Finding The Still Point:

Finding the Still Point Tom Harpur, 2002 Harpur focuses on a spiritual approach to dealing with stress Using sacred texts from many religions he illustrates how many of the modern methods used like breathing and meditation originated in religious ritual Over time these techniques were divorced from their spiritual roots and now lack a potency which they were meant to have and impart 2002 Finding the Still Point Gerald O'Mahony, 1993 Finding the Still Point writes Gerald O Mahony aims to help the reader modify or alter behaviour patterns Back cover Finding the Still Point John Daido Loori, 2007 Provides information on the practice of Zen meditation covering such topics as body positions hara focus breathing relaxation exercise and walking meditation The Third Way Louis M. Houston, 2013 In this day and age people are challenged by an information rich environment that is filled with erratic and inconsistent concepts Added to the pre existing struggle to adhere to societal and physical laws we must struggle to control our own physical emotional and intellectual systems By projecting the basic structure of physics into a psychological framework we model disorganized behavior as a product of entropy or disorder As heat energy is highly entropic we propose that the exclusion of heat energy from our intellectual system reduces the intrinsic entropy in our thinking and promotes mental harmony We refer to this method as the third way Along with the exclusion of heat it includes a balance between positive and negative mental energy that is fundamentally related to meaning and abstraction This produces a still point and from the equilibrium of this still point emerges a positive overtone that we refer to as meta positivity The third way is so named in reference to the first way and the the second way Essentially the first way produces control of the physical system The second way produces control of the emotional system and the third way produces control of the intellectual system Dandy and the Herald Richard Pine, 1988-06-18 Enlightened Power: How Women are Transforming the Practice of Leadership Lin Coughlin, Ellen Wingard, Keith Hollihan, 2011-01-11 How are women transforming the practice of leadership in the 21st century Enlightened Power is a first of a kind book that answers this question and forever changes the traditional notions involving women in leadership The book features the accumulated wisdom of 40 influential men and women who represent the most compelling voices in the field including Dynamic business leaders such as Eileen Fisher founder Eileen Fisher Inc Barbara Corcoran founder and chairman The Corcoran Group and Pat Mitchell president and CEO PBS Trailblazing women from other arenas such as politics Ambassador Swanee Hunt the military Rear Admiral Deborah A Loewer USN and sports U S Olympian Marilyn King Renowned thought leaders such as Riane Eisler Rayona Sharpnack Sally Helgesen Peggy Klaus Bruce Patton Nancy J Adler and Gail Evans Leading edge academics activists executives entrepreneurs and practitioners The Mind Illuminated Culadasa, Matthew Immergut, PhD, 2017-01-03 The Mind Illuminated is a comprehensive accessible and above all effective book on meditation providing a nuts and bolts stage based system that helps all levels of meditators establish and deepen their practice Providing step by step guidance for every stage of the meditation path this uniquely comprehensive

The Sunrise of the Soul Gerard Thomas Straub, 2020-07-21 The Sunrise of the Soul is the fruit of the last 24 years of an unexpected new life and a journey of transformation that took Gerry Straub from the glamour of Hollywood to the horror of the worst slums on earth Straub's journey began in an empty church in Rome during a moment of grace in which the hard shell of his ardent atheism was penetrated by a spark of light allowing him to see that God was real and loved him just as he was Eventually Straub felt God telling him to stop filming the poor and to go live among the poor He now lives in a crowded slum in Haiti where he operates a home of hope and healing for 69 abandoned kids 24 of whom are still in diapers Straub says his journey is far from over and will never be finished As Karl Rahner reminded us In the torment of the insufficiency of everything attainable we ultimately learn that here in this life all symphonies must remain unfinished Living in a home with 69 kids in Haiti means that the stillness and silence needed for contemplation are virtually nonexistent After more than four years of intense work in Haiti Gerry began to commit himself to the rejuvenating power of authentic solitude in order to turn his attention to his own inner spiritual poverty In the silent predawn darkness of each Haitian morning he waits reflects and prays This book emerged slowly from those many lonely hours of silence
