First to Fight Robert Breen, Bob Breen, 1988      New Zealand's Vietnam War Ian McGibbon, 2014-06-18 This landmark publication provides a comprehensive and authoritative account of New Zealand's involvement in the Vietnam War and will remain the standard reference work on the subject for decades Its publication completes the programme of official war histories that began in 1945 Ian McGibbon's primary focus is what New Zealand did in South Vietnam He traces in detail the operations carried out by New Zealand forces and seeks to illuminate the experience of New Zealand soldiers fighting in a guerrilla war The command structure logistic support and operational context of fighting within a primarily Australian framework are all covered He addresses controversial aspects such as friendly fire incidents atrocity allegations and veterans grievances including over Agent Orange Maori participation in V Force was substantial and its impact is assessed Although the book is inevitably weighted towards the military the efforts of civilians in South Vietnam are also covered in depth The surgical team operated from 1963 until their evacuation from Qui Nhon just days before North Vietnamese columns entered the city Not forgotten are the efforts of courageous civilians like Sister Mary Laurence and of Red Cross volunteers to alleviate misery among refugees The book also describes the dramatic end of New Zealand's involvement in South Vietnam with the surgical team and the New Zealand Embassy evacuated by RNZAF Bristol Freighters just before the communist victory Finally McGibbon surveys the war's troubled aftermath culminating in the Prime Minister's apology to veterans in 2008      Australian Soldiers in South Africa and Vietnam Effie Karageorgos, 2016-03-24 The South African and Vietnam Wars provoked dramatically different reactions in Australians from pro British jingoism on the eve of Federation to the anti war protest movements of the 1960s In contrast the letters and diaries of Australian soldiers written while on the South African and Vietnam battlefields reveal that their reactions to the war they were fighting were surprisingly unlike those on the home fronts from which they came Australian Soldiers in South Africa and Vietnam follows these combat men from enlistment to the war front and analyses their words alongside theories of soldiering to demonstrate the transformation of soldiers as a response to developments in military procedure as well as changing civilian opinion In this way the book illustrates the strength of a soldier's link to their home front lives      Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam Ronald B. Frankum Jr., 2011-06-10 For Southeast Asia the Vietnam War altered forever the history topography people economy and politics of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV the Republic of Vietnam RVN Cambodia and Laos That the war was controversial is an understatement as is the notion that the war can be understood from any one perspective One way of understanding the Vietnam War is by marking its time with turning points both major and minor that involved events or decisions that helped to influence its course in the years to follow By examining a few of these turning points an organizational framework takes shape that makes understanding the war more possible Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam emphasizes the international nature of the war as well as provide a greater understanding of the long scope of the conflict The major events associated with the war will serve as the foundation of the book while additional entries will explore the military diplomatic political social and cultural events that made the war unique While military subjects will be fully explored there will be greater attention to other aspects of the war All of this is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Vietnam War Combat Operations:

ANZUS Treaty was signed in 1951 For 63 years it has been an enduring feature of Australian defence planning yet the contemporary alliance is arguably in one of the more important phases of reinterpretation in its long history While the Alliance by its very nature is a bi lateral relationship this book will therefore specifically focus on Australian perspectives and policy choices while providing context on the role of the United States in the Asia Pacific and its position as a global power

Australian Force Somalia Bob Breen,2022-01-05 In 1992 civil war drought and economic collapse left four million Somalis destitute displaced and starving Twenty six nations sent their young men and women to make sure that food reached those who needed it Australia joined this international coalition of the willing with the Australian Force Somalia comprised of a 1 000 strong battalion group based on 1st Battalion the Royal Australian Regiment from the 3rd Brigade in Townsville as well as a small national liaison headquarters from 1st Division in Brisbane Opposing the US led Unified Task Force were Somali warlords and their militia armies that had been pillaging humanitarian aid and terrorising the Somali population during a bloody civil war American airpower forced the warlords to send their armies into hiding across the border but thousands of bandit groups criminal gangs and violent political factions remained to threaten humanitarian operations and the safety hundreds of ex patriate aid agency staff Australian Army units will serve in troubled parts of the world in the future The lessons learned from the unforgiving school of trial and error in Somalia in 1992 93 will be invaluable They will apply not only to those confronting hostile groups on the frontline but also those who command and support them from higher levels of command Operations in 1993 were Exhibit A for change in the ways and means for mobilising preparing and sustaining land forces serving overseas

Vietnam Vanguard Ron Boxall,Robert O'Neill,2020-02-28 The Vietnam War and Australia s part in it was a major military event calling for willingness to face death and destruction on the battlefield on the part of those sent there especially the men of our infantry battalions who formed the spearhead of our forces in Vietnam For many reasons the Australian public know relatively little about what our Army did in Vietnam during the war particularly during the years of our peak commitment 1965 72 This book attempts to make the true nature of the war clearer to readers emphasising how hard fought it was during major operations Twenty seven of the contributing authors of this book were involved in the 1966 deployment of the 1st Australian Task Force into Phuoc Tuy Province This formation was the first Australian Army force larger than an infantry battalion group to be deployed into a major war since World War II 5th Battalion the Royal Australian Regiment 5 RAR was in the vanguard as the task force s first element committed to operations to seize and occupy Nui Dat base and embark on establishing dominance over the enemy The narratives presented in this book give rare insights into thoughts of the soldiers at the time and how they have come to view the Australian Government s hurried expansion of its initial commitment to that war the Army s state of preparedness for that wider involvement and how those in its forefront adapted to get the job done both in and out of operations despite numerous shortcomings in higher level planning Both professional soldiers and conscripted national servicemen have contributed viewpoints to these pages

Mine Warfare Andrew Ross, 2021-05-05 Mine warfare in its various forms is a favoured weapon used by insurgents against government forces By June 1966 when the 1st Australian Task Force 1ATF arrived in Phuoc Tuy Province South Vietnam the Viet Cong and People's Army of Vietnam forces were well entrenched in the province and used mines extensively The mine campaign risked few enemy lives and was a powerful statement to everyone including civilians that the Viet Cong were still in the war and not a spent force The intense patrolling practised by 1ATF inevitably put its men in close contact with enemy mines Indeed 1ATF suffered more casualties from the Viet Cong mine warfare campaign than from any other single cause yet enemy casualties were minimal So why did the enemy mine campaign collapse in the period July to December 1970 and continue its rapid decline until 1ATF ended combat operations in September 1971 Counterinsurgency has been described as a competition in learning and facing a well organised mine campaign against them 1ATF learned and adapted to the enemy's mine warfare techniques Supported by statistical analyses of operational research data this book details the complex tactics adopted by 1ATF to eventually defeat the Viet Cong mine campaign and how enemy forces were reduced to a negligible military presence in Phuoc Tuy Province

Australia's Vietnam War Jeff Doyle,Jeffrey Grey,Peter Pierce,2002 Today the mere mention of Vietnam conjures up images of protest in American streets and tensions so strong they divided a country Yet the United States did not fight alone Comparatively little is known about Australia s experience its motives for entering the conflict national support for Australia s role there and how that nation dealt with the aftermath of war Here Jeff Doyle Jeffrey Grey and Peter Pierce chronicle Australia s complicated involvement in Vietnam Australia s decision to participate in the conflict was part of a collective Western effort to stop Communist expansion It was also a price willingly paid for assurances of American intervention in the event of an Indonesian attack on Australia Through an evaluation of the literature arising from Vietnam the manner in which Australia memorialized its fallen veterans and other expressions of the war s influences this book offers important insights into the healing process nations face following such conflicts

Struggling for Self Reliance Bob Breen,2008-10-01 Military force projection is the self reliant capacity to strike from mainland ports bases and airfields to protect Australia s sovereignty as well as more distant national interests Force projection is not just a flex of military muscle in times of emergency or the act of dispatching forces It is a cycle of force preparation command deployment protection employment sustainment rotation redeployment and reconstitution If the Australian Defence Force consistently gets this cycle wrong then there is something wrong with Australia s defence This monograph is a force projection audit of four Australian regional force projections in the late 1980s and the 1990s valid measures of competence It concludes that Australia is running out of luck and time The Rudd Government has commissioned a new Defence White paper This monograph is Exhibit A for change
