Directory of Central America Classroom Resources K-12 Mary A. Swenson,1990 This annotated directory contains classroom resources for the countries of Central America plus Mexico and the Caribbean The types of resources included are curricula supplemental resources audio visuals organizations evaluation materials and guidebooks and directories The listings of curricula supplemental resources and audio visuals are divided into those appropriate for use in grade school and high school classrooms and are organized by country or region DB Children in the International Political Economy G. Kent,1995-09-13 The first line of responsibility for children lies with their parents but what if the parents fail to look after their children Who else is involved and what should they do Children in the International Political Economy examines the moral responsibilities of different individuals and agencies towards children and argues that some responsibilities should be codified as concrete legal duties If all else fails children must look to the international community for help Thus international agencies should recognize specific obligations to look after the well being of children around the world Advances in Art Therapy Harriet Wadeson,Jean Durkin,Dorine Perach,1991-01-16 Presents new ways in which art therapy is being used Describes a wealth of cases where art therapy has been used with bereaved children refugees psychotics psychosomatic patients and many others Discusses a variety of methods employed by art therapists including the creative use of photography video computers and psychodrama Describes ways of introducing art therapy to children and a new method of working with depressed patients Also covers training issues such as countertransference through art making using art in supervision and training in termination She Who Struggles Marral Shamshiri,Sorcha Thomson,2023-09-20 Exhilarating and immensely valuable Priyamvada Gopal Professor University of Cambridge Captivating captures the resolute vision of revolutionary women in anti colonial anti capitalist and anti imperialist struggles Shahrzad Mojab Professor co author of Revolutionary Learning Powerful complex and compassionate a meaningful intervention not only in women s and revolutionary history but in world history Dilar Dirik author of The Kurdish Women s Movement Rosa Luxemburg Claudia Jones and Leila Khaled may have joined Lenin Mao and Che in the pantheon of twentieth century revolutionaries but the histories in which they figure remain unjustly dominated by men She Who Struggles sets the record straight revealing how women have contributed to revolutionary movements across the world in endless ways as leaders rebels trailblazers guerrillas and writers revolutionaries who also navigated their gendered roles as women mothers wives and daughters

Through exclusive interviews and original historical research including primary sources never before translated into English readers are introduced to largely unknown revolutionary women from across the globe The collection presents a hidden history of revolutionary internationalism that will be a must read for activists and anyone interested in feminist anticolonial and anti racist struggle today Marral Shamshiri is a historian and activist She is a doctoral researcher at the London School of Economics and managing editor of the journal Cold War History Sorchá Thomson is a historian and an associate research fellow at Birkbeck University of London She is co editor of the book Palestine in the World and an editor of the History Workshop magazine
