Torture Porn in the Wake of 9/11 Aaron Kerner,2015-04-24 Saw Hostel The Devil s Rejects this wave of horror movies has been classed under the disparaging label torture porn Since David Edelstein coined the term for a New York magazine article a few years after 9 11 many critics have speculated that these movies simply reflect iconic images anxieties and sadistic fantasies that have emerged from the War on Terror In this timely new study Aaron Kerner challenges that interpretation arguing that torture porn must be understood in a much broader context as part of a phenomenon that spans multiple media genres and is rooted in a long tradition of American violence Torture Porn in the Wake of 9 11 tackles a series of tough philosophical historical and aesthetic questions What does it mean to call a film sadistic and how has this term been used to shut down critical debate In what sense does torture porn respond to current events and in what ways does it draw from much older tropes How has torture porn been influenced by earlier horror film cycles from slasher movies to J horror And in what ways has the torture porn aesthetic gone mainstream popping up in everything from the television thriller Dexter to the reality show Hell's Kitchen. Reflecting a deep knowledge and appreciation for the genre Torture Porn in the Wake of 9/11 is sure to resonate with horror fans. Yet Kerner's arguments should also strike a chord in anyone with an interest in the history of American violence and its current and future ramifications for the War on Terror.

Leandro Thomas Gonzales, 2014-02-07 Living in one of the most beautiful places on Earth, the Anasazi Indians enjoyed a good and bountiful life. Yet for some reason, they abandoned their village, and all that remains are the ruins of Tyuoni at the Bandelier National Monument in New Mexico. In this work of fiction, Jopin, an eighty-year-old elder desperate for an answer, embarks on a prayer quest that takes him on a chain of events which will unveil the fate of Tyuoni. Deer tracker, his pre-teen grandson, and Knee-nose, a young spotted deer, help Jopin deal with Chief Salamander's questionable actions and motives as the tribe journeys on a treacherous and intriguing odyssey. In his story, the author strives to demonstrate how a significant religious event could have influenced the people to abandon their majestic village, join the Great Migration, and follow the spinning sun to their new homeland, even though popular belief purports that the Anasazi vanished because of war, severe drought, or famine. The wonder of living in such an extraordinary time and place will provoke interest in the age-old mystery of what really happened.

Primary Nature Study ..., Roland Case Ross, 1924      Adults in Play with Children, Niklas Pramling, Ann Farrell, Cecilia Wallerstedt, Malin Nilsen, 2025-09-30 This is an Open Access book. This work addresses the presence and participation of adults in play with children. Rather than discussing this issue on ideological ground, the international contributions build on empirical data and report research conducted in many different contexts and settings around the world. Responding to the many forms it takes, play is defined from different theoretical points of view. Amongst the topics addressed in the chapters are the ethics of participation, play with refugee children, democracy and play, multilingualism in play, development of play and imagination, knowledge building on children's lives, childhoods, and early childhood education and care. It is important to develop empirically and theoretically what processes come into play when children and adults play together, whether in play initiated and framed by adults or play initiated by children, and to which adults try to gain entry Primarily intended for researchers interested in play and intergenerational communication the book is also valuable for professionals working with children in different kinds of early childhood settings      What Tail? Roberta R. Barnes,2014-07-17 Misty asked everyone how pine trees could make such yummy smells None of the answers ever made any sense One day she let her nose lead her to the answer in the Annan Woods where she began discovering secrets Ve lives in the Annan Woods He walks and talks like other animals He likes to run through the meadow on sunny mornings like other animals but he is not at all like other animals By accident he wakes up one day with a very big problem The only way he can explain his problem to the wise old Mr Owl who is the wisest of all wise owls is to show the wise old Mr Owl his secret The wise old Mr Owl tells Ve about many things including other animals in the Annan Woods who are different from those in their family but special in their own way As you read you learn why Mother Nature gave striped skunks the terrible smelling oil that they spray Wolvie s plan shows you how being different can be a very good thing You will find yourself shaking your head and clapping as you read about the adventures in the Annan Woods You can think about Ve s tail any way you like and no one can say you are wrong      Therapeutic Storytelling Susan,2014-05-02 Working with imaginative journeys and the mystery and magic of metaphor the author has developed the art of therapeutic storytelling for children s challenging behaviour      Buffoonery in Irish Drama Kathleen Heininge,2009 Generations of Irish playwrights have tried to assert the reputation of the stage Irish figure as other than comic but each effort was in its turn assailed as buffoonery Using post colonial and performative theory Buffoonery in Irish Drama demonstrates the ways the Irish struggled to create a sense of identity in a colonial structure and it explores the distortion and appropriation of that new identity that elicit further calls to eradicate negative stereotypes Demonstrating the pervasiveness of the reclamation efforts Buffoonery in Irish Drama covers a wide range of well known and obscure plays to show the trajectory of twentieth century drama that brings us into a globalized twenty first century Ireland      Grandma's Secret Garden Antoinette Morgan,2008-08
