

Washington, Dec 19. 1861
My dear Mr. Hall
My dear Sir,

You remember my showing ~~showing~~ you a copy of my letter upon which you thought would be sent back from Springfield to Boston directly. The movement has not been effected but will be effected by me - being that it was required by friends and enemies as a repetition - discouraging the former and encouraging the latter in opposition by the various denunciations & obloquies. I was there in the House last General office in presence of Gen. Johnson and Gen. McCallum, from whom I learn that your attention is always directed to the subject which of in the movement. I was the last to see my constant, but I may be say I shall be very glad for you to see it. You can for the people's representation having the means & means you must judge of.

Yours very truly,
A. Lincoln
