An Accidental Novelist Richard S. Wheeler, 2012-01-15 In his early forties Richard Wheeler had never given a thought to writing fiction By his early seventies he had written sixty novels And these were being published while he was climbing the masts of a sinking ship This late in life novelist didn't tackle high literature but the sweaty world of genre fiction where the publishers advances barely paid the rent He wrote western fiction and when that genre began to ship water he leapt over to historical novels and finally biographical novels where he found himself in an odd literary corner without competition This is a memoir of literary struggle of agents and editors of jackets and publicity and book tours This is also a story about the astonishing help he received along the way from friends best selling novelists agents editors and publishers Writing may be a lonely profession but Wheeler discovered that the world of genre fiction writers is populated with caring and wise colleagues Here Wheeler evokes his early struggles which somehow prepared him for a life as a successful novelist He discusses shattered dreams and sudden joys And running through his narrative is his passion to write about the West in new ways RICHARD S WHEELER is the author of sixty novels of the West the winner of five Spur Awards and the recipient of the Owen Wister Award for lifetime achievement in the literature of the American West Many of his novels are now in trade paperback editions from Sunstone Press

Nance, 2003-11-11 From New York Times bestselling author and master of the airborne thriller John J Nance comes Fire Flight a ripped from the headlines adventure about the extraordinary pilots who risk their lives flying substandard airplanes in a little known and lopsided war against our nation's wildfires Veteran pilot Clark Maxwell thought his fire bombing days were well behind him But when Jerry Stein Maxwell's friend and airtanker fleet owner calls at the height of the fire season to beg him to reenter the war he doesn't hesitate A pair of ferocious forest fires is raging out of control threatening to destroy Yellowstone and Grand Teton National Parks and incinerate thousands of area homes As the wildfires spread whipped by massive winds and the federal forces arrayed against the fires reach their limits anxiety grows in the local population A paranoia plagues the fire bombers and smoke jumpers as well after a mysterious string of violent airborne accidents among the airtanker fleet claims the lives of some of the most fearless and experienced veterans Maxwell has long argued that the airtankers' old aircraft used by pilots to bomb the fires with fire retardant slurry are faulty museum pieces that should have been grounded years ago Now some of the fleet seem to be falling apart in midair In the middle of the area's worst wildfire season in history Maxwell is convinced that a sinister cover up is behind the rash of horrific air disasters Were the planes inspection papers forged Is someone capitalizing on these crashes As he races to unravel a very real mystery and prevent a natural disaster of massive proportions Maxwell s probe reaches the upper levels of the very government agencies charged with mount ing the aerial fire fighting effort a move that for wholly unexpected reasons just may cost him his life and the life of Karen Jones the married smoke jumper with whom he seems to have fallen in love In amazing detail with the signature authenticity only a veteran pilot could provide John J Nance creates a hair raising thriller that will leave readers breathless from cover to cover Mineral and
