Finlandthe Northern Experiencenew Europe And The Next Millennium:

Finland Jaakko Tapaninen,1999 Voice and Environmental Communication Stephen Depoe,2014-07-10 Voice and Environmental Communication explores how people give voice to and listen to the voices of the environment This foundational book introduces the relationship between these two fundamental aspects of human existence and extends our knowledge of the role of voice in the study of environmental communication Wind Energy for the Next Millennium E. L. Petersen,1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company 语音——跨文化交际 语音,2008-03-08 Tasting Tourism: Travelling for Food and Drink Priscilla Boniface,2017-03-02 Along with basic practical reasons our practices concerning food and drink are driven by context and environment belief and convention aspiration and desire to display in short by culture Similarly culture guides how tourism is used and operates This book examines food and drink tourism as it is now and is likely to develop through a cultural lens It asks what is food and drink tourism and why have food and drink provisions and information points become tourist destinations in their own right rather than remaining among a number of tourism features and components While it offers a range of international examples the main focus is on food and drink tourism in the UK What with the current diversification of tourism in rural areas the increased popularity of this type of tourism in the UK the series of BSE vCJD and foot and mouth crises in British food production and the cultural and ethnic fusion in British towns and cities it makes a particularly rich place in which to explore this subject The author concludes that the future of food and drink tourism lies in diversity and distinctiveness In an era of globalisation there is a particular desire to enjoy varied rather than mono cultural ambiance and experience She also notes that there is an immediacy of gratification in food and drink consumption which has become a general requirement of contemporary society Forest Communities in the Third Millennium ,2001 The New Millennium: Challenges and Strategies for a Globalizing World Sai Felicia Krishna-Hensel,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An important look at the complexity of the challenges faced by the international system at the beginning of the new millennium The shape of the New World Order is being driven largely by forces unleashed through factors such as economic globalization and technological development The book emphasizes the importance of interdisciplinary analysis in order to understand the extent and diversity of the factors which condition the dynamics of this transformation Essential reading for students of human rights security finance and technology

Post-Cold War Identity Politics Marko Lehti,David J Smith,2004-11-23 During the past decade northern Europe has started to assume an identity of its own Categories of East and West have become blurred challenging as well the idea of what it means to be Nordic Post Cold War Identity Politics maps this process in Scandinavia Looking at projects designed to help regional development in the Nordic countires it assesses whether a new way of defining Northern ness is emerging The book highlights the existence of co existing and to some extent competing region building projects in northern Europe It demonstrates how they are all efforts by existing nations to redefine their role in Europe at a time of change and points to how they might develop in the future

The Transatlantic Alliance on the Eve of the New Millennium Snežana

Trifunovska, 2024-09-02 Within these pages is a veritable banquet for those who savour the politics of international security. The reader is offered factual analysis, insight, new perspectives, revisited concepts, problem spotting and recipes for solutions. Academic observers from a dozen different countries in Eastern and Western Europe and on both sides of the Atlantic subject a large number of questions of topical interest in the security field to one or other of these forms of treatment. Their debate embraces reinforcement of the European pillar of the Alliance, adjustment of the balance of responsibilities between the two sides of the Atlantic and shoring up the transatlantic partnership and perhaps broadening it into that elusive concept, a transatlantic community stretching into economic and other fields. They address the perceived security vacuum in parts of Central and Eastern Europe and discuss measures to build up greater confidence between former Cold War antagonists and ways of developing in them the habits of co-operation rather than counter-operation. They draw up architectural designs for the security of the twenty-first century and grapple with the conflict of ideas circulating about the Alliance's future and particularly about its future relationship with Russia. Isolationism, nationalism, multilateralism, realism, constructivism and other isms are helpfully put into context. Renationalisation, denationalisation and identities in formation or in decline are also investigated.

1999 European Wind Energy Conference E.L. Petersen, 2014-01-02

The 1999 European Wind Energy Conference and Exhibition was organized to review progress and present and discuss the wind energy business, technology and science for the future. The Proceedings contain a selection of over 300 papers from the conference. They represent a significant update to the understanding of this increasingly important field of energy generation and cover a full range of topics.

New Technology-Based Firms in the New Millennium Aard Groen, Gary Cook, Peter van der Sijde, 2015-06-16

The papers in this volume address key themes relating to improving our understanding of the processes involved in high technology entrepreneurship and of the design of effective policy to promote it. Topics examined include start-ups, entrepreneurship clusters, inter-firm collaboration and growth strategy for high technology small firms.

Distance, Equity and Older People's Experiences in the Nordic Periphery Shahnaj Begum, Joan R. Harbison, Päivi Naskali, Minna

Zechner, 2023-06-30 This book demonstrates how the largely neglected and multifaceted concept of distance can be used as a primary lens to expand and enrich our understandings of what older people say about their lives, needs and wishes in diverse surroundings in the Northern periphery and beyond. It asks how physical, social and emotional distances shape older people's everyday lives and practices. Contributions from leading experts provide interdisciplinary investigations into the experiences and stories of older people in the Northern periphery. These insights demonstrate the utility of the concept distance when reflecting on the central aspects of contemporary ageing societies. The book explores key themes such as care, age politics, technology, intergenerational relations and migration, providing perspectives that are applicable across a variety of international geographical contexts. This innovative book offers a valuable theoretical and methodological contribution with critical new perspectives on ageing in relation to distances It will be of interest to students and scholars interested in sociology human geography health and social care ageing and gerontological studies gender studies and Arctic studies
