First Statement 19421945:

Japan's Colonial Moment in Southeast Asia 1942-1945 Nakano Satoshi, 2018-10-03 The first ever attempt to paint a full scale portrait of the Japanese Occupation of Southeast Asia during the Asia Pacific War 1942 5 This book draws on the huge body of available narrative military documents bureaucratic records and personal accounts of combatants and civilians including diaries memoirs and collected correspondence most of which have previously been either unknown or unavailable to non Japanese readers It examines how the Japanese imperial adventure in Southeast Asia sped up the collapse of the Japanese Empire as a whole not only through its ultimate military defeat in the region but also due to its failure as an occupier from the very beginning Nakano explains the significance of the Japanese Occupation of Southeast Asia as a learning experience for the occupiers whether soldiers on the frontlines or civilians on the home front He uses a synthesis overlay and juxtaposition of a selection of these narratives to reassemble the narrative as a whole This brings into focus the outlook of those Japanese who set out for Southeast Asia with the purpose to urge the region s occupied people to collaborate with Japan to transform the region into an integral part of the Greater East Asia Co Prosperity Sphere Many would eventually discover that what required change was Japan and its whole approach to colonial rule as was realized so quickly in the postwar era The original Japanese version was published as Tonan Ajia senryo to Nihonjin Teikoku Nihon no kaitai The occupation of Southeast Asia and the Japanese The dismantling of the Japanese Empire Tokyo Iwanami Shoten 2012 ISBN 430922542X OSS Foreign Nationalities Branch Files, 1942-1945 United States. Office of Strategic Services. Foreign Nationalities Branch, 1988 Documents consist of departmental memos and reports correspondence with individuals and press clippings and press reports which deal with American Jewish groups during 1942 1945 as well as issues relating to Palestine Jews and Jewish refugees during World War II The Guy Liddell Diaries Vol.II: 1942-1945 Nigel West, 2006-06-27 WALLFLOWERS is the codename given to one of the Security Service s most treasured possessions the daily journal dictated from August 1939 to June 1945 by MI5 s Director of Counter Espionage Guy Liddell to his secretary Margo Huggins The document was considered so highly classified that it was retained in the safe of successive Directors General and special permission was required to read it Liddell was one of three brothers who all won the Military Cross during the First World War and subsequently joined MI5 He initially first served in the Metropolitan Police Special Branch at Scotland Yard dealing primarily with cases of Soviet espionage until he was transferred to MI5 in 1931 His social connections proved important because in 1940 he employed Anthony Blunt as his personal assistant and became a close friend of both Guy Burgess and Victor Rothschild and was acquainted with Kim Philby Despite these links when Liddell retired from the Security Service in 1952 he was appointed security adviser to the Atomic Energy Commission an extremely sensitive post following the conviction of the physicist Klaus Fuchs two years earlier No other member of the Security Service is known to have maintained a diary and the twelve volumes of this journal represents a unique record of the events and personalities of the period a veritable tour d horizon of the entire subject As Director B Division Liddell supervised all the major pre war and wartime espionage investigations maintained a watch on suspected pro Nazis and laid the foundations of the famous double cross system of enemy double agents He was unquestionably one of the most reclusive and remarkable men of his generation and a legend within his own organisation The New York Times Living History: World War II, 1942-1945: The Allied Counteroffensive Douglas Brinkley, David Rubel, 2004-01-08 World War II comes alive through the public records and private accounts of the day Eminent historian Brinkley has carefully chosen the critical documents that bring to life the days of the war from the first Allied counteroffensive to V J Day Hong Kong Internment, 1942-1945 Geoffrey Charles Emerson, 2008-03-01 Hong Kong Internment 1942 1945 Life in the Japanese Civilian Camp at Stanley tells the story of the more than three thousand non Chinese civilians British American Dutch and others who were trapped in the British colony and interned behind barbed wire in Stanley Internment Camp from 1942 to 1945 From 1970 to 1972 while researching for his MA thesis the author interviewed twenty three former Stanley internees During these meetings the internees talked about their lives in the Stanley Camp during the Japanese occupation Long regarded as an invaluable reference and frequently consulted as a primary source on Stanley since its completion in 1973 the study is now republished with a new introduction and fresh discussions that recognize later work and information released since the original thesis was written Additional illustrations including a new map and photographs as well as an up to date bibliography have also been included in the book Western and Northern Europe June 1942-1945 Katja Happe, Barbara Lambauer, Clemens Maier-Wolthausen, 2022-08-01 Executive editors Katja Happe Barbara Lambauer and Clemens Maier Wolthausen with Maja Peers English language edition prepared by Elizabeth Harvey Johannes Gamm Georg Felix Harsch Dorothy Mas and Caroline Pearce In summer 1942 the Germans escalated the systematic deportations of Jews from Western and Northern Europe to the extermination camps In most of the countries under German control the occupying forces initially focused on arresting foreign and stateless Jews thereby securing the cooperation of local authorities However before long the entire Jewish population was targeted for deportation This volume documents the parallels and differences in the persecution of Jews in occupied Norway Denmark the Netherlands Belgium Luxembourg and France in the period from summer 1942 to liberation it records the implementation of the systematic deportation and murder of Jews from Western and Northern Europe and it also records the rescue of more than 5 000 Danish Jews In letters and diary entries the persecuted Jews describe their attempts to flee life in hiding the transit camps and deportation transports that often took several days In Westerbork camp in the occupied Netherlands Bob Cahen himself an inmate recorded in his diary the arrival in the camp of 17 000 Jews from across the Netherlands in October 1942 People arrived here herded like livestock Some were buried beneath their luggage others without any possessions at all not even properly dressed Women in poor health who had been hauled out of bed in thin nightgowns children in undergarments and barefoot the elderly the ill the infirm more and more new people came to the camp The sources in the volume show how the perpetrators attempted to dupe their victims regarding the destination of the transports and how Jewish organizations attempted to alleviate the suffering of the deportees The documents additionally illustrate how the resistance movement gained momentum during this period Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org>

Far East Air Operations, 1942-1945 John Grehan, Martin Mace, 2014-09-30 Despatches in this volume include Air Operations in Burma and Bay of Bengal 1 January to 22 May 1942 by General Wavell the despatch on air operations in South East Asia November 1943 to May 1944 by Air Chief Marshal Sir R E C Peirse the despatch on air operations in South East Asia from June 1944 to May 1945 by Air Chief Marshal Sir Keith Park and the despatch on air operations in South East Asia between May 1945 and September 1945 by Air Chief Marshal Sir Keith Park This unique collection of original documents will prove to be an invaluable resource for historians students and all those interested in what was one of the most significant periods in British military history

Special Operations South-East Asia 1942-1945 David Miller, 2015-11-30 Many books have been written about Second World War special forces operations in Europe and the Middle East Much less has been said about such operations in South East Asia those launched against the Japanese in Sumatra and the Andaman Islands and the Germans in Goa These operations and the exceptional men who took part in them have been almost forgotten David Miller in this gripping account sets the record straight His book is based on extensive original research including long hidden family documents revealing much information for the first time and his narrative is fascinating reading for anyone who is interested in special operations and the war against the Axis powers in South East Asia His history is the first general account of these operations it is a landmark in the field
