The Armchair Diplomat on Europe Melissa Rossi, 2005-08-04 It happens all the time you're watching the Champions League pondering Robert Kilroy Silk's unnatural glow reading the latest newspaper debate about EU bendy banana laws and thinking what's really going on in Europe Does anyone actually know what they're talking about And where are Riga and Vilnius anyway You needn't worry any more With this armchair guide you'll discover the strange and fascinating world that calls itself Europe without ever having to leave your own home There are insights into culture how to join the Finns beating themselves with birch twigs in the sauna the lowdown on the people that matter porn stars turned politicians in Italy fascinating facts and explanations of historical rifts and you thought the relationship between Britain and France was bad You'll find out how to talk like Berlusconi unravel the workings of the EU and guide yourself from the Baltics to Belgium Portugal to Poland The Armchair Diplomat Europe offers the basics of euro education for very little pain Perfect for slackers with a passion for travel

The Image of a Country created by International Media Elena Tarasheva, 2014-06-26 When the East set off to join the West in a common Europe its economic and political oddities became increasingly visible in the rapprochement So what does the West make of the East How does ex communist Europe come across through the lens of the Western media This book presents research conducted on all material concerning Bulgaria on the BBC website over a period of five years starting with the early years of EU accession in 2007 up to the hysteria regarding a wave of Bulgarian immigrants to the UK in 2012 Three types of methodologies are applied namely content analysis critical discourse analysis and corpora techniques Several coding categories are employed for the content analysis including what type of stories are published about Bulgaria in comparison with countries of a similar size and standing which stories were not covered by the BBC and what areas are of specific interest in the coverage of former communist countries A new taxonomy is established for thematic threads and continuous coverage which sets off significant value laden aspects of news reporting Critical discourse analysis reveals that Bulgarians are construed via a different set of referential terms while English people living abroad are called ex patriots Bulgarians are immigrants In its plentiful criticism of Bulgaria Euro Speak is reproduced where nominalisations such as we cannot delay their integration reveal a mental frame of rejection not integration The BBC uses EU jargon between inverted commas the effects of Bulgaria's integration into the Schengen zone are grave instead of a factual taxonomic adjective naming the actual consequences Thus the language used reveals hidden attitudes Corpora techniques include establishing words whose frequency in the articles about Bulgaria is higher than in a balanced corpus of English

Such nouns in the five year corpus include CORRUPTION POOR and POOREST Maybe the BBC reporters believed they were covering events as they happened but the results evoke a grim picture prompting unfavourable attitudes to Bulgarians That is why the images spawned by news coverage need to be monitored and moderated for which this book offers an array of methodologies Dearborn Independent ,1926 Nordic Moral Climates Ulla Bondeson,2017-09-04 Morality was a dominant theme in the 1990s but concerns about morality seem omnipresent in the first years of the third millennium The year 2002 witnessed the greatest corporate scandals ever seen in the United States with immense impact financially and in human terms Sex scandals were pervasive among Catholic priests in the United States disrupting the lives of thousands of abused children In Scandinavia moral debates and scandals are of a smaller magnitude and more often related to questions about the handling of money by politicians This volume takes an overarching look at the impact of such moral questions in the Nordic countries Its approach is multi disciplinarian embracing philosophy history sociology and political science Based mainly upon a survey of representative samples in Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden this unique study combines interview questions on crime and justice with moral questions concerning equality confidence tolerance and also personal social religious political and national values Bondeson first discusses the Nordic countries from a historical perspective and in statistical terms She then presents interview data on the general sense of justice in Nordic countries in particular exploring how much social and legal equality the Scandinavians have achieved in their welfare states She touches upon criminal behavior and victimization and discusses crime prevention and punishment Bondeson also reviews the problems and methods of the study Finally she adds depth to the statistical analysis by using a number of indexes of morality A trend analysis illustrates the stability of these attitudes over time Nordic Moral Climates is an original empirical study of moral values in Scandinavia It is one of the few comprehensive studies on this subject conducted in any nation or group of nations The book will be of great interest to criminologists sociologists and social theorists Resources in Education ,1997

Almost a Foreign Country Manfred Wolf,2008 Is it time to negotiate with bin Laden Is lying about sex ever or perhaps often a good idea To what extent do religion and culture shape the ways in which we communicate What is the mysterious syndrome called CHOIS with which many long time pessimists suddenly find themselves diagnosed Delve into this intriguing collection to find out the answers to these questions and many more In Almost a Foreign Country a collection of columns articles and aphorisms Manfred Wolf brings his unique perspective to bear on a broad range of aspects characterizing our current reality and the way we live now From love and the relationships between men and women to time and aging from current political and social issues to the ever changing face of language Wolf tackles them all often combining humor with a sharp somber perception of the issues that concern us all His point of view is always unflinching original and unapologetic Manfred Wolf is a university professor a widely published writer and a world traveler who has spent time in several very different cultures Almost a Foreign Country provides its readers the unique opportunity to spend some time in his company and enjoy the many pleasures of his experience wit and always fascinating opinions The Internet Generation Henry Milner,2010-07-31 An investigation of political disengagement among young people in North America and Europe

Organizational Culture and Climate: New Perspectives and Challenges Thais Gonzalez Torres,Vera Gelashvili,Giovanni Herrera-Enriquez,Juan-Gabriel Martinez-Navalon,2024-02-08 Within the framework of organizational behavior and organizational psychology organizational climate and culture conceptualize how employees experience their work settings Thus organizational climate refers to the shared perceptions and meaning attributed to policies practices and procedures experienced by employees and the behaviors they observe that are rewarded supported and expected On the other hand organizational culture may be defined as the collection of values expectations and practices that guide and inform the actions of all team members Climate offers an approach to the tangibles on which managers can focus to generate the behaviors they require for effectiveness and culture offers the intangibles that likely accrue to produce the deeper psychology of people in a setting These two concepts complement each other and can be mutually useful in practice Public Sector Transformation Processes and Internet Public Procurement: Decision Support Systems Pomazalová, Natasa,2012-12-31 While many social economic and political changes have occurred recently in internet public procurement and its decision support systems there is still a lot of opportunity for improvement Public Sector Transformation Processes and Internet Public Procurement Decision Support Systems brings together research on different perspectives from academics and practitioners on the methods theories and practices involved in the growth and expansion of decision support systems as it relates to the public sector transformation process and internet public procurement PISA Learning Mathematics for Life A Perspective from PISA OECD,2010-03-04 Learning Mathematics for Life examines the link between the PISA test requirements and student performance It focuses specifically on the proportions of students who answer questions correctly across a range of difficulty The questions are classified by content competencies context and format Finland: the Country, Its People and Institutions,1926
