Finding Our Way A Writing Teachers Sourcebook:

Power and Identity in the Creative Writing Classroom Anna Leahy, 2005-11-11 Power and Identity In the Creative Writing Classroom remaps theories and practices for teaching creative writing at university and college level This collection critiques well established approaches for teaching creative writing in all genres and builds a comprehensive and adaptable pedagogy based on issues of authority power and identity A long needed reflection this book shapes creative writing pedagogy for the 21st century

First Time Up Brock Dethier, 2008-09-30 First time up an insider s friendly question from 1960s counter culture perfectly captures the spirit of this book A short supportive practical guide for the first time college composition instructor the book is upbeat wise but friendly casual but knowledgeable like the voice that may have introduced you to certain other firsts With an experiential focus rather than a theoretical one First Time Up will be a strong addition to the newcomer s professional library and a great candidate for the TA practicum reading list Dethier author of The Composition Instructor s Survival Guide and From Dylan to Donne directly addresses the common headaches nightmares and epiphanies of composition teaching especially the ones that face the new teacher And since legions of new college composition teachers are either graduate instructors TAs or adjuncts without a formal background in composition studies he assumes these folks as his primary audience Dethier s voice is casual but it conveys concern humor experience and reassurance to the first timer He addresses all major areas that graduate instructors or new adjuncts in a writing program are sure to face from career anxiety to thoughts on grading and keeping good classroom records Dethier s own eclecticism is well represented here but he reviews with considerable deftness the value of contemporary scholarship to first time writing instructors many of whom will be impatient with high theory Throughout the work he affirms a humane confident approach to teaching along with a true affection for college students and for teachers just learning to deal with them

On Course with Understanding Plagiarism Guide and Planner Skip Downing, Wadsworth Publishing Staff, 2008-06-15

Feeling Our Way Wendy Bishop, Deborah Coxwell Teague, 2004-03 This provocative and sometimes humorous collection of essays written by college writing teachers for college writing teachers explores seldom discussed issues to help TAs develop confidence in overcoming classroom challenges Teachers both seasoned and new to the profession create a dialogue by sharing their rich and varied experiences and responses to classroom and department situations Each Part presents 4 to 7 short essays by Adjuncts and TAs focusing on their experiences and lessons learned At the end of each Part more experienced teachers respond to the ideas generated in the preceding essays and add their own advice concerns and solutions Part 1 Approaching the Classroom centers on entering a new writing program and succeeding as a foreign born writing teacher Part 2 Inside Out focuses on gaining confidence as a teacher and managing sexual politics and power struggles in the classroom Part 3 Beyond the Classroom helps readers question the teaching profession and offers advice on surviving department politics An Appendix provides a useful listing of composition texts that offer further helpful advice

Keys for Writers Fourth Edition, Custom Publication Ann Raimes, Raimes, 2004-06 A Guide to Professional Development for Graduate Students in English Cindy Moore, Hildy Miller, 2006 In this guide the first of its kind Cindy Moore and Hildy Miller provide detailed information about how to develop credentials for both academic and nonacademic careers in teaching scholarship administration service and editing Written in response to nationwide calls for more comprehensive and deliberate mentoring of future English faculty and for greater support of students who wish to pursue English oriented jobs outside of the academy this guide the first of its kind is at once practical and eye opening Providing detailed information about how to develop credentials for both academic and nonacademic careers in teaching scholarship administration service and editing the guide offers an indepth look at the field s many possibilities On another level the book addresses the rigors and stresses of graduate school by candidly discussing faculty expectations student responsibilities and a variety of survival strategies Whether you are already enrolled in a graduate program or have just begun to consider program options this resource can help you identify long term career goals as well as the skills and abilities needed to meet those goals

Writing, Teaching, Learning Richard Layton Graves, 1999 More than a sourcebook Writing Teaching Learning is a celebration of the writing teaching process reflecting the best writing about the teaching of writing published within the last ten years The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook Gary Tate, 1994 Revised and updated this guide to the teaching of composition includes a new section of sources listing journals books and other bibliographic resources A Sourcebook for Basic Writing Teachers Theresa Enos, 1987 Third Coast , 2004 The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook , 1981 Tampa Review , 2008 Sde Sourcebook Deborah Sumner, 1991-10 Spe Sourcebook Society for Developmental Education, 1993-10 The Allyn & Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers James C. McDonald, 1996 Designed for college writing teachers who are faced with teaching composition for the first time or re examining their teaching goals and methods The Allyn Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers is a collection of writings on important theories and pedagogies in composition studies The selections discuss a range of theories and approaches to teaching writing and present readers with a number of options for instruction rather than a single way to teach Written by some of today s foremost scholars and teachers the articles range from discussing how to integrate critical thinking and reading into writing instruction to methods for responding to and evaluating student writing to dealing with grammar and editing For those who teach writing Resources in Education , 2001 Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi, Michael G. Moran, 1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic

Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs

McDougal, Littell English: Teacher's ed Allan A. Glatthorn, 1988 Teaching Multiwriting Robert L. Davis, Mark F Shadle, 2007-04-23 This innovative volume proposes a reinvention of composition and rhetoric training with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composing that spans genres media disciplines and cultures Journal of Reading , 1983

The Top Books of the Year Finding Our Way A Writing Teachers Sourcebook The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Finding Our Way A Writing Teachers Sourcebook : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
