharist through the ascended Jesus who is present everywhere Personhood and Christianity will be of great interest to all involved in Christian leadership and in the caring services of Church and society generally to those training for ministry and to everyone engaged in pastoral counselling and therapy

Third Article Theology Myk Habets,2016-09-01 Third Article Theology TAT is the name given to a new movement in constructive theology utilizing a distinctly pneumatological approach to dogmatics Trinitarian in its foundation pneumatological in its impetus and comprehensive in its scope TAT specifies both a method and a theology Thinking through the theological loci of the tradition in relation to the Holy Spirit opens up new vistas and a deeper vision of the task of theology revealing ways of thinking hitherto eclipsed by the tradition Drawing upon the trinitarianism of the Great Tradition theologians from across the theological spectrum bring their voices to bear upon central and defining theological issues of today in order to present a new form of systematic theology a pneumatological dogmatics capable of representing the faith in a contemporary mode For students scholars and clergy the volume unfolds the classic articles of systematic theology in this new register Each doctrinal article is written by a leading theologian in the field with essays from Amos Yong Eugene Rogers Veli Matti Karkkainen Joel Green Marc Cortez Frank Macchia Myk Habets and others

Sanctified by Grace Kent Eilers, Kyle C. Strobel, 2014-06-19 Books on the Christian life abound Some focus on spirituality others on practices and others still on doctrines such as justification or forgiveness Few offer an account of the Christian life that portrays redeemed Christian existence within the multifaceted and beautiful whole of the Christian confession This book attempts to fill that gap It provides a constructive specifically theological interpretation of the Christian life according to the nature of God's grace This means coordinating the Triune God his reconciling justifying redemptive restorative and otherwise transformative action with those practices of the Christian life emerging from it The doctrine of the Christian life developed here unifies doctrine and life confession and practice within the divine economy of grace Drawing together some of the most important theologians in the church today Sanctified by Grace achieves what no other theological text offers a shared work of dogmatic theology oriented to redeemed Christian existence

Theology, Aesthetics, and Culture Robert MacSwain, Taylor Worley, 2012-09-20 David Brown is a widely respected British theologian who initially made his mark in analytic discussions of Christian doctrine such as the Trinity However with the publication of Tradition and Imagination Revelation and Change 1999 his career entered a distinctly new phase focused on theology imagination and the arts Four related volumes followed dealing with biblical interpretation Christian discipleship art and icons place and space the body music metaphor drama liturgy the sacraments religious experience and popular culture According to Brown the fundamental thesis underlying all five volumes is that both natural and revealed theology are in crisis and the only way out is to give proper attention to the cultural embeddedness of both Theology Aesthetics and Culture is the first attempt to assess the significance of this remarkable series and its contributors include some of the most prominent philosophers theologians historians biblical scholars literary scholars and cultural critics writing today Aside from its exceptional interdisciplinary range and ecumenical line up a distinctive feature is sustained consideration of Brown's analysis of popular culture Given the stature of the contributors this volume is not merely of interest as a commentary on Brown's work but also makes an important original contribution to our understandings of theology aesthetics and culture as they relate to the life of the Church academy and human society

Types of Ecclesiology David Emerton, 2024-11-12 Types of Ecclesiology introduces the study of the doctrine of the church It illuminates the breadth of contemporary ecclesiological thought by articulating five approaches to ecclesiology Avoiding denominational alignments David Emerton charitably elucidates the logic and concerns driving each type He argues that ecclesiology must account theologically for the unique nature of the church before considering its activities We must ask what the church is before asking what the church does Professors will find a valuable orienting text students will grasp the stakes of contemporary debates and scholars surveying ecumenical ecclesiology will discover an illuminating structural framework Doing the work of the church requires discerning its essence and this timely volume insightfully examines what is at the heart of the body of Christ Thinking Again About Marriage John Bradbury, Susannah Cornwall, 2016-02-28 What is involved in the practice of thinking theologically about marriage Key writers and thinkers offer an informed considered and constructive guide to a number of central questions including Mike Highton on marriage gender and Christian doctrine Charlotte Metheun on what we can learn from the history of marriage Ben Fulford on thinking about marriage with scripture Julie Gittoes on the liturgical theology of marriage John Bradbury on marriage as vocation Brett Gray on reproduction and the body's grace Susannah Cornwall on being faithful to our sexuate bodies Rachel Muers on developing a contemporary theology of marriage and much more Reflecting a broad theological and ecclesiological spectrum within the Christian tradition Thinking Again About Marriage offers a vital resource for critical thinking and reflective practice Do Small Groups Work? Anna Creedon, 2021-05-31 Engaging with the Bible in a small group context has the potential to be transformative but the picture is not without some complications Key factors in determining whether a small group can be transformed through scripture include the use or abuse of experts the opportunity for challenge in the group and how study materials are used Do Small Groups Work not only presents extensive research into these questions with the potential to transform practice but also offers a unique window into how practical theological research can productively encounter scripture
