A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized eye or a lens, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red outer ring.

First Impressions Peter Paul Rubens:

First Impressions Richard McLanathan,1995-04-01 Developed especially for older middle grade and young teen readers these exciting biographies bring to life the world s great artists     First Impressions Llewellyn Jones,1925     First Impressions Gary Schwartz,1992-04-30 Surveys the life and work of the well known seventeenth century Dutch artist and discusses the reasons for the rise and fall of artists reputations     Portrait of Beatrice Fabio Camilletti,2019-03-30 The Portrait of Beatrice examines both Dante s and D G Rossetti s intellectual experiences in the light of a common concern about visuality Both render in different times and contexts something that resists clear representation be it the divine beauty of the angel women or the depiction of the painter s own interiority in a secularized age By analyzing Dante s Vita Nova alongside Rossetti s Hand and Soul and St Agnes of Intercession which inaugurates the Victorian genre of imaginary portrait tales this book examines how Dante and Rossetti explore the tension between word and image by creating imaginary portraits The imaginary portrait Dante s sketched angel appearing in the Vita Nova or the paintings evoked in Rossetti s narratives is not only a non existent artwork it is an artwork whose existence lies elsewhere in the words alluding to its inexpressible quality At the same time thinking of Beatrice as an imaginary Lady enables us to move beyond the debate about her actual existence Rather it allows us to focus on her reality as a miracle made into flesh which language seeks incessantly to grasp Thus the intergenerational dialogue between Dante and Rossetti and between thirteenth and nineteenth centuries literature and painting Italy and England takes place between different media oscillating between representation and denial mimesis and difference concealment and performance From medieval Florence to Victorian London Beatrice s imaginary portrait touches upon the intertwinement of desire poetry and art making in Western culture     St. Nicholas ,1907     Confronting Mortality with Art and Science Pascale Pollier-Green,2007 A rare entry into the nexus of science and art this thought provoking exploration introduces the ongoing research by scientists and artists into the fascinating subject of death and mortality The unique practices of medical and scientific artists share a desire to piece the world together using the power of representational drawing Their common belief that to draw is to see seeks to answer the riddles of mortality through the cultivation of their art and what begins as an exploration of death ultimately becomes a celebration of life This collection presents an introduction to the front lines of medical and scientific art elaborating upon the ethos of their movement and showcasing some of their greatest discoveries     A Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Painters and Engravers, from the Revival of the Art Under Cimabue ... Michael Bryan,George Stanley,1849     A Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Painters and Engravers Michael Bryan,George Stanley,1853     General Catalogue Bernard Quaritch,1880     A biographical and critical dictionary of painters and engravers, from the revival of the art under Cimabue, and the alleged discovery of engraving by Finiguerra, to the present times with the ciphers, monograms, and marks, used by each engraveur: by Michael Bryan Michael Bryan,1865     Lines of Connection Edina Adam,Jamie Gabbarelli,2025-03-04 The first volume to chart the rich and reciprocal relationship between drawing and printmaking from the fifteenth to nineteenth centuries. While often viewed and studied separately, drawings and prints have always been closely intertwined. They facilitated and generated the production of one another and in some instances clear distinctions between the two dissolved. Many artists created drawings specifically intended for translation into print and an even greater number used prints as a training tool, copying from them to hone drawing skills. This reciprocal relationship goes even deeper, however, as innovative artists made fascinating hybrid works that blurred the boundaries between the two media, pushing against modern definitions and hierarchies. Lines of Connection charts these historical and geographical continuities for the first time by bringing together works on paper of superb quality, foregrounding issues of artistic process and collaboration, technical innovation and creative ingenuity. Featuring over 170 prints and drawings by such artists as Albrecht Dürer, Parmigianino, Hendrick Goltzius, Maria Sibylla Merian, Rembrandt van Rijn, and William Blake, this catalogue is a rich narrative introduction to the compelling yet understudied relationship between drawing and printmaking. This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at The Art Institute of Chicago from March 15 to June 1, 2025, and at the J. Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from July 1 to September 14, 2025.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly Frank Leslie, 1880 The Rushton M. Dorman, Esq. Library Sale Catalogue (1886) Samuel J. Rogal, 2002. This volume is the first in a two-volume set which constitutes an edition of the sale catalogue of the private library of Rushton M. Dorman of Chicago, Illinois, a collection numbering 1842 separate items. The book demonstrates book collecting and reading habits and interests among affluent late 19th-century Americans. In addition, the substance and tone of the comments set down by the original compiler of the catalogue display the marketing methods employed by a major late 19th-century book auction firm.
