First Look At Rivers:

River Colin Fletcher, 2014-10-15 At age sixty seven Colin Fletcher the guru of backpacking in America undertook a rigorous six month raft expedition down the full length of the Colorado River alone He needed something to pare the fat off my soul to make me grateful again for being alive The 1 700 miles between the Colorado s source in Wyoming and its conclusion at Mexico s Gulf of California contain some of the most spectacular vistas on earth and Fletcher is the ideal guide for the terrain As his privileged companions we travel to places like Disaster Falls and Desolation Canyon observe beaver and elk experience sandstorms and whitewater rapids and share Fletcher s thoughts on the human race the environment and the joys of solitude

First Look at Rivers Susan Baker, 1991 Explains how rivers begin travel and end and how they benefit humankind

Making Space for the River Jeroen Frank Warner, Arwin van Buuren, Jurian Edelenbos, 2012-11-01 This book examines recent developments in river flood management from the viewpoint of Making Space for the River and the resulting challenges for water governance Different examples from Europe and the United States of America are discussed that aim to green rivers including increasing river discharge for flood management enhancing natural and landscape values promoting local or regional economic development and urban regeneration Making Space for the River presents not only opportunities and synergies but also risks as it crosses established institutional boundaries and touches on multiple stakeholder interests which can easily clash Making Space for the River helps the reader to understand the policy and governance dynamics that lead to these tensions and pays attention to a variety of attempts to organize effective and legitimate governance approaches The book helps to realize connections between policy domains problem frames and goals of different actors at different levels that contribute to decisive and legitimate action Making Space for the River has an international comparative character that sheds light upon both the country specific governance dilemmas which relate to specific state traditions and institutional characteristics of national water management but also uncovers interesting similarities which provide us with building blocks to formulate more generic lessons about the governance of Making Space for the River in different institutional and social contexts The authors of this book come from a variety of disciplines including public administration town and country planning geography and anthropology and these different disciplines bring multiple ways of knowing and understanding of Making Space for the River programs The book combines interdisciplinary scientific analyses of Space for the River projects and programs with practical knowing and lessons drawing Making Space for the River is written for both practitioners and scholars and students of environmental policy spatial planning land use and water management Editors Jeroen Warner Assistant Professor of Disaster Studies Wageningen University The Netherlands Arwin van Buuren Associate Professor of Public Administration Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands Jurian Edelenbos Professor of Public Administration Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands

All the Way to Berlin James Megellas, 2007-12-18 In mid 1943 James Megellas known as Maggie to his fellow paratroopers joined the 82d Airborne

Division his new home for the duration His first taste of combat was in the rugged mountains outside Naples In October 1943 when most of the 82d departed Italy to prepare for the D Day invasion of France Lt Gen Mark Clark the Fifth Army commander requested that the division s 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment Maggie s outfit stay behind for a daring new operation that would outflank the Nazis stubborn defensive lines and open the road to Rome On 22 January 1944 Megellas and the rest of the 504th landed across the beach at Anzio Following initial success Fifth Army s amphibious assault Operation Shingle bogged down in the face of heavy German counterattacks that threatened to drive the Allies into the Tyrrhenian Sea Anzio turned into a fiasco one of the bloodiest Allied operations of the war Not until April were the remnants of the regiment withdrawn and shipped to England to recover reorganize refit and train for their next mission In September Megellas parachuted into Holland along with the rest of the 82d Airborne as part of another star crossed mission Field Marshal Montgomery s vainglorious Operation Market Garden Months of hard combat in Holland were followed by the Battle of the Bulge and the long hard road across Germany to Berlin Megellas was the most decorated officer of the 82d Airborne Division and saw more action during the war than most Yet All the Way to Berlin is more than just Maggie s World War II memoir Throughout his narrative he skillfully interweaves stories of the other paratroopers of H Company 504th Parachute Infantry Regiment The result is a remarkable account of men at war The River View Jamie Harrison,2024-08-06
