Fine Birds 1700 1900:

Fine Bird Sacheverell Sitwell, Handasyde Buchanan, James Fischer, 1953 Hawaiian National Bibliography, 1780-1900
David W. Forbes, 2003-02-28 The fourth and final volume of the Hawaiian National Bibliography 1780 1900 records the most volatile period in Hawaii's history American business interests and the desire for a constitutional monarchy were pitted against the desire of the monarchs King Kalikau and Queen Liliuokalani to strengthen the power of the throne The convulsions of the 1887 and 1889 revolutions were succeeded by the overthrow of the monarchy on January 17 1893 Documents revealing the struggle over annexation beginning in 1893 and the counterrevolution of 1895 are an important component of this volume Annexation in 1898 was followed by a two year period during which functions of government and laws were altered to conform to those of the United States After the organic act became effective in 1900 vestiges of monarchical Hawaii disappeared and the history of the Territory of Hawaii unfolded As with the previous volumes Volume 4 is a record of printed works touching on some aspect of the political religious cultural or social history of the Hawaiian Islands A valuable component of this series is the inclusion of newspaper and periodical accounts and single sheet publications such as broadsides circulars playbills and handbills Entries are extensively annotated and also provided for each are exact title date of publication size of volume collation of pages number and type of plates and maps references and location of copies Eighteenth-Century Naturalists of Hudson Bay Stuart Houston, Tim Ball, Mary Houston, 2003-10-23 The authors show that meteorologic data and weather information recorded at the HBC trading posts over two centuries provide the largest and longest consecutive series available anywhere in North America one that can help us understand the mechanisms and amount of climate change They demonstrate that Hudson Bay is the second largest site of new bird species named by Linnaeus and reproduce some of George Edwards' colour paintings of these new species Six informative appendices reveal how the invaluable HBC archives were transferred from London England to Winnipeg correct previous misinterpretations of the collaboration and relative contributions of Thomas Hutchins and Andrew Graham use two centuries of HBC fur returns to demonstrate the ten year hare and lynx cycles tell how the swan trade almost extirpated the Trumpeter Swan explain how the Canada Goose got its name before there was a Canada and offer an extensive list of eighteenth century Cree names for birds mammals and fish Informative tables list the eighteenth century surgeons at York Factory and give names and dates for the annual supply ships Drawn from Life Victoria Dickenson, 1998-01-01 An illustrated archeology of the imagination that reveals how artists and writers from the late 16th to the early 19th century most of whom had never seen North America portrayed the natural history and landscape of North America to European readers Ornithology in Laboratory and Field Olin Sewall Pettingill, 2013-10-02 Ornithology in Laboratory and Field is intended as an aid to ornithological study at the college or university level Students who lack the background knowledge usually acquired during a course in general zoology or biology should keep it handy for ready reference a standard elementary text on the subject This book contains extensive material for purely informational reading possibly enough to supplant the need of an additional textbook Its principal purpose still complies with the title of its predecessors for it is essentially a manual to guide and assist the student in direct observations All twenty sections except the last The Origin Evolution and Decrease of Birds suggest methods and provide instructions for studies and all conclude with an extensive list of references frequently annotated for further information The twenty sections of the book can be taken up in almost any order and some may be omitted without affecting the instructional value of the others A feature of this new edition is an introduction to birds and ornithology intended for reading at the beginning of a course The purpose is twofold to show the significance of birds for study and to give an overall preview of ornithology the subject with emphasis on its wide scope how it is studied and some of the continuing and exciting opportunities that it offers for investigation

Henry Dresser and Victorian ornithology Henry A. McGhie, 2017-11-20 This book explores the life of Henry Dresser 1838 1915 one of the most productive British ornithologists of the mid late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and is largely based on previously unpublished archival material Dresser travelled widely and spent time in Texas during the American Civil War He built enormous collections of skins and eggs of birds from Europe North America and Asia which formed the basis of over 100 publications including some of the finest bird books of the late nineteenth century Dresser was a leading figure in scientific society and in the early bird conservation movement his correspondence and diaries reveal the inner workings motivations personal relationships and rivalries that existed among the leading ornithologists

A Bibliographic History of the Book Joseph Rosenblum, 1995 skillfully compiled should be useful to anyone interested in placing his or her studies in the context of printed and bound literature

ENGLISH LITERATURE IN TRANSITION 1880 1920 Humans, Nature, and Birds Darryl Wheye, Donald Kennedy, 2008-01-01 This book invites readers to enter a two floor virtual gallery where 60 plus images of birds reflecting the accomplishments of human pictorial history are on display These are works in a genre the authors term Science Art that is art that says something about the natural world and how it works Darryl Wheye and Donald Kennedy show how these works of art can advance our understanding of the ways nature has been perceived over time its current vulnerability and our responsibility to preserve its wealth Each room in the gallery is dedicated to a single topic The rooms on the first floor show birds as icons birds as resources birds as teaching tools and more On the second floor the images and their captions clarify what Science Art is and how the intertwining of art and science can change the way we look at each The authors also provide a timeline linking scientific innovations with the production of images of birds and they offer a checklist of steps to promote the creation and accessibility of Science Art Readers who tour this unique and fascinating gallery will never look at art depicting nature in the same way again Published with assistance from the Alfred P Sloan Foundation s Public Understanding of Science and Technology Program

European Vision and the South Pacific Third Edition Bernard Smith, 2022-10-05 Bernard Smith 1916 2011 was arguably Australia s greatest art historian and one of the most important humanist thinkers internationally on ideas concerning cultural contact His European Vision and the South Pacific first published in 1960 showed how the ideas of the Enlightenment and the empirical structuring of scientific and geographical knowledge during the great eighteenth century voyages of discovery affected notions of identity both for Europeans and the Indigenous peoples with whom they came in contact Not only did Smith's investigation of art science and imperialism of this period explore the conditions of frontier contact it opened up the dialogue on de colonisation and allowed us to think beyond or after it He was undoubtedly a pioneer of post colonialism and the book remains a lighthouse in pacific studies The republication of European Vision and the South Pacific is an essential part of the discourse reframing the interconnections and crossing of cultural boundaries between Europe and antipodean societies This new edition of a significant Australian classic also coincides with the 250th anniversary of Cook's landing on the east coast of Australia and complements new scholarship on territorialisation colonialism and the politics of exchange between metropolitan centres and peripheries A new introduction by Sheridan Palmer situates the book in a contemporary context

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

The Reception of Blake in the Orient Steve Clark, Masashi Suzuki, 2006-04-01 This volume brings together research from international scholars focusing attention on the longevity and complexity of Blake's reception in Japan and elsewhere in the East It is designed as not only a celebration of his art and poetry in new and unexpected contexts but also to contest the intensely nationalistic and parochial Englishness of his work and in broader terms the inevitable passivity with which Romanticism and other Western intellectual movements have been received in the Orient

The Hypothetical Species Michael Charles Tobias, Jane Gray Morrison, 2019-03-28 This book is a provocative and invigorating real time exploration of the future of human evolution by two of the world's leading interdisciplinary ecologists Michael Charles Tobias and Jane Gray Morrison Steeped in a rich multitude of the sciences and humanities the book enshrines an elegant narrative that is highly empathetic personal scientifically wide ranging and original It focuses on the geo positioning of the human Self and its corresponding species The book's overarching viewpoints and poignant through story examine and powerfully challenge concepts associated historically with assertions of human superiority over all other life forms Ultimately The Hypothetical Species Variables of Human Evolution is a deeply considered treatise on the ecological and psychological state of humanity and her options both within and outside the rubrics of evolutionary research for survival

This important work is beautifully presented with nearly 200 diverse illustrations and is introduced with a foreword by famed paleobiologist Dr Melanie DeVore John James Audubon Gregory Nobles,2017-03-03 In John James Audubon The Nature of the American Woodsman Gregory Nobles shows that one of Audubon s greatest creations was himself Nobles explores the central irony of Audubon s true nature the man who took so much time and trouble to depict birds so carefully left us a bold but deceptive picture of himself Scotland Highlands & Islands Footprint Handbook Alan Murphy,2014-04-10 When the rain stops falling and the mist clears there is no more beautiful place on earth than Scotland s Highlands and Islands Footprint s Scotland Highlands Islands gives you everything you need to get the most out of Europe s last great wilderness the loveliest glens and lochs the spookiest places the most evocative castles and most glorious beaches Great coverage of all the jaw dropping scenery including national parks mountains castles glens and lochs Comprehensive listings from B Bs bothies and baronial castles to where to enjoy a wee dram of malt whiskey Loaded with information and suggestions on how to get off the beaten track from puffin spotting to horse riding It includes fantastic mapping and inspiring color section to help you plan your way around the vibrant cities stunning highlands and hundreds of islands Footprint s fully updated Scotland Highlands Islands is packed with all the information you need to get the best out of this breathtaking region
