The Mayor of Shantytown Richard Gazarik, 2019-03-06 Father James R Cox became the voice of Pittsburgh s poor and jobless during the worst years of the Great Depression Long lines of needy people were showing up daily at St Patrick s Church in the city s historic Strip District but Cox turned no one away He served more than two million meals to the hungry and was the mayor of a shantytown of homeless men In 1932 Cox led one of the first mass marches on Washington D C confronting President Herbert Hoover in a face to face White House meeting He later ran for president himself on the Jobless Party ticket a quixotic campaign that ended in the deserts of New Mexico Father Cox s reputation as a humanitarian was ruined after he barely escaped a mail fraud conviction for running a rigged fundraising contest
California Advance Sheet February 2012 Fastcase, What It Means to Be Daddy Jennifer Hamer, 2001-04-18 Absent fathers the breakdown of the nuclear family and single mother households are often blamed for the poor quality of life experienced by many African American children Jennifer F Hamer challenges both the imposition of an inappropriate value system and the resulting ineffectual social policies Most of what we know about fathers who do not live with their children is based on interviews with the mothers this book is based on interviews with the fathers themselves How do these fathers perceive their roles and responsibilities This myth shattering book challenges stereotypes of negotiating parenthood within the context of poverty live away status and black American manhood Hamer has collected the voices of eighty eight men who participated in this study by first examining the macro or cultural elements that encompass men s daily lives As part 1 explores these larger forces that define the social world of fathers part 2 looks at what significant others expect of men as fathers and how they behave under these circumstances Part 3 analyzes the particular parenting roles and functions of fathers using narratives of individual men to tell their own stories In this book contemporary black live away fathers talk about their goals walk us through their workplaces allow us to meet their families and children and enable us to view the world of parenthood through their eyes
