

FIRST QUESTIONS

On the Life of the Spirit

"This is not a stuffy academic discourse on spiritual life. It is a powerfully written handbook on how to find God, by a man who did so, to his own vast surprise.

"For those who are already tentatively or securely committed to a religious faith, this book offers a guide toward a deeper understanding of the spiritual life. For those who do not believe in God, but who are troubled by what G. K. Chesterton called 'the first wild doubts of doubt,' it is a compelling invitation to a great experiment."

Teaching in the Life of the Church Darin R. Clements, 2025-04-28 I chose to publish my dissertation for two reasons First though quite narrow in scope as good qualitative research should be this research makes a modest contribution to the growing scholarship on Christianity in Cambodia Second this research makes an empirical contribution to the field of nonformal Christian Education from an Asian context in which Christians are a tiny minority As my literature review indicates the field of nonformal CE is dominated by a North American point of view which ironically is facing a general breakdown of historical CE institutions like Sunday school While much of the literature is useful in the Majority World it does not take into account the education levels educational contexts and social dynamics of places like Cambodia For example the findings from my cases indicate that nonformal CE in Cambodia has more in common with the Sunday school movement in the 19th century than with the functions organizational structures and teaching approaches discussed in current literature As I have presented these ideas in class feedback from students has consistently confirmed that my findings resonate with contexts across Asia Pacific
