Stern. 1957 The Fine Hammered Steel of Herman Melville The Theme and Craft of Herman Melville Milton Ralph Stern, 1955 The Fine Hammered Steel of Milton R. Stern, 1959 Collected Prose Charles Olson, 1997-12-19 The prose writings of Charles Herman Melville Studies Milton R. Stern, 1965 Olson 1910 1970 have had a far reaching and continuing impact on post World War II American poetics Olson's theories which made explicit the principles of his own poetics and those of the Black Mountain poets were instrumental in defining the sense of the postmodern in poetry and form the basis of most postwar free verse The Collected Prose brings together in one volume the works published for the most part between 1946 and 1969 many of which are now out of print A valuable companion to editions of Olson's poetry the book backgrounds the poetics preoccupations and fascinations that underpin his great poems Included are Call Me Ishmael a classic of American literary criticism the influential essays Projective Verse and Human Universe and essays book reviews and Olson's notes on his studies In these pieces one can trace the development of his new science of man called muthologos a radical mix of myth and phenomenology that Olson offered in opposition to the mechanistic discourse and rationalizing policy he associated with America's recent wars in Europe and Asia Editors Donald Allen and Benjamin Friedlander offer helpful annotations throughout and poet Robert Creeley who enjoyed a long and mutually influential relationship with Olson provides the book s introduction Herman Melville Harold Bloom, 2008 Presents a collection of criticism devoted to the work of American author Herman Melville Hawthorne and Melville Jana L. Argersinger, Leland S. Person, 2008 Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne met in 1850 and enjoyed for sixteen months an intense but brief friendship Taking advantage of new interpretive tools such as gueer theory globalist studies political and social ideology marketplace analysis psychoanalytical and philosophical applications to literature masculinist theory and critical studies of race the twelve essays in this book focus on a number of provocative personal professional and literary ambiguities existing between the two writers Jana L Argersinger and Leland S Person introduce the volume with a lively summary of the known biographical facts of the two writers relationship and an overview of the relevant scholarship to date Some of the essays that follow broach the possibility of sexual dimensions to the relationship a question that looms like a grand hooded phantom over the field of Melville Hawthorne studies Questions of influence Hawthorne s on Moby Dick and Pierre and Melville's on The Blithedale Romance to mention only the most obvious instances are also discussed Other topics covered include professional competitiveness Melville's search for a father figure masculine ambivalence in the marketplace and political literary aspects of nationalism transcendentalism race and other defining issues of Hawthorne and Melville s times Roughly half of the essays focus on biographical issues the others take literary perspectives. The essays are informed by a variety of critical approaches as well as by new historical insights and new understandings of the possibilities that existed for male friendships in nineteenth century American culture Herman Melville, Writing Beyond Prophecy Martin

Kevorkian, 2013-01-02 Drawing attention to a cluster of later rarely studied works by three authors Identifying a line of writing from Ralph Waldo Emerson's Conduct of Life to Nathaniel Hawthorne's posthumously published Elixir of Life manuscripts to Herman Melville's Clarel A Poem and Pilgrimage in the Holy Land Martin Kevorkian demonstrates how these authors wrestled with their sense of vocational calling Engendering Romance E. Miller Budick, 1994-01-01 Describes how four 20th century women writers have inherited and adapted a tradition of American romance Analyzing fiction by Faulkner and others this work goes on to explain how women have updated the genre to include alternatives to matriarchal as well as patriarchal constructions White Lies John Samson, 2020-06-30 The narrative of facts probably best exemplified in the literature of exploration was an immensely popular genre in mid nineteenth century America In White Lies John Samson offers full contextual readings of Melville's five major narratives of facts Typee Omoo Redburn White Jacket and Israel Potter Samson demonstrates that in these novels Melville critically rewrote the sources on which he drew in effect making the genre itself a subject of his writing In his introduction Samson discusses Melville s knowledge of the genre and its ideology He then reads each novel in terms of Melville's confrontation with its sources In each Samson says an unreliable narrator represents particular ideological tendencies in Melville s sources Melville heightens and extends these tendencies exposes the contradictions and biases within them and ends by showing the narrator evading or denying experiences that conflict with his ideology According to Samson Melville sees the concept of historical progress as the basis of these biases and evasions In these five novels Melville reveals the conflict between democratic humanitarian and individualistic principles on the one hand and the forces of racial superiority religious bigotry economic determinism and political conservatism on the other Taken together Samson asserts these novels deconstruct the intellectual foundations of the form of historical narration endorsed by white patriarchal culture Scholars and students of nineteenth century American literature specialists in the novel and other readers of Melville will welcome Samson's provocative reinterpretation of these key works in American culture The Victorian Fol Sage Camille R. La Bossière, 1989 In considering the responses of Carlyle Emerson Melville and Conrad to Montaigne and to one another this work focuses on the fundamental contradiction between wisdom and art and demonstrates that this contradiction impels the writing of the Essais and generates the Victorian sage s antic (Un)writing Empire, 2020-10-12 The contributors to the present volume in espousing and extending the speculations programme of such writers as Edward Said Benedict Anderson Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak lay bare the genealogy of writing empire thereby in a sense un writing it One focus is the Caribbean the retrograde agenda of francophone cr olit the re writing of empire in the postmodern disengagement of Edouard Glissant resistance to post colonial allegiances and the dissolving of binary categories in contemporary West Indian writing Essays on India Malaysia and Indonesia explore various aspects of cultural self understanding in Asia un writing high culture through hybrid shopping among Western styles the use of indigenous oral forms to counter Western hegemony romantic and anti-romantic attitudes towards empire and the land A

Lee, 2013-06-06 Maurice Lee s study illustrates how our own religiously complex era writers such as Poe Melville Douglass Thoreau Dickinson and others participated in a broad intellectual and cultural shift in which Americans increasingly learned to live with the threatening and wonderful possibilities of chance Selected Writings of Charles Olson Charles Olson, 1966 Charles Olson 1910 1970 described by William Carlos Williams as a major poet with a sweep of understanding of the world and who as Joel Oppenheimer once wrote brought two generations to life stood as a bridge between the first leaders of the modern movement such as Pound and Stein and some of the most
